

dialects. The analytic character of the language and its synthetic character balance each other pretty evenly, much as they do in the two classic languages of antiquity.

Concerning the ethnography of both chieftaincies and the mythology of the Modoc Indians, I have gathered more material than could be utilized for the report, and I hope to publish it at a later day as a necessary supplement to what is now embodied in the two parts of the present volume.

Very respectfully, yours,

ALBERT S. GATSCHET.

Hon. J. W. POWELL,
