

CHAIS ON ORIENTAL CHINA

BY

J. F. BLACKER

ILLUSTRATED

DESCRIPTION OF VASE.

TORONTO

BELL AND COCKBURN

High-necked vase with melon-shaped body and double protuberance above. One of a pair. Formerly handled as the neck of a imitation of stamped-work. The body of the protuberances decorated with stamped stems having yellow and green reserves decorated with flowers and plants. The neck decorated with diaper pattern. Yellow on green. The flattened top ornamented with black and green stamped-work. Period (Kang-hsi) 1662-1682.