

MORE HELP NEEDED FOR THE CANNERS

Patriotic Work That Women Can Do, Says Government Official.

that Shamen consists of the toddlers along with some tools—waste of time; from habits of the customs as good money vice—can't be sent.

ER ANY CALL. ALL TOOLS FOR EVERY

Distance Coming.

NON

739. Phone 334.

PEALS

EXAMINERS

of the entrance

facility of education have only a number of applications reached by the department. Some of the ap- plications are difficult but the

from the total

and by the ex-appeals, Hon.

are carefully gone

over and examined yesterday

he had been very late. He said

no possibility of being wrong as

all fully checked

by the clerk. Misunderstand it an d to make two was not chosen for the next year.

AS CHEERED.

covered at Loew's

Performance.

seeming of "Pan-

time performance

Theatre, a huge

ing to the manu-in Canada, was orchestra played

"Simultaneous

and with

National Anthem

of cheering that minutes. After the patrons compliment, Julius Bernstein success of the in-repeated daily

theatre and the

JOURED.

ung and the jury

annulled to invest

Mr. Ellen Bur-

in a motor ac-

city last night and at 12.

RS

RS

ED

Reinforcing

SOCIETY

CONDUCTED BY MRS. EDMUND PHILLIPS

Their excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire have graciously given their patronage to the committee of the Infants' Home for its concert on Sept. 24 in Massey Hall, when Madame Yvonne de Treville will give a costume concert.

Col. Primrose has left town for a short rest at his island in Lake Joseph, Muskoka.

Sir James Loughheed is en route from Ottawa to Calgary.

Mr. Clifford Browne has returned to town from the south and will shortly return there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burton left yesterday for the sea near Halifax, N.S. Miss Betty Burton is in Muskoka.

LT.-Col. F. H. Deacon was at Niagara Camp this week.

Miss Constance Bird and Miss Phyllis McCausland are staying with Mrs. Rathbun, Deseronto.

Dr. Arthur Doughty, Dominion Architect, and Mrs. Doughty have left for Dalhousie, N.B., where they will spend a holiday.

Mrs. Rosamond, accompanied by her mother, left for Murray Bay early last week.

Mrs. Charles Forgie, Montreal, is spending the summer at the Birchdale, Halifax.

Mr. Thomas Mulvey, K.C., under-secretary of state, Ottawa, is spending a few days at the Queen's Hotel.

Rev. Dr. Bruce Taylor, who is in town from Kingston for the convention of the Great War Veterans, is at the Carleton Place.

Mrs. Fae Divine is visiting the Hon. T. W. and Mrs. McGarry, and before returning to Ottawa will spend some time at the Highland Inn, Algonquin Park.

Brig.-Gen. A. E. Swift, Quebec, who has just returned from overseas, is at the Chateau Laurier, Ottawa.

The weekly dance takes place at the Royal Canadian Yacht Club tonight.

Dr. Charles A. E. Harris, Ottawa, has been spending a short time at "Portland" visiting Admiral Sir Charles and Lady Kingsmill.

Mr. A. R. Humphreys (late of 86th Battalion, now quartermaster at Davisville Military Hospital, North Toronto), and Mrs. Humphreys have given up their house in Hamilton to live in Toronto.

Mrs. J. E. Waterous, Brantford, and Miss Dorothy Merritt, St. Catharines, have been visiting Mrs. Harry Etches at the island.

The officers and cadets of the Royal Air Force at Deseronto Camp are holding a patriotic sports day followed by a dance today.

Miss Blain Burrows has left town en route for Metis.

Captain Cecil Snellgrove is spending week at the Queen's Royal, Niagara-on-the-Lake.

Miss Elliott is visiting Mrs. H. H. Loosmore at Victoria Beach.

The men of the 1st Battalion, 1st C.O.R. are giving a concert at Niagara Camp tonight.

Miss Dorothy Dunn, Homewood avenue, has left for Ottawa, where she will pay a fortnight's visit to Miss Helen Clarke.

Miss Winnie Johnston, High Park avenue, left yesterday for Winnipeg and the west, where she will spend some weeks.

Mrs. Lyman E. Root is the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. E. Clendinning, in Ottawa.

The marriage is announced of Catherine Marynet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McPhee, Webbwood, Ont., to Mr. John J. Brownlee, Nicholson, Ont.

Mrs. Myra D. Patterson, 51 West Eighth street, New York, announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Clarice Patterson, to Mr. John McE. Brown, chief of the hotel restaurant, dining car and steamship division of the United States food administration, and president of the companies operating the Baltimore, Manhattan, Commodore, Belmont, Murray Hill and Ansonia hotels. Miss Patterson comes of an old New York family whose ancestors were among the original Dutch settlers and on her mother's side fought in the revolutionary war.

Miss Patterson, like her mother, who is president of the Eastern Golf Association and who for five years was the president of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Club, is a great lover of all outdoor sports, skating and swimming especially being her favorites.

Her grandfather was the late Mr. Robert W. Patterson, who died last October leaving one of the most magnificent country estates at Lenox, Mass.

Mr. John McE. Bowman has been prominently identified with food conservation in the United States, and since the day when he was asked to go to Washington and help to solve food problems at affecting hotels, restaurants, clubs, dining cars and steamships, he has taught food saving, and he has practised food saving in his great hotels.

Very quietly, in the presence of the immediate relations, the marriage was solemnized yesterday afternoon in the Westminster Presbyterian Church, of

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

SOLDIERS HAD GAME ALL TO THEMSELVES

When a baseball team chosen from among the patients at the Whitby Military Hospital came to grips with a team chosen from among the army men who composed part of a large party which went down on Sunday to entertain the convalescent warriors the "real" men found out that they were in a real game, with the result that none can remember the score.

What the soldiers did to the Huns in France and Flanders wasn't in it, with what they did to the visitors.

However, this was just one bit of a most enjoyable program staged under the direction of J. F. Bickell, president of the Regent Theatre Company. Early Sunday morning the entire staff of the Regal Hotel, Ltd., and the Regent Theatre motored to Whitby and the soldiers say it was a day to be remembered.

"My Four Years in Germany" was run off, the encore being Charlie Chaplin in "A Dog's Life". The concert was exceptionally good, among those taking part being: F. Weber, New York; Milton Blankstein and Jake Stern of the Regent Orchestra; Christ Pender, late of New York and now in the Royal Air Force; Ernest Caldwell, baritone, and Reta Hallgarth, elocutionist.

N. L. Nathanson and A. Aronson, of the Regal Hotel, took an active part in helping to make the day a pronounced success from the soldiers' point of view and already the party has been requested to "repeat the dose" at an early date.

Among the Islands of Georgian Bay. Why not take a vacation at one of the very desirable spots among the islands of the Georgian Bay? This district is one of the wonders of a wonderful region. The archipelago consists of something like thirty-two islands ranging in size from a few acres to several square miles down to the size of a dining table. Lunge and bass fishing is exceptionally good in the water of this district and the islands and well equipped hotels and boarding houses are located at Honey Harbor, Minicou, Whalen's, Go-Home-Bay, and Scotch Bay.

The men of the 1st Battalion, 1st C.O.R. are giving a concert at Niagara Camp tonight.

Miss Dorothy Dunn, Homewood avenue, has left for Ottawa, where she will pay a fortnight's visit to Miss Helen Clarke.

Miss Winnie Johnston, High Park avenue, left yesterday for Winnipeg and the west, where she will spend some weeks.

Mrs. Lyman E. Root is the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. E. Clendinning, in Ottawa.

The marriage is announced of Catherine Marynet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McPhee, Webbwood, Ont., to Mr. John J. Brownlee, Nicholson, Ont.

Mrs. Myra D. Patterson, 51 West Eighth street, New York, announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Clarice Patterson, to Mr. John McE. Brown, chief of the hotel restaurant, dining car and steamship division of the United States food administration, and president of the companies operating the Baltimore, Manhattan, Commodore, Belmont, Murray Hill and Ansonia hotels. Miss Patterson comes of an old New York family whose ancestors were among the original Dutch settlers and on her mother's side fought in the revolutionary war.

Miss Patterson, like her mother, who is president of the Eastern Golf Association and who for five years was the president of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Club, is a great lover of all outdoor sports, skating and swimming especially being her favorites.

Her grandfather was the late Mr. Robert W. Patterson, who died last October leaving one of the most magnificent country estates at Lenox, Mass.

Mr. John McE. Bowman has been prominently identified with food conservation in the United States, and since the day when he was asked to go to Washington and help to solve food problems at affecting hotels, restaurants, clubs, dining cars and steamships, he has taught food saving, and he has practised food saving in his great hotels.

Very quietly, in the presence of the immediate relations, the marriage was solemnized yesterday afternoon in the Westminster Presbyterian Church, of

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffatt, to Captain W. Ray Hodge, R.A.M.C., recently returned from Mesopotamia. The service was read by the Rev. Dr. Bell, and the decorations were carried out with white lilies and palms. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore a gown of white georgette crepe, with white hat and bouquet of pink roses. After the ceremony, Mrs. Moffatt held a reception at her house in South Drive. Later in the afternoon, Capt. and Mrs. Hodge left on a motor trip, the bride going away in a navy blue satin sailor made suit and hat to match.

War Garden Bulletin

Issued by Canada Food Board. "That's the style, sonny. You have the geyser idea. Now, when I was younger like you all I knew about hoeing was to make a bee-line straight at the poor wretch until he passed some one's garden so you see the hoe is directed slap bang at the vegetables. Only here and there do you find the gardener who waters his ground in a skilled and gentle manner."

RESPONDED TO CALL FOR MORE UNIFORMS

Responding to a hurried call from a Canadian hospital in France for uniforms and other clothing with which to equip the overseas nurses who will take charge, nurses in Toronto got together and prepared a fine collection of all that will be needed in the way of clothing and yesterday the offering was sent in to the headquarters of the Secours National, where they will be packed for shipment.

Dresses, aprons, shoes, stockings and other articles were a beautiful demonstration on behalf of the hard-worked nurses of Toronto, who had spent their spare moments, or rather hours, on getting out the supply. The girls, on probation, who had not much to give, pooled their gifts and bought stockings. One pair of white socks with white stockings was also supplied with a shoe horn—nothing forgotten.

The cases will be shipped as speedily as possible. The general news from the Secours was "never as busy as this time of the year as now."

A PARADISE FOR CANOEISTS.

One of the principal attractions which Algonquin Park has for the holiday maker is its opportunities for canoeing and fishing. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

Lakes and streams abound in fish and game. The park is a vast expanse of miles by canoe and camp unspoiled in a kingdom of your own.

DOROTHY DIX'S TALKS

A CONVERSATIONAL REPERTOIRE.

BY DOROTHY DIX.

The World's Highest Paid Woman Writer.

A young girl writes me that when she is in company she finds herself struck dumb. She is bankrupt in ideas. She cannot think of a single thing to say, and she asks me if I will tell her what to talk about.

I am sorry that I cannot oblige her, but no one can furnish a list of topics suitable for bright