of the Authors of Massacres Publicly Executed in Square at Stamboul, Was Formerly Governor of Diarbekr --- Another Sentenced to Fifteen Years in Fortress.

Constantinople, Saturday, April 12.—Kemal Bey, governor of Diarbekr, has been publicly hanged in Bayazid Square in Stamboul in the presence of the military governor of Constantinople and other high officials. Kemal Bey was sentenced to death as one of those sponsible for the Armenian deportations and massacres in the fozghad district. The former commander of the gendarmerie in ozghad was sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment in the fortress. There sentences were confirmed by an imperial irade.

The trial of those responsible for the Armenian massacres by the Turks began early in February at Constantinople. The prosecutor declared it was necessary to punish the authors of the massacres, which had filled the whole world with a feeling of horror. Kemal Bey was former Turkish minister of food.

SOVIET REGIME IN BAVARIA DOOMED

Against Its Incompetence, Ruth-lessnes and Decrees.

Berlin, Saturday, April 12.— Sentiment among a large propor-tion of the people of Munich and of almost the entire remainder of Bavaria is steadily growing conjust the alleged ruthlessness. against the alleged ruthlessness, incompetence and strange methods and decrees of the new soviet regime. Ratisbon, Schweinfurt, Furth and Augsburg have capitulated to the old regime and disavowed the allurements of the soviet which led them temporarily from the fold.

Other towns are expected to return to the old alliance shortly, leaving the communists to face the opposition of the bourgeoise in Munich on the one hand and of the peasants on the other.

COVENANT OF NATIONS FOR SECURING OF PEACE

Racial Equality Amendment Turned Down by Commission

Several Members Voted Against Inclusion in League Covenant of Request by Japanese Delegation.

Paris, April 13.—The league of nations commission has rejected the Japanese amendment on racial equality according to an authoritative statement issued tonight. The Japanese delegation proposed an amendment to the preamble of the covenant as follows: To insert after the words "prescription of open, just and honorable relations between nations," an additional clause to read: "By the endorsement of the principle of equality of nations and just treatment of their nationals."

The commission was impressed by the justice of the Japanese claim and by the spirit in which it was presented. Various members of the commission, however, felt that they could not vote for its specific inclusion in the covenant. Therefore, the commission was unable to give to the amendment that unanimous approval which was necessary for its adoption.

St. John's, Nfld., April 13.—It now being 4.30, the Sopwith flight is postponed until tomorrow, or later, unless the weather improves. Winds, fog and rain continue, but mid-ocean conditions are favorable, making the very reverse of yesterday's record. This ofternoon, Hawker and Grieve are visit-ing the Morgan and Raynham, of Martynside machine, who made a call on the Sopwith party yesterday and inspected their machine. The Martynside machine, known as the Raymour, is partly assembled and will be completed tomorrow; wireless will be installed on Tuesday, and they are her pleted tomorrow; wireless will be installed on Tuesday, and they are hoping to leave, with a full moon Wednesday. Their machine is somewhat smaller than the Sopwith, having only 42 feet wing spread, and total length of 24 feet. This machine carries a Rolls-Royce engine, has 300 horsepower, and like the Sopwith machine, can make about a hundred miles an hour. She has no toat like the Sopwith plane, and if any mishap befalls the occupants, their fate is sealed, yet they are in excellent spirits and quite confident of being able to achieve the run successfully.

THIS IS EASTER SHOW WEEK AT

Great preparations have been made to make Easter week very attractive. The Dineen Company's buyers have just returned from New York, and succeeded in bringing with them many new ideas in Ladies' Sulps, Dresses, Millinery and Blouses. Many of the styles will be shown for the first time this season. Ladies are invited, and which is very important, the prices are very moderate.
