THAW HOPES TO GO FREE SUNDAY

"Like All the Rest of Us, He is Confident the Trial Will Go on," Says Wife, "and He Planned to Dine With Me in Week."

New York, March 31.—Easter Sunday for Harry Thaw in the Tombs was made more cheerful by a visit from his wife, to whom had been granted a special permit to pass the afternoon with her husband.

When Mrs. Thaw left she spoke for the first time since the tragedy last June to reporters. "Harry grows more cheerful and satisfied with the way his affairs are progressing every day," she said.

"Like all the rest of us, he is perfectly confident that the commission will find him sane and that the trial will go on. He even talked to-day of being free next Sunday, and he planned how we would dine together."

Thaw attended the Easter services conducted by Rev. Dr. Sanderson in the morning. None of his counsel visited him during the day. He will consult with his lawyers to-morrow as to probable developments before the commission, which convenes at 10 o'clock Tuesday.

The plans of the commission to submit a report to Justice Fitzgerald to-morrow morning were upset last evening by an appeal by Jerome to be allowed to produce witnesses when the adjourned till to-morrow.

DISABLED SHIP GOES DOWN AS 183 MEN ARE TAKEN OFF

Rescuers Take Sealers From Aboard the Greenland Just Before the Steamer Founders.

St. John's Nfld., March 31.—The sealing steamer Greenland, which became disabled on the sealing grounds early this week, has sunk. All the members of her crew were rescued by the steamers Newfoundland and Erik.

The news of the loss of the Greenland was brought here yesterday by the sealing steamer Algonquin, which put in here from the sealing grounds with a broken rudder.

The Greenland was abandoned on Tuesday. The gale which accompanied the vessel blew from the west, and the two following days, Tuesday and Wednesday, it drove her with terrific force against ice floes, with which she was surrounded.

On Monday an attempt was made to give the vessel steerage way in a sheet of open water, but the sails were blown away and the craft again became helpless. The gale dashed the broken propeller and shaft against the hull and forced open the stern, thru which the water made its way to the hold.

The men kept the pumps working steadily, but could not free the hold. The decks had been crushed by the heavy pack ice and the crew was so cramped that they could not be kept aboard long.

ROOSEVELT GLAD TO SEE TEACHERS

"There Could Be No Delegation Could More Gladly Greet Than This One," Says the President.

"There could be no delegation I could more gladly greet than this one. I have, as every American must have, the very warmest and strongest feeling for our brothers across the line in Canada. So I welcome you as Canadians."

"And as the father of six children I have the strongest feeling for teachers. I might say the strongest sympathetic feeling, and when they come combined as Canadians and teachers I greet them with double fervor. It gives me very great pleasure to see you, and I would not have missed on any account the chance of greeting you personally in the White House, and to say how very glad I am to greet you, both in your individual capacities and for the mighty Dominion that you represent."

Washington, D. C., March 30.—In less than fifteen minutes this afternoon over four hundred school teachers and friends from Toronto, Hamilton and London met, were addressed and shaken by the hand and said good-bye to by President Roosevelt.

Promptly at 2:30 the president came in thru a large folding door. The Toronto delegation pretty well filled the room and warm applause greeted his appearance. The president was attended only by a military aide and two ushers.

Bryce Fraser, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania Railway, introduced the delegation as a "select party of teachers, who had come all the way from Toronto to meet the president."

Minister Will Head Off Bourassa Speech on Wednesday With Direct Statement.

Ottawa, March 31.—(Special.)—The attitude which Hon. H. R. Emmerson is likely to adopt towards the Bourassa movement next Wednesday has been a subject of speculation ever since the introduction of the minister's name into the implications concerning "wine, women and graft" by The Fredericton, N.B. Gleaner.

But it is not probable Mr. Emmerson will wait for Bourassa's speech to make his reply. When the house meets on Wednesday the minister will be in his place, it is said, and a question of privilege will refer to The Gleaner's charges, give them a direct denial, and announce that he is about to take action for libel against the proprietors of the paper.

Less than this, indeed, Mr. Emmerson cannot afford to do, as it is the course that alone will satisfy the prime minister in view of the state of public opinion has been wrought up by the incident in parliament.

Mr. Hymen's return to Canada before the end of the session, it is said, instead of coming home from Los Angeles, as was promised a week or more ago, Mr. Hymen will return to Toronto next Tuesday for a further stay.

It is said that Sir Frederick Borden has cancelled his passage by the Empress of Britain, on which he was to have sailed on April 5.

ROUMANIAN BATTLES WON BY TROOPS AND VILLAGES TOTALLY DESTROYED IN A WHIRLING CAMPAIGN WITH GRAPE SHOT.

Bucharest, March 31.—Field guns loaded with grape shot, according to the official reports, are winning against the revolutionary peasantry, whose arms are mostly hay forks and scythes.

The insurgents were able to hold their own against the troops at close quarters and even without cavalry charges, doing terrible execution with long pronged forks and scythes blades strapped to long poles, but the slaughter since the troops used artillery appears to be terrifying them into submission.

In the district of Vlaschia, where the outbreak was particularly serious, large numbers of insurgents have surrendered and have denounced their leaders to the authorities with the result that many of the latter have been arrested. The government hopes that with the leaders in jail the untrained bands will soon abandon the field.

"self-styled 'generals' usually turn out to be country school masters and village priests. Numbers of women are fighting in the insurgent ranks, and many of them have been found among the killed, some by side with their husbands, sons and brothers.

Pitched Battle Fought. Details of the attack by the peasants show that a pitched battle was fought. The peasants, who were several thousand strong, carried the assault at midnight, carried the earthworks by storm and captured a suburb, which they set on fire after pillaging it.

Attacks of infantry attempted to stem the peasants' entry into the city itself, but the fork and scythe armed ruffians fought desperately hand to hand and almost routed the troops when the governor ordered field guns loaded with grape shot to be fired at the insurgents, who wavered and then fled. The fire of the guns wrought great havoc on the retreating masses.

LITTLE HOPE HELD OUT FOR THE RECOVERY OF SPEAKER ST. JOHN

Since Operation for Appendicitis It Has Been Discovered He is a Victim of Diabetes.

Small hope is entertained for the recovery of Hon. J. W. St. John, Speaker of the legislative assembly. All thru the day friends and attendants anxiously awaited fresh news.

During the afternoon his condition was so critical that relatives were advised by telegraph and telephone that the end was near.

He lay apparently very close to death, and oxygen was administered artificially in order to sustain life. Between 5 and 6 in the evening the patient rallied, his heart beat more strongly and his general tone showed great improvement.

At 1 o'clock this morning Dr. G. W. Clendenen was in the room when the patient weakened and smiled, seeming as cheerful as usual. His pulse was 120. He fell asleep again in a minute or two.

Only since the operation for appendicitis has it been discovered that Mr. St. John is suffering with diabetes. Although diabetes is looked upon by medical men as an incurable disease, if the patient can recover from his present condition, by careful dieting he might attain a prolonged life.

HILL GOT MCGUIGAN FOR DEAL AFFECTING CANADA

Thaw Tried to Keep Manager, Who Could Not See Enough Ahead for Him in Grand Trunk.

Montreal, March 31.—(Special.)—H. McGuihan, the newly elected vice-president of the Great Northern Railway system of the United States, arrived in Chicago to-night and should be in St. Paul to-morrow evening, where he will enter at once upon his new duties.

It is understood that, for the present at least, he will make his headquarters at St. Paul, but that there may be a change later on.

The system over which the former manager of the Grand Trunk will have general jurisdiction embraces 6620 miles, extending from St. Paul and Duluth to Seattle and Vancouver. Mr. McGuihan's energies will be devoted for a time at least to the affairs of the Great Northern only.

It is stated that one of the reasons which influenced Mr. Hill to make so great a bid for the Grand Trunk manager's services was the fact of his intimate knowledge of Canadian railway affairs and especially his ability as a railway builder.

It is also stated that Mr. McGuihan will be heard from in the near future in connection with Mr. Hill's ambitious projects near and over the Canadian border.

STREET RAILWAY INDICTED.

Jury Defers Court to Condemn Jersey Cars as Unsanitary.

Newark, N. J., March 31.—The North Jersey Street Railway Company was indicted by a grand jury yesterday charged with maintaining dirty and unsanitary cars, providing such fences and allowing its cars to be overcrowded.

The indictment was returned to Chief Justice Gummere, who warned the jury a few days ago not to be influenced by public clamor against the company.

In its indictment the jury declared that the indignation and protest of a long-suffering public, which have been interpreted by the court as "public clamor," have not influenced the grand jury in its consideration of this case.

Chief Justice Gummere dismissed the jury without thanking them.

FAMOUS SUICIDE TO TRICK WIFE

Deserter Writes a Letter Giving Scheme Away—This is Intercepted and Arrest Follows.

Ernest Killmaster of Port Rowan was arrested yesterday in the Union Hotel by Detective Tipton on the charge of deserting his wife.

Killmaster had been in the hardware business with his father until about two weeks ago, when he came to Toronto. There is another woman in the case. She was formerly a clerk in the hardware store and is now living in Toronto. They were planning an elopement, it is said. A note intercepted by her brother gave the plot away and landed the gay wife deserter in the cells.

When young Killmaster came to Toronto his first scheme was to create the impression that he had committed suicide. With that end in view, he left a hat and coat on the Queen's Wharf and in the afternoon he was going to end his life. Then he went to Buffalo and returned on Saturday.

His father also came to Toronto in search of him, and is stopping at the Walker House.

While the officer and the father were talking in the hotel, a young man came in, looked in their direction, turned and walked out quickly. Tipton asked the father if that was the son. The father looked at Tipton suspiciously, followed and arrested him. He admitted his identity. The father did not recognize his son because he had dyed his hair and mustache. He will be taken to Port Rowan to-day.
