A despatch from Pretoria to-day says the Executive Council is now in session, considering all the sentences is imposed by the court yesterday.

In passing judgment upon the prisoners yesterday, the judge said it was his painful duty to impose extreme sentence, but he hoped the Executive would exercise the same degree of clemency towards the prisoners that he had shown at the beginning of the year.

London, April 29.—The Daily Telegraph to-morrow will publish a despatch from Pretoria, dated April 28, saying that the accused Reform leaders without exception received their sentences with dignity. John Hammond, after being sentenced collapsed and was taken immediately to the jail, where he was placed under the care of a doctor and the chief jailer. The bitterest feeling exists among the prisoners, who consider that they were filly advised in pleading guilty. Fully forty prisoners avow that they could have proved their innocence except so far as joining in the movement at the last moment constituted guilt. "The awful sentence pronounced upon these men has created a painful sensation throughout the civilized world."

In Johannesburg the sentences shocked the entire town. The people were greatly excited and througed the streets discussing the event. An immense public meeting was held yesterday afternoon to protest against the severity of the court's judgment. The greatest sympathy is felt for those among the condemned reformers who did not take any active part in the movement. Most of the theatres the Johannesburg as well as a majority of the stores were closed last evening, and business was practically suspended. The town was quiet.
