

FOR SALE

ST. GEORGE ST., COR. HARBOR, Lot 108 ft. 6 in. x 148. H. N. WILLIAMS, 10 VICTORIA ST.

TWENTIETH YEAR

UNCLE SAM'S RESISTED GRAB

DETAILS OF FIGHTING

For a Time Sunday the Shots Exchanged at Manila Were Very Hot.

BIG LIST OF CASUALTIES.

One Canadian Boy, Ernest Scott of Bracebridge, is Among Those Wounded.

YANKEES BOMBARDED A CHURCH

And Shot Down the Filipinos as They Were Smoked Out—All the Stores in Manila Were Closed Directly After the First Shots Were Exchanged—Dewey Works a Bluff on the British and German Warships in Manila Harbor—Went Out With His Olympia to Watch Their Movements—List of the Killed and Wounded as Given in General Otis' Bulletin.

Manila, Feb. 6.—Following is a circumstantial account of the fight between the Filipinos and the Americans on Sunday: Owing to the distance between the scene of Sunday's engagement, and the circle of fully 17 miles, details regarding individual fighting have been extremely difficult to obtain.

So far as can be gathered the brush commenced at 8.45 o'clock on Saturday evening, by the firing of a Maxim gun at Santa Mesa upon Filipinos, who were deliberately crossing the line after repeated warnings, with the evident purpose of drawing our fire.

It was quick and hot. The first shots from the American sentry evidently served as a signal for the followed almost immediately a terrific fusillade along the entire Filipino line on the north side of the Pasig River.

The American outposts returned the fire with such vigor that the Filipino fire was checked until the arrival of reinforcements. All the troops in the vicinity were hurried out, and the Filipinos ceased firing for half an hour, while their own reinforcements arrived.

The fighting resumed. At 10 o'clock the fighting was resumed, the American firing line consisting of the 3rd artillery, the Kansas and Montana regiments, the Minnesota regiment, the Pennsylvania, the Nebraska, the Utah battery, the Idaho, the Washington, the California, the fourth cavalry, North and South Dakotas, Colorado, sixth artillery and fourteenth infantry. The Filipinos concentrated their forces at three points, Calocan, Santa Mesa and Galingatan, and maintained an intermittent fusillade for some hours.

They brought artillery into action at Galingatan at 10.30, but only one gun answered the fire of the Americans to any appreciable extent, a Howitzer on the road beyond Santa Mesa. The third artillery silenced the Galingatan battery by firing two guns simultaneously, which was followed by volleys from the infantry.

A Lull at Midnight. At about midnight there was a lull in the firing, lasting until 3.45 a.m., when the whole Filipino line opened fire again. The Americans poured a terrific fire into the darkness until daylight, when the Americans generally advanced.

Admiral Dewey's signals flashed across from Cavite, the United States cruiser Charleston, the gunboat Concord, stationed at Malabon, poured a deadly fire from their secondary batteries into the Filipino trenches.

At daylight the United States double-turret sea-going monitor Monadnock opened fire off Manila, and kept shelling the Filipinos left flank, while the other vessels shelled the enemy's right flank for several hours.

Routed the Enemy. By 10 o'clock the Americans had apparently completely routed the enemy, and had taken the villages of Palawpong, Santa Mesa, Pao, Santa, San Pedro, Macorite, Pandan and Pasig, and had secured possession of the water main and reservoir, a distance of over six miles.

The Tennessees joined the firing line at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning and assisted in capturing Santa Mesa.

A Notable Event. One of the most notable events of Sunday's work was driving the Filipinos out of the rebel stronghold at Pao, by the seizure of a few companies of Californians, commanded by Col. Duboc. The main road to the village was lined by native troops full of Filipino sharpshooters. After they had been firing upon General King and his staff, killing a driver, and firing on an ambulance of the Red Cross Society, Col. Duboc ordered the huts to be cleared and

Continued on Page 4.

To-Day's Program. Legislature, at 2 p.m. Annual meeting of Hosiery-Friselan Association, at a few companies of Californians, commanded by Col. Duboc. The main road to the village was lined by native troops full of Filipino sharpshooters. After they had been firing upon General King and his staff, killing a driver, and firing on an ambulance of the Red Cross Society, Col. Duboc ordered the huts to be cleared and

Continued on Page 4.

To-Day's Program. Legislature, at 2 p.m. Annual meeting of Hosiery-Friselan Association, at a few companies of Californians, commanded by Col. Duboc. The main road to the village was lined by native troops full of Filipino sharpshooters. After they had been firing upon General King and his staff, killing a driver, and firing on an ambulance of the Red Cross Society, Col. Duboc ordered the huts to be cleared and

Continued on Page 4.

To-Day's Program. Legislature, at 2 p.m. Annual meeting of Hosiery-Friselan Association, at a few companies of Californians, commanded by Col. Duboc. The main road to the village was lined by native troops full of Filipino sharpshooters. After they had been firing upon General King and his staff, killing a driver, and firing on an ambulance of the Red Cross Society, Col. Duboc ordered the huts to be cleared and

Continued on Page 4.

To-Day's Program. Legislature, at 2 p.m. Annual meeting of Hosiery-Friselan Association, at a few companies of Californians, commanded by Col. Duboc. The main road to the village was lined by native troops full of Filipino sharpshooters. After they had been firing upon General King and his staff, killing a driver, and firing on an ambulance of the Red Cross Society, Col. Duboc ordered the huts to be cleared and

AMERICANS A LITTLE AT SEA

Can They Legally Drive Out the Filipinos Before Spain Has Ratified the Treaty?

OTIS MAY TAKE A MIDDLE VIEW

And Protect All American and Foreign Interests—Agnoncillo Was to Have Been Arrested.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The important news in Washington to-day was the ratification of the peace treaty and the receipt of lists of casualties from General Otis. Prompted by General Otis' promise of last night to send along the list of casualties at the earliest possible moment, the friends of the soldiers at Manila besieged the War Department to-day by telegraph and word of mouth for information from the scene of battle in the Philippines. The list was long in coming, a fact explained by the cutting of the telegraph wires along the American frontier, which prevented early reports from the division commanders.

Dewey's Message Makes a Stir. In the meantime came a short cablegram from Admiral Dewey, which caused some temporary commotion by creating the impression that hostilities had been renewed by the insurgents. It was the close of the day, however, nothing had come from General Otis to confirm this inference, and such cablegrams as did come from him touched upon other matters entirely, so it was assumed that there was no foundation in fact for the apprehensions.

The Changed Conditions. As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

As to the change in conditions wrought by the ratification of the treaty to-day, these various news, and Adjutant-General Corbin and Second Assistant Secretary Ade of the State Department were giving the matter attention, with the idea of being able to send full instructions for his future guidance to General Otis immediately.

WORLD TALKS TO AGRICULTURE

Political Agent of Filipinos Tells How and Why They are Fighting for Liberty.

HOW NATION'S GAME IS PLAYED

Spain Had No Right to Hand Over the Whole of the Philippines—She Never Owned Them.

Montreal, Feb. 6.—(Special.)—Senator Agoncillo, the political agent of the Filipinos at this meeting by the Delaware and Hudson train from New York, and they are staying at the Windsor Hotel.

Agoncillo is a thin, wiry man, of olive complexion and Mongolian type of features, apparently about 35 years of age.

Thinks Accounts Overdrawn. He speaks Spanish with great fluency, and to the World said: "I cannot help thinking that the accounts of the fighting that has taken place are greatly exaggerated, but I have no official information to give with regard to that, for the simple reason that all my despatches have been interrupted in the United States. This is why we are here, in Canada I am on British soil, and no doubt my despatches from the Philippines will come to hand in a few days."

My future movements will be governed entirely by the nature of the communications I receive from the Filipino Government. I am their only accredited representative to this country.

No Junta in Washington. "There is no Junta in Washington. I have been in communication with certain people there, but no secret, but the word could be said to form a Junta."

From Frying Pan into Fire. "We have fought a long fight against 377 years of Spanish domination, oppression and tyranny. A few months ago we were glad to see the Americans as allies in our fight for deliverance, but we certainly never dreamed that we were only about to free our island from the domination of one foreign power in order to give it to another."

What the Yankees Won. "Perhaps you will better appreciate the position when I say that as the result of Admiral Dewey's victory Manila was surprised. The Americans, as you see, did not complete the military occupation of the islands. Perhaps there is justification for this last view in the fact that the Filipinos have been subject to a number of broken promises, and the terms of the protocol, and thereby release the United States from its obligations."

What Otis May Do. Medium view, and that which is likely to be adopted, is that General Otis is justified in doing anything that is necessary to protect his army and all American and foreign interests in the Philippines. He is obliged to assume the defensive and to go outside of the lines in pursuit of the United States army, but it is not his duty to complete the military occupation of the islands. Perhaps there is justification for this last view in the fact that the Filipinos have been subject to a number of broken promises, and the terms of the protocol, and thereby release the United States from its obligations."

What Otis May Do. Medium view, and that which is likely to be adopted, is that General Otis is justified in doing anything that is necessary to protect his army and all American and foreign interests in the Philippines. He is obliged to assume the defensive and to go outside of the lines in pursuit of the United States army, but it is not his duty to complete the military occupation of the islands. Perhaps there is justification for this last view in the fact that the Filipinos have been subject to a number of broken promises, and the terms of the protocol, and thereby release the United States from its obligations."

What Otis May Do. Medium view, and that which is likely to be adopted, is that General Otis is justified in doing anything that is necessary to protect his army and all American and foreign interests in the Philippines. He is obliged to assume the defensive and to go outside of the lines in pursuit of the United States army, but it is not his duty to complete the military occupation of the islands. Perhaps there is justification for this last view in the fact that the Filipinos have been subject to a number of broken promises, and the terms of the protocol, and thereby release the United States from its obligations."

What Otis May Do. Medium view, and that which is likely to be adopted, is that General Otis is justified in doing anything that is necessary to protect his army and all American and foreign interests in the Philippines. He is obliged to assume the defensive and to go outside of the lines in pursuit of the United States army, but it is not his duty to complete the military occupation of the islands. Perhaps there is justification for this last view in the fact that the Filipinos have been subject to a number of broken promises, and the terms of the protocol, and thereby release the United States from its obligations."

What Otis May Do. Medium view, and that which is likely to be adopted, is that General Otis is justified in doing anything that is necessary to protect his army and all American and foreign interests in the Philippines. He is obliged to assume the defensive and to go outside of the lines in pursuit of the United States army, but it is not his duty to complete the military occupation of the islands. Perhaps there is justification for this last view in the fact that the Filipinos have been subject to a number of broken promises, and the terms of the protocol, and thereby release the United States from its obligations."

What Otis May Do. Medium view, and that which is likely to be adopted, is that General Otis is justified in doing anything that is necessary to protect his army and all American and foreign interests in the Philippines. He is obliged to assume the defensive and to go outside of the lines in pursuit of the United States army, but it is not his duty to complete the military occupation of the islands. Perhaps there is justification for this last view in the fact that the Filipinos have been subject to a number of broken promises, and the terms of the protocol, and thereby release the United States from its obligations."

What Otis May Do. Medium view, and that which is likely to be adopted, is that General Otis is justified in doing anything that is necessary to protect his army and all American and foreign interests in the Philippines. He is obliged to assume the defensive and to go outside of the lines in pursuit of the United States army, but it is not his duty to complete the military occupation of the islands. Perhaps there is justification for this last view in the fact that the Filipinos have been subject to a number of broken promises, and the terms of the protocol, and thereby release the United States from its obligations."

What Otis May Do. Medium view, and that which is likely to be adopted, is that General Otis is justified in doing anything that is necessary to protect his army and all American and foreign interests in the Philippines. He is obliged to assume the defensive and to go outside of the lines in pursuit of the United States army, but it is not his duty to complete the military occupation of the islands. Perhaps there is justification for this last view in the fact that the Filipinos have been subject to a number of broken promises, and the terms of the protocol, and thereby release the United States from its obligations."

What Otis May Do. Medium view, and that which is likely to be adopted, is that General Otis is justified in doing anything that is necessary to protect his army and all American and foreign interests in the Philippines. He is obliged to assume the defensive and to go outside of the lines in pursuit of the United States army, but it is not his duty to complete the military occupation of the islands. Perhaps there is justification for this last view in the fact that the Filipinos have been subject to a number of broken promises, and the terms of the protocol, and thereby release the United States from its obligations."

What Otis May Do. Medium view, and that which is likely to be adopted, is that General Otis is justified in doing anything that is necessary to protect his army and all American and foreign interests in the Philippines. He is obliged to assume the defensive and to go outside of the lines in pursuit of the United States army, but it is not his duty to complete the military occupation of the islands. Perhaps there is justification for this last view in the fact that the Filipinos have been subject to a number of broken promises, and the terms of the protocol, and thereby release the United States from its obligations."

What Otis May Do. Medium view, and that which is likely to be adopted, is that General Otis is justified in doing anything that is necessary to protect his army and all American and foreign interests in the Philippines. He is obliged to assume the defensive and to go outside of the lines in pursuit of the United States army, but it is not his duty to complete the military occupation of the islands. Perhaps there is justification for this last view in the fact that the Filipinos have been subject to a number of broken promises, and the terms of the protocol, and thereby release the United States from its obligations."

What Otis May Do. Medium view, and that which is likely to be adopted, is that General Otis is justified in doing anything that is necessary to protect his army and all American and foreign interests in the Philippines. He is obliged to assume the defensive and to go outside of the lines in pursuit of the United States army, but it is not his duty to complete the military occupation of the islands. Perhaps there is justification for this last view in the fact that the Filipinos have been subject to a number of broken promises, and the terms of the protocol, and thereby release the United States from its obligations."

JACK CANUCK (who has been fast asleep for some time) Our amiable old friend with the chin whisker is putting up a game to have Wilfrid help him tie me up. He wants these tools—but he won't get them 'I'm going to use them myself.

WHERE THE MONEY ROLLS IN A FATAL LAMP EXPLOSION. THE IMPERIAL HOUSE TO-DAY

The Canadian Pacific Railway is a Pretty Mary Hare, a Domestic, Fell, Broke a Lamp and Was Burned to Death. Forecast of What Her Majesty's Speech From the Throne Will Deal With.

HAS THE PROPOSED FAST LINE BURNT BEYOND RECOGNITION. PACIFIC RELATIONS THE THEME.

Anything to Do With Vice-President Shaughnessy's Trip to England—Dobell Goes, Too.

Her Home Was in Markham—Her Mother Comes to Town—No Inquest Yet.

Czar's Peace Scheme and the Law Against Anarchists Important Topics—Plague in India.

London, Feb. 6.—The Queen's speech at the opening of Parliament to-morrow will make the usual references to the Pacific relations existing between Great Britain and foreign countries, and will then deal with the recent operations in the Sudan and with the affairs in Crete, expressing the hope that the Cretan question is in a fair way of solution by the appointment of Prince George of Greece as High Commissioner of Crete and for the promotion of secondary education, etc.

The Plague in India. The speech then expresses great concern at the fact that the plague continues in certain localities in India; pays tribute to the efficiency of the measures taken to exterminate it and to the devotion of the officials.

Cape Colony Complimented. Cape Colony is complimented upon its patriotism as demonstrated in its recent vote for naval defence, and there are very pathetic allusions to the disaster in the West Indies.

Finally, the speech announces that bills will be introduced for the municipal government of London and for the promotion of secondary education, etc.

CHEERS—AJD CURSES Greeted Henri Rochefort on His Arrival at Algiers.

Algiers, Feb. 6.—The arrival here yesterday of Henri Rochefort, editor of the Intransigent, from Marseilles, caused great excitement. Mobs of Dreyfusites and anti-Dreyfusites met him at the Quay, and cheered or cursed him, according to their sympathies. There were several collisions between the rival factions, but they were eventually dispersed by the gendarmes, who arrested several of the ring-leaders, in consequence of the disturbances the Prefect of Police has suspended the Mayor and municipal council.

Fember's Turkish and Vapor Baths, 127 and 179 Yonge. Bath and bed $1.00.

Grippe Made Bearable. Sick rooms may be brightened by some of Druon's spring flowers, which are always a happy medium for the conveying of good wishes. Daffodils, tulips, lily of the valley, hyacinths and violets all at low prices.

Star safety Razors, Nicholson's 73 Yonge.

DEATHS. CILLITON—At his mother's residence, 664 Bloor-street west, on Sunday morning, 5th inst., at 9 a.m., to St. Michael's Cemetery, the late William Cilliton, beloved son of Catherine Wright, in his 34th year.

Funeral from above address on Wednesday, 8th inst., at 9 a.m., to St. Michael's Cemetery.

RADNOR In itself a tonic and table water par excellence—mixes perfectly with the most delicate wines and liquors, adding zest without affecting flavor. Perfect also in combination with milk.

NEW LIBERAL LEADER

Harcourt's Successor is Sir H. Campbell-Bannerman AS THE WORLD PREFERRED.

Selection Made by Liberal Members at the Reform Club Yesterday.

Was Formerly Chief Secretary for Ireland and Late Secretary of State for War—Educated at Glasgow and Cambridge—He Was the Man Looked Forward to in the Emergency—Is Young-Looking, Well-Preserved and a Capable Administrator.

London, Feb. 6.—At a meeting of Liberal members of Parliament at the Reform Club to-day, the Right Hon. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, formerly Chief Secretary for Ireland and late Secretary of State for War, was elected to succeed Sir William Vernon Harcourt as leader of the Liberal party.

Who He Is. The Right Hon. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, member of Parliament in the Liberal interest for the Stirling district of Scotland, since 1868, was born Sept. 7, 1836. He is the youngest son of the late Sir James Campbell, and assumed the additional name of Bannerman under the will of his maternal uncle, the late Henry Bannerman of Hinton Court, Kent. He was educated at Glasgow University and at Trinity College, Cambridge, and was married in 1860 to the daughter of the late General Sir Charles Bruce.

His Official Career. The new Liberal leader became Financial Secretary to the War Office in 1871, held that position until 1874, was promoted in 1880, and held the office until 1882, when he became Secretary for the Admiralty. In 1884 Campbell-Bannerman became Secretary for Ireland, and in 1888 and in 1892-93 he was Secretary of State for War.

A Young-Looking Man. Sir Campbell-Bannerman has always been looked upon as a man who had a future before him. He is likely to rise to an emergency. He is young-looking and well-preserved. The Irishman at one time called him the "Secret Sandhu." As Secretary for War he proved himself a capable administrator, and as far back as 1865 his name was mentioned as likely successor of Sir William Vernon Harcourt.

THE DUKE OF TECK. Mental Condition of the Grandfather of King of Britain's Heirs is the Topic Hopeless.

London, Feb. 6.—The Duke of Teck's condition from the effects of paralysis is causing great pain and anxiety to his family and royal relations. His mental state is now hopeless. Day and night two nurses watch him. He has occasional brief intervals of lucidity, when he readily recognizes and suffers the keenest mental anguish, striving to escape most trying to himself.

PRINCE ALFRED DEAD. Her Majesty's Grandson, the Heir of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, is No More.

Memo, Austria, Feb. 6.—Prince Alfred of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha is dead. He had been suffering from chronic cerebral trouble.

Prince Alfred of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha was the son of the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, the Duke of Edinburgh's second son (Queen Victoria). His mother was the Grand Duchess Marie of Russia. The Duke and Duchess of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha celebrated their silver wedding on Jan. 28 at Gotha. Prince Alfred was born at Buckingham Palace, London, Oct. 15, 1874. He was a captain of Prussian infantry and unmarried. He was the only son and heir.

FIGHTING AT MARSEILLES. The Dreyfus Agitation Leads to the Use of Firearms.

Marseilles, Feb. 6.—At a meeting here of the anti-Dreyfus League of Paris in the Alhambra Hall, a hostile demonstration upon the part of some Dreyfusites led to serious fighting. The police suppressed the disturbance, but several people were injured. Many arrests were made.

Lucky strike 75—quality and quantity. The best use please Kennedy's chewing tobacco in Canada. Ask for it.

Coroner Duncan held an inquest yesterday at the jail on the body of Joseph Richardson, a prisoner who died on Sunday. The jury returned a verdict of death from natural causes.

Fair and Cold. Meteorological Office, Toronto, Feb. 6.—(8 p.m.)—There has been no material change in the distribution of pressure since last night, except that that persistent north-west anti-cyclone has, if anything, become more energetic again. Definitely cold weather continues in all portions of Canada.

Minimum and maximum temperature: Victoria, 16-22; Kamloops, 20-26; Prince Alfred, 30 below-18 below; Qu'Appelle, 22 below-20 below; Winnipeg, 40 below-16 below; Port Arthur, 24 below-10 below; Toronto, 2-20; Ottawa, 8 below-10; Montreal, 4-12; Quebec, 6 below-10; Halifax, 10 below-24.

Probabilities. Lower Lakes, Georgian Bay, Ottawa Valley, Upper and Lower St. Lawrence, Gulf and Maritime—Fair and continued cold. Lake Superior—Fair and very cold to days and on Wednesday. Manitoba—Fair; continued very cold.

The requirements of every careful and economical dresser can be met with perfect satisfaction in the suit and overcoat selections shown at Oak Hall clothing, 135 K. West-street east.

Steamship Movements. From La Champagne, New York, Feb. 8. From Phoenix, New York, Feb. 8. From Victoria, New York, Feb. 8. From La Normandie, New York, Feb. 8.

ROGERS Invited to Chase of Stocks and Furs of Premises. S, 84 YONGE ST.

FINANCIAL BROKERS. OSLER & HAMMOND STOCK BROKERS and Financial Agents.

JOHN STARK & CO., STOCK BROKERS, 26 Toronto Street.

LORNE CAMPBELL (Member Toronto Stock Exchange), STOCK BROKER.

A. E. AMES & CO. INVESTMENT AGENTS.

STOCKS AND BOND Bought and sold on all principal Stock Exchanges on commission.

FISHER & COMPANY BROKERS, Stocks, Bonds, Grain and Provisions.

A. GORMALY & CO. STOCKS, RAIN AND PROVISIONS.

A. E. WEBB Member of Toronto Stock Exchange, 22 Front-street, buys and sells stocks on all exchanges.

HENRY A. KING & CO. Brokers, Stocks, Grain, Provisions.

STOCKS ARE BOOMING This is a grand opportunity to make money. New York and Chicago markets very active. Special attention to town orders.

P. CONWAY & CO., Brokers, 20 Victoria St., Toronto.

New York Stocks and Stocks and Bonds Listed on Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges.

25,000 STERLING TO LEND first mortgage at the lowest current rate. No commission charged.

C. C. BAINES, Member Toronto Stock Exchange, buys and sells stocks on London, New York, Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges.

MONEY TO LOAN ON STOCKS and debentures on convenient terms.

Builders' Hardware CORBIN'S DOOR CHECKS and SPRINGS.

CE LEWIS & SON (LIMITED) 100 King and Victoria-streets, Toronto.