TORONTO'S HORSE SHOW

Formally Opened by His Excellency the Governor-General in the Presence of the Elite of Queen City Society.

Everybody is Delighted, as There is the Biggest and Best List of Entries on Record—The Prize-Winners in the Ring Yesterday—To-Day's Program.

There is no event of the year in Ontario generally and Toronto in particular, except perhaps the Ontario Jockey Club races, that excites such interest and delight as the Canadian Horse Show.

Crowds in spite of Rain. "Time cannot change our custom stable" the infinite attraction of the horse, and though the rain descended in floods just about the time of the formal opening, the unceasing and shabby behavior of the weather, did not prevent a vast number of people from appearing as usual at the Armoures.

Decorations were simple but very effective, as flags always are, and the graceful festoons of yellow and blue, divided off at intervals with pennons, gave character to the scene.
