THE KING'S ENGLISH.
Viewing the Duke of York's visit to Canada from a purely utilitarian standpoint, we are inclined to believe Canada has received very little value for every dollar spent in entertaining the royal visitor.

Some other maladies which show an increased mortality are cancer, apoplexy and derangements of the heart and kidneys. No satisfactory reason has been given for the increase in the deaths from cancer, but in regard to kidney and heart troubles it is interesting to note that the high proportion under which people live in cities has a great deal to do with their prevalence.

WINE GROWING IN CANADA.
In connection with the articles The World has been printing regarding wine growing in Canada and the other countries, it is interesting to note that the Ontario Department of Agriculture received a gold medal for the general Canadian wine exhibit at the Pan-American and San Francisco Exposition.

Lighted a Cigarette in a London Hotel.
London, Oct. 13.—The same London hotel which recently had a dispute with some American residents on the question of the prohibition of smoking in the hotel, has been shown less leniency to an English woman than to the negro delegates. This woman, who belongs to the peerage, entered the hotel on Sunday afternoon and proceeded to smoke a cigarette. She was immediately arrested by the manager and taken to the police station.

GRAND OPERA SINGERS.
The Royal Musical Festival at Massey Hall developed a few points worthy of comment. Mr. Stewart Houston, the manager of Massey Hall, with commendable enterprise, brought from New York at least a dozen of the best vocalists of the world. The concert was a success, and the orchestra, the scenery and the chorus, also with the prima donna, Mmes. Calve and Sembrich are the acknowledged leaders in vocal art on this side of the water, and their work was up to expectations.

CANADA AND THE CUP.
The lifting of the America's Cup would be an event of some world-wide distinction that Canada can well afford to risk the attempt. The Mother Country having failed year after year to lift the cup, it is now left for Canada to do the job. Canada has a record as a cup winner in minor events, which augurs well for any attempt she may make to carry off the great trophy held for so many years by the New York Yacht Club. We hope it is true as reported that James Ross and his business partner, Mr. J. Ross, are now in the Mother Country to see the cup and to see if they can win it.

ROYAL CHORUS AT METROPOLITAN.
Church was jammed and many could not find admittance.
Several hundred members of the Royal Reception Chorus responded to the invitation to attend the special service in the Metropolitan Church last night. They were seated all together in the gallery, and during the service sang the national anthem, "The Maple Leaf" and several other patriotic songs, that were given in front of the City Hall when the Duke arrived.

THE DEATH RATE AND IMPROVED SANITATION.
That science and improved sanitation has done a great deal during the past decade towards lessening the death rate is proved by the statistics of a bulletin just issued by the Census Bureau in Canada, in which a comparison is made between the mortality for the years 1890 and 1900. The average age at which the inhabitants of the cities of the United States now die is placed at 35.2 years, as against 31.1 years in 1890. This is equivalent to a gain of 4.1 years in the average life expectancy.

An Important Piano Announcement

THE season's sales at "The Bell" Piano Warerooms has been unprecedentedly large.

SO great has been the demand for "Bell" Pianos that it has been found necessary to call in all the "Bell" instruments and place them on our sale floors. But, first, these instruments were each and all turned over to our skilled repairers and tuners with "wide-open" instructions.

THESE Pianos, renovated and renewed, sound and salable, we have decided to offer at prices that mean a quick move of them all, and, remember, each goes out with the great Bell Co.'s guarantee.

WHAT a rare chance this affords the prospective pianobuyer—we leave him to reflect for himself.

UNDER the roof of The "Bell" Warerooms to-day is shown a stock of Bell and other pianos that will make the visitor open his eyes very wide in wonderment. When we say it's the greatest showing in the history of piano-selling in this city, we are but plainly stating a plain fact.

NEEDLESS to add the "New Art Bell" Piano, with all its exclusive and unequalled features—improving touch, tone, durability and design—is prominently in evidence. All styles of the "New Art Bell," 1902 series, are here for the visitor's careful inspection and test.

COMPARE our pianos with our statements!

THE GOUT STORY DISCREDITED

Rheumatic Patient Would Not Have Gone Shooting, Says a London Correspondent.

New York, Oct. 13.—Alarming reports respecting King Edward's physical condition continue to circulate in court circles, where there are means of obtaining accurate knowledge, says the London correspondent of The World.

These reports have some substantial foundation is evidenced by the prohibitive rates now demanded by insurance companies on the King's life and the heavy advance in premiums against loss in connection with outlays for the coronation.

The Norwich Union Insurance Company, of which Lord Bessborough is the chairman, has been asked to advance the rates. The other companies quickly followed suit, and it is known how close the Rothschild family stands to royalty and how exhaustive are its sources of information.

The World's London Bureau has had inquiries made at Ballarat, the nearest village to Balmoral, where the King is staying, and learns
