KINGSTON ELECTS PENNE.
Kingston, May 29—Kingston remains in the Liberal column, having returned Mr. Penne by a majority of 157. The contest was about the warmest the city has known. Two able men were arrayed against each other, the best the city could produce. The parties to-day, and the result was again a victory for Liberalism. The vote was the heaviest ever polled. The total vote this year was 3071, in 1901 it was 3050. The figures by wards were:

WILL HE STAND THE SHOCK.

TO DISQUALIFY TWO.
A point that should not be overlooked in the election results is that the Conservatives intend to proceed against Andrew Pattullo, North Oxford, and Hon. J. R. Stratton, West Peterborough, on the charge that they had contracts for printing ballots and thus were not qualified to run. If this contention can be upheld, these two seats will go to P. R. Ross and Capt. Miller respectively and bring down the government's paper majority to a point that will make it unworkable.

ST. JOHN'S GREAT VICTORY

Conservative Minority of 35 Was Converted into a Majority of 412.
HE GAINED IN ALL BUT ONE DIVISION
Great Reception to the Successful Candidate at the Junction—The Result in Detail.
Toronto Junction, May 29—The verdict of the electors of West York was one condemnatory of broken promises and corruption at elections. The change was not in any one section; but throughout the riding were gained every where for Mr. St. John, except at Thornhill, where Mr. Hill's majority of four years ago was increased. Toronto Junction Conservatives pulled themselves together, after their defeat in the bye-election for the Dominion house, and polled their full strength. The result was a majority of 230 for Mr. St. John, where, four years ago, he had 91. In Vaughan, where Mr. Hill had 194 majority four years ago, he had only 180 to his credit to-day, and in York Township, where Mr. Hill had a majority of 2, to-day Mr. St. John received 180. Throughout the election was conducted with great order, and also there appeared no exertion on either side. The returns were awaited with great interest by the citizens, and as the returns from each polling subdivision in the riding were posted up, shout after shout of exultation went up from the large throngs gathered in front of Mr. St. John's committee rooms. The local Reformers were very much afraid that with West York the province was lost to them, but the returns were more favorable, they commenced to wear a more jubilant appearance. Mr. St. John thanked the Reformers and Conservatives who had united in favor of honest administration, and a bandstand on Dundas-street, George Syme, had charge of the meeting, and returned and to hear what the successful candidates had to say.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY.

Both leaders had big majorities. All the Ministers were re-elected. Mr. St. John's win in West York was a great one. Dr. Whilohy (Con.) comes back again to the ring. New Ontario went Liberal. John R. Barber had a narrow escape in Halton. Of the cities: Toronto went Conservative (4 members); Hamilton, West Conservative (2 members); Ottawa went Conservative (2 members); London went Conservative; Kingston went Liberal; and Toronto went Liberal. Pettit, the temperance man in South West, received only 87 votes. Centre Grey stands unique in electing Lucas by acclamation. West Hamilton nearly tied this record by giving Colquhoun 99 votes. Gallagher got there again in Frontenac. Hon. G. W. Ross' speech in Ottawa on Wednesday was not sufficient to save the Conservatives. The Conservatives were defeated in the election. Mr. St. John's victory was a great one. Dr. Whilohy (Con.) comes back again to the ring. New Ontario went Liberal. John R. Barber had a narrow escape in Halton. Of the cities: Toronto went Conservative (4 members); Hamilton, West Conservative (2 members); Ottawa went Conservative (2 members); London went Conservative; Kingston went Liberal; and Toronto went Liberal.

KILLED BY A TOY GUNN

Charles Gibson, Fifteen Years Old, Was Testing the Weapon When It Exploded.
CHARGE PENETRATED HIS BRAIN
The Boy Died in Half an Hour—Warrant for an Inquest Issued.
Fifteen-year-old Charles Gibson, son of Robert Gibson, accidentally shot himself yesterday afternoon at his home, 13 Casimir-street, and died in less than half an hour. Young Gibson was upstairs in his room about 5 o'clock engaged in testing a miniature cannon made out of a piece of three quarter inch pipe, when it exploded unexpectedly, the contents entering his forehead and penetrating the brain. The report of the explosion was heard by the boy's mother who rushed to the room and found him lying on the floor by the bed in a comatose state. Mrs. Gibson sent for Dr. Peaker of Bathurst-street, but the lad was beyond medical skill. Dr. McIlhugh, who was in attendance upon another member of the family, happened to make a call just after Dr. Peaker arrived, but their combined efforts failed to save the lad's life. When death ensued word was sent to Policemen Mulrhead and Coroner W. A. Young of College-street.

MULE CAMP FOR TORONTO.

At Once the Lathrop, Mo. Depot Will Come to This City.
Lathrop, Mo., May 29—The British mule camp, which has been maintained since May 1901, during which 80,000 horses and mules for use in South Africa have been housed, is to be removed to Toronto, immediately. Nearly all the British officers stationed here have already left, and 2000 horses still here will be shipped to Toronto within a few days.

Spits! Spits! What Spits? Radnor Spits.

There were hundreds of ladies who bravely "stood it out" in the crowds, anxious alike to see the bulletined returns and to hear what the successful candidates had to say.

Mitchell Goes to Chicago.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 29—President Mitchell of the National Mine Workers' left here for Chicago at midnight. There is still no change in the strike situation, as President Mitchell announced. The call for the proposed convention, which it is understood will be held in Chicago, has not yet reached the headquarters.

Spits! Spits! What Spits? Radnor Spits.

There will be no recounts in any of the Toronto wards. McBride, the strenuous, made a good climb, but the "mountain of Toryism" was too much for him. Socialism can hardly be reckoned as a factor in deciding elections in Ontario. Did anyone want to know how the prohibition vote went? The Liberals in Bowmanville attribute W. S. Reid's defeat to the return of what was to have been a 20-round fight.

ALL THE TORONTO SEATS TO THE CONSERVATIVE FOLD

[Cheers.] He is a man bold enough to be honest and honest enough to be bold. [Cheers.] We have no room in our party for trimmers and hypocrites, and I am sure that the rejoicing here on at the way things are going is being repeated from one end of the province to the other. [Cheers.] Dr. Nesbitt also spoke at his central committee room and from The Mall office. In the former place, he heartily thanked the workers, and from The Mall office window he spoke to a crowd that completely choked the street. It was an immense ovation he received, and the few words he had to say, thanking the electors, were vigorously cheered. They, like Toronto, wanted the whole province was in sympathy with Toronto, and desired a change. [Cheers.] They, like Toronto, wanted an administration of the province's affairs that would be clean and honest, such as an administration Mr. Whitney would give them. [Cheers.]

MR. CRAWFORD SURPRISED.

Mr. Crawford, who secured the largest majority of any of the Toronto candidates, was somewhat surprised at the big vote he polled. He had found out that many names were left off the lists, names of people who had recently registered, and some who had been on for years. The vigilant committees and the scrutineers were at the lookout, however, and prevented the machine from getting in much of its work. Mr. Crawford is satisfied that despite all the precautions taken there was a little crooked work done. Early in the evening Mr. Crawford addressed about 800 of his workers and friends in his central committee room, on West Queen-street. He thanked them for their big efforts put forth in his behalf, and declared that the people of West of Toronto had demonstrated their dislike for machine methods. The successful candidate then drove to The Central Committee Rooms on the King-street, where he addressed a large number. His appearance on the platform was the signal for loud cheering. "Toronto has done its work nobly and well," he said. He thought the result looked like a Conservative victory all over the province. Afterward Mr. Crawford spoke from the window of The News and Mail office. He thanked the electors from the assembled crowds.

DR. FAYNE HEARS THE RESULT

Dr. R. A. Fayne heard the returns at his central committee rooms on East Queen-street, and when there was no doubt of his election, made a brief address. He was led to the platform by President Ald. Foster and Secretary W. J. Wilson of the Ward 2 Conservative Association, and given a flattering reception. Dr. Fayne, after returning thanks for his election, observed that he took no credit to himself. While four candidates in the field, he explained that it was dangerous for any of them. If the workers had not stood by him he would not be present to join in the jubilation. He appreciated their work and hoped that the electors would never have cause to regret casting their ballots for him. Dr. Fayne then drove down town to join in the general celebration of the big victory in Toronto.

Socialists Well Satisfied.

The Socialists received the election returns at the office of Citizen and Country, where a large number assembled and listened to addresses by the home candidates and others. The League candidate had been put in the field mainly to show that the Socialists had no intention of not representing the Socialist movement in Canada; and a record of nearly 1000 votes in Toronto, and as many more in other constituencies, was declared to be a splendid start for the new movement, whose candidates had been in the field only a few weeks. While Socialists care nothing which political party is in power, the candidates in at least half a dozen constituencies, determined the fate of defeated candidates and aided the winners to secure seats.

When a Man Goes Shopping.

To-morrow is the big day for men to shop upon—Saturday. Nearly every merchant makes an effort to have something new. The Dineen Co. makes an attempt to have many good novelties in the line of clothing. The Liberal party is in power, the candidates in at least half a dozen constituencies, determined the fate of defeated candidates and aided the winners to secure seats.
