

Donations of clothing and material were also given to the city work of the Presbyterian Woman's Missionary Society through Miss McSween and Mad. Coté, to the Hervey Institute, the Day Nursery, the Protestant Infant's Home, and the Labrador Mission.

We would acknowledge with grateful thanks the following:—1 piece of gray flannel from Mr. W. J. Morrice, 1 piece gray flannel from Mrs. Walter Cottingham, and a piece of flannelette from Mrs. W. Fullerton. Large parcels of new clothing from Mr. D. Morrice, Miss M. Stewart, Mrs. Munderloh, Mrs. James Alves, and Mrs. Redpath; also a parcel of boots and rubbers from Mr. W. F. Smardon. These donations have all proved very useful in carrying on this work. Some of them being the personal work of the donors, have been much appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

S. J. MACMASTER, Sec'y.-Treas.

We meet to-day to review the work of another year. The attendance at the meetings, which have been held regularly on the first Friday of the month, has been much the same as last year.

The interest, in the work carried on in the different Mission fields, has been well sustained by letters and papers read during the year.

In April we were favored by an address from the Rev. A. MacVicar, previous to his departure for Nelson, B. C., giving us a description of the place and of the work done
