Labor's Position. The following is the official states ment issued by the Trades and Labor Council to the newspapers:

"It is the sense and belief of this Trades and Labor Council, representvisiting with friends in the village and ing the wage-earners, which comprise 80 per cent of the population of this Mr. J. E. Grant, wife and two sons, of city, that a condition of affairs exists Carlisle, Iowa, are visiting Mrs. Morrison in this country which calls for prompt action on the part of the Government

"The manufacturer is protected to the extent of a 35 per cent duty, while the worker is forced to compete with funeral of Mrs. Thomas McGee took not only unrestricted immigration, but assisted emigration and cheap Oriental labor. We have been represented in Parliament by men who are not in sympathy with, nor do they know the needs of the working classes, judging from past experience.

> "We cannot expect any amelioration of our present conditions from either of the present political parties. We believe the time is opportune when the liamentary honors. The professional and business men are not those best qualified to know the needs of tha working classes, and we believe that present conditions demand that we should nominate and use all our power and resources to secure the election of a man selected from the ranks of organized labor as our representative in
