

Day's Doings in YORK COUNTY

YONGE ST. FARM SELLS FOR $500 AN ACRE

Bedford Park Property Comes High—City Connection Does Little For West End.

NORTH TORONTO, Aug. 5.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Drewry left yesterday for a two months' visit to the British Isles.

Councillor Murphy has greatly improved the appearance of his property at the corner of Glenwood-avenue and Yonge-street by leveling and grading. It will be one of the fine residential streets of the town.

A trip along Glen Grove and Glenview-avenues and all the north-western section of the town of North Toronto indicates to some extent the great onward march of building sites along Glen Grove-avenue are sold, and plans for a number of elegant residences are now being prepared.

The North Toronto Golf Club are just completing a club house, which, when painted and fully completed, will present a very attractive appearance.

The council are making every effort to provide the new club house with town water.

Little change was noted in the condition today of Councillor Parke. If anything, he is slightly improved.

As the time draws near for the holding of the annual annual field day, the afternoon will see a big crowd at the waterworks park if the weather is good.

A telephone message received today from R. G. Kirby, states that his son, who is at the Y.M.C.A. camp, is much improved.

The quarterly official board meeting of the Eglington Methodist Church was held to-night. The reports were encouraging.

to his death in Markham Township by "That late Thomas Dalsiel came being accidentally struck by a Metropolitan car on Saturday, July 31. We, the jury, hereby censure the motor-man for not blowing the whistle and the railway company for not equipping the cars with proper fenders."

This was the verdict arrived at by the coroners' jury in town hall last night, after being out less than 10 minutes. Dalsiel was struck by a Metropolitan car while crossing the track south of Aurora on Saturday.

BEDFORD PARK.
McCormick Property on Yonge St. Brings Big Figure.

BEDFORD PARK, Aug. 5.—(Special.)—The sale of the McCormick property containing about 75 acres and lying immediately south of the Bedford Park postoffice on Yonge-street is reported. While the price paid is not definitely stated, it is known that Mr. McCormick had previously refused an offer of $35,000 for the property. The farm is sold to a city man and it is understood will be subdivided into building lots and placed on the market in the near future.

FARMERS' DAIRY.

The Farmers' Dairy, recently organized, and for which a charter was applied for and granted, have now secured a splendid site at 367 West Queen-street, and as soon as the necessary plant and machinery is installed, which will be probably early in September, active operations will begin.

The capital stock of the company is $50,000, and of this enough has been taken up by the farming community to ensure abundant resources.

Great interest locally in the city centres around the establishment of the Farmers' Dairy, and with a splendid executive, good management, moderate prices and the milk supply coming from the best farms in the county, the success of the Farmers' Dairy is assured.

A meeting of the directors will be held in their new offices, 367 West Queen-street, on Saturday.

STEELE'S CORNERS.

Jay H. Fulton of York Mills has bought from John Steele the house erected by him to the north of the hotel some years ago, but never occupied.

The house is a well-built three-story brick, contains 14 rooms and is being placed in first-class shape. Mr. Fulton will, it is said, remove here as soon as the improvements are completed.

ERINDALE.

ERINDALE, Aug. 5.—A garden party under the auspices of St. Peter's Anglican Church will be given on Saturday evening, Aug. 7, on the grounds of Alfred Adamson. Among the artists who will be present and assist on that occasion will be Bert Harvey and Edie Elliott. Port Credit Brass Band will be present and a number of local artists will also assist.

EAST TORONTO.

EAST TORONTO, Aug. 5.—Joseph Richardson of Markdale, who was visiting Mr. James Tibberty of Stephenson-avenue, East Toronto, has left for California.

The Toronto fire department have installed a new fire alarm box at the corner of Danforth-avenue and Dawes-road. This will be convenient to residents of East Toronto.

A meeting was held to-night at the Y.M.C.A. building, corner Gerrard and Main-streets, East Toronto, when the Women's Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. appointed representatives to attend to the different refreshment booths that they will have on the big field day on Aug. 25. A large number were in attendance.

Miss Reta Hewitt is spending a few days with her friend, Miss Isabella Abbott of Danforth-road, East Toronto.

Mrs. Helen Donaldson and son are visiting friends in Toronto this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Britton of Danforth-avenue have returned home from their summer vacation at Masses Camp, Muskoka.

All the goods and chattels of the Morgan House were disposed of at auction Tuesday afternoon. The Morgan House was one of the hotels the license of which was cancelled on May 1st.

Thomas Empringham, a farmer in the upper end of Scarborough, while raking in his field, slipped from his seat sustaining severe injuries from the wheels, which passed over his body. He is in a precarious condition.

BRACONDALE.

BRACONDALE, Aug. 5.—(Special.)—This morning at Zion Methodist Church, St. Clair-avenue, Horace Jordan was united in marriage to Miss Alice Larkin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Pollett. The young couple left for a three weeks' honeymoon trip down the St. Lawrence.

WEST TORONTO.

City Connection Falls to Appreciably Help Local Water Supply.

WEST TORONTO, Aug. 5.—Frank Sinclair, a brakeman, narrowly escaped serious injury today. When stepping from one car to another the engine moved ahead and the coupling giving way, he was thrown to the ground. Sinclair was taken home in a cab. It will be several days before he will be on duty again.

Several lacrosse sticks and sweaters were stolen last night from the Shamrock's dressing rooms.

From all appearances connection with the city water system is going to develop into a "white elephant," so far as pressure is concerned. The 12-inch main along Dundas-street was connected with the West Toronto mains at Keble-street at 3.30 this afternoon, thus allowing the full strength of the city pressure to augment that of the local pumping station at Swansea. At 7 o'clock to-night, in spite of all the improvements, the gauge in the police station recorded the magnificent pressure of 18 pounds. Enquiry at the pumping station brought the information that the high pressure gauge was 30 pounds, and the pressure for ward seven 40 pounds. The engineer said so much water was being used in West Toronto for lawn sprinkling that in the evenings it was impossible to keep up a normal pressure. Six-inch water mains were completed on Fairview-avenue, Drury-street and Humboldt-avenue. Fire hydrants are being put on all streets supplied with a six-inch main.

Dorothy, the infant daughter of P. C. Gooderham of the ward seven police force, died this morning at 860 Ossington-avenue. The funeral will take place at 2 p.m. to-morrow to Prospect Cemetery.

The customs receipts for the port of West Toronto for July amounted to $15,548.91, an increase of $7540.35 over July of last year.

AUTHENTIC ACCOUNT

the pavements. Troops endeavoring to enter the Gracia quarter met with fire from civilians behind successive barricades in the Calle Salmeron, the defenders of which were only dislodged by artillery at the upper end of the Paseo de la Victoria.

Stormed Convents and Churches.

In the afternoon and evening mobs storme the convents, schools and ever churches in all parts of the city. The captain-general's escort, when inspecting the Paralelo quarter, was fired upon from barricades in the Calle Bloy and upper balconies in the Calle de San Pablo. Infantry and cavalry scattered the revolutionists, who were without rifles. A night of terror followed. Fires were blazing everywhere.

On Wednesday the entrance of new troops, who obeyed the drastic orders of the captain-general to fire on all groups, coupled with the voluntary yielding of the Republican element, which feared anarchistic dominance and was repelled by the wholesale incendiaryism, caused a collapse of all serious resistance, but not until after hard fighting, artillery fire and cavalry charges.

On Thursday and Friday there was a desultory resistance from house-tops in the suburbs. Prisoners were made. Organization was lacking among the revolutionaries. Incendiaryism continued in some parts.

On Saturday the wise decision of manufacturers and employers to pay their employees for the last week reduced the temporary security. Shops began to open.

On Sunday carriages and tram-cars were run without obstruction to outlying parts, and the work of repairing the railroads was begun on Monday. Since then conditions have been normal, but 8000 troops occupy the city.

Nuns' Bodies Mutilated.

I saw the mortuary convent of Arrepentidas, where embalmed bodies of nuns were torn from their niches, paraded in the streets and mutilated in an unspeakable manner. I heard incredible stories about the Jesuits, who defended their monastery but were overpowered. No sympathy is expressed for the religious bodies. The only thing regretted seems to be the sacking of the churches.

Conservatives are divided in opinion as to the outlook. A revolution is possible, for the events of the last week have proved that the people were moved by conviction, as there was no private looting, altho there was no lack of opportunities; and there were no critical acts. Even the anarchists seem to have had principle in sight.

The Catalans are earnest, determined and unsubdued and are divided only as to means, not as to their end.

There are three possible sources of a renewal of the outbreak: The calling up of conscripts, which was due on Friday but has been postponed; a new disaster in Morocco, or the punishment of the prisoners, more than 500 of whom are in the fortress at Montjuich.

The military favor wholesale shooting, but all well-informed inhabitants of Barcelona agree that such action would precipitate another revolution.

Blindly Team Near Home.

MONTREAL, Aug. 5.—(Special.)—A wireless message received here to-night from Captain Fairfull of the row, gives the following members of the Blesley team as being on board: Mercer, Jones, Gougeon, Russell, Morris, Stock, Bayles, Mortimer, Blackburn and Bloomfield. Captain Fairfull also adds: "All well, delightful passage."
