PAID THEIR OWN EXPENSE FOR A TOUR OF MISSIONS

Messrs. Ryrie and Firstbrook, Baptist Commissioners, Tell of Their Experiences.

An interesting meeting was held at the Jarvis-street Baptist Church, to and James Ryrie, who have been abroad for several months past investigating foreign missions.

The proceedings opened with the singing of two hymns, a Scripture reading by the pastor, Rev. T. T. Shields, and prayer by the Rev. S. S. Bates, chairman of the Baptist Foreign Missioners.

eign Missionary Society.

The chairman, Rev. J. G. Brown,
D.D., said it was the first time in Canada that business men had to report to a Christian gathering on work of such a nature. At the conference of the laymen's missionary society in 1906, the first thing determined had been the sending of a commission of Chrisime, over 100 Americans had gone and eturned, but Messrs. Ryrie and Firsttheir own expense.

The itinerary was about as follows, said Mr. Firstbrook. They left New York on Jan. 8, proceeded to the Azores, Madeira, Gibraltar, Naples, Port Sald and Colombo; thence to India and up the coast to Madras. They were four days late in arriving at the first meet-ing place, and found that the Christian inhabitants had been awaiting them during that time, some of them hav-ing journeyed as much as 56 miles. Samuel Pott's sepulchre was visited, where they found the schoolboys out in force with torches. One would have thought it was the King himself who had come to visit them. It was 11 o'clock at night when they arrived, and such a wild horde was at the station to greet them that all the heathen natives put their heads out of the windows, wondering what was up. The windows, wondering what was up. The boys addressed them, some in blank verse; some in rhyme.

Next they went to where Mr., Mrs. and Miss Macleod were stationed on the borders of the jungle. There was a meeting of 300 there. At. Dr. Smith's flourishing new hospital, which already has four wards, corner-stones for two new words were laid by Mrs. Ryrie and new wards were laid by Mrs. Ryrie and Mrs. Churchill. They had found hundreds of ers in the country, who declared that foreign missions were not successful. One man, who launched a tirade against the missionaries' extravagant modes of life, had been silenced by Mr. Firstbrook informing him that the ARMSTRONG—On Tuesday, July 5, at Locust Hill, Jane McCreight, wife of William Armstrong.

The most noticeable defect, said the board, was inability to apply the knowledge, due to failure to observe the treatment and progress of the in-dividual patient. There is no fixed set of text books, and many of those in use are not standard works, so that the student has recourse to his notes more than he should. The board advised both revision and cutting down of the list of texts.
