

terms of an address presented to him on the morning of his departure, breathing as it did, sentiments of gratitude and attachment. The Committee will ever thankfully hear of his renewed health, and sincerely trust that he will be eminently blessed and prospered in the new field of duty to which he has in Providence been called. Georgetown, the Committee are glad to say, is occupied by the Rev. Theo. Richey, who assumed the duties of the Mission in October last.

The Mission of New London remains unoccupied. A gentleman made some enquiries in reference to it, and a correspondence ensued between the Corresponding Committee and him, but he finally decided on remaining for the present in the sphere he occupies.

The sales of the last year at the Bible and Prayer Book Depository, bear no comparison with that of the eighteen preceding months, being—Bibles, 11; Prayer Books, 96; Church Services, 7; Collects, 27; Hymns, 18; making a total of 159, against 792, the number previously disposed of. This, however, may be accounted for on the supposition that the different missions are supplied sufficiently for the present. The stock remaining on hand, and any additional Books that may be imported will consequently meet with a comparatively limited sale. We now turn to the Reports of the Parishes

CHARLOTTETOWN.

The Ministers of the Parish report, that during the past year there have been 43 baptisms, 21 marriages, 32 burials, the usual number of Divine services (with the exception of Friday evening prayer meetings, discontinued for six months owing to the unfinished state of the School Room), and pastoral and other visits 1200 to 1400.

The general Library has had an addition of 53 volumes, making the number on the shelves amount to 1524. The Sun-
