

follow the example thus set in Toronto. Everything connected with the Home reflects the highest credit on those under whose auspices it has reached its present flourishing condition. I was particularly pleased at seeing young ladies employed in instructing the dear little Orphans. The matron seems very efficient."

EDWARD LINDSEY ELWOOD.

Doctor O'Donohue, Poor Law Commissioner for the inspection of Hospitals and Alms Houses in Ireland, who visited Canada last autumn, writes thus :—

"I have visited the most of the charitable institutions in Europe and America, and had often occasion to express my admiration of the order, cleanliness and attention observed in establishments, but I never saw any that surpassed the Toronto Orphans' Home, and few that could compete with it in all the requisites for the health and moral training of its inmates. The managing committee may be gratified by the approval of visitors, but they can only find the meet reward of their benevolent acts in the consciousness of their own exertions in the cause of the human race, especially of helpless infancy."

MAURICE O'DONOHUE, M. D.

The Rev. Robert Arnold, Rector, Sydney Mines, Cape Breton, records his unqualified approbation of the institution, and pays a well-merited tribute to the memory of the first Treasurer.

The Rev. Dean Patton, Rector of Cornwall, writes thus :—

March 16, 1857.

"I have had much pleasure in visiting every department of the Orphans' Home, and do cordially bear testimony to the admirable manner in which it appears to be conducted.

"It is truly a benevolent institution, and well worthy the liberal patronage of all the members of Christ's Church, and
