Artillery School to Open

The heavy artillery school to be opened at Quebec will give its first class on November 15. The only application from the province of New Brunswick thus far for permission to take a course at this school is that of Lieut. George Lutes, of Moncton, of the 19th C.F.A.

St. John Man in 173rd

A St. John man with the 173rd Highland Battalion at Sussex is Sergt. John S. Burpee, brother of F. F. Burpee, of this city, who enlisted as a private with the unit in Hamilton (Ont.), and is steadily working his way up the military ladder. He is an N.C.O. well spoken of by his commanding officer and has many friends in St. John who will be pleased to know that he is in his native province again. His brother, F. F. Burpee, left Saturday night for Sussex and spent the week-end with him. Several officers of the 173rd were in St. John over the week-end.

(Moncton Transcript.)

Rev. C. W. Corey, who in the year 1810 was temporarily engaged as pastor of the First Baptist Church, Moncton, and who enlisted in British Columbia as a private, also his son, Ralph, were in Moncton today. Rev. Mr. Corey is a native of Havdock, N. B. There are fifteen preachers, doctors and lawyers in the same battalion, and there has never been a desertion from this unit.

Among the visitors in Moncton at an early hour this morning was Capt. Geo. Kierstead, brother of I. W. Kierstead, of Moncton. He enlisted in Regina and has made fine progress in his military career, being now a captain and adjutant of his battalion. Capt. Kierstead is well known in Moncton, having preached here often in the First Baptist church.

RICHARD CROKER AND WIFE TO RETURN THIS MONTH

New York, Nov. 6.—Within the month Mr. and Mrs. Richard Croker will leave their home in Ireland to come to the United States. Their stay here may be a protracted one. This information was obtained at the Democratic Club, where Mr. Croker's prospective movements are known to several of his close personal friends. With the exception of the Derby winner, Orby, and a few others of his favorite horses, it is said, the one time Tammany Hall chief has disposed of his splendid racing stable. According to information obtained by his friends here, Mr. Croker is in excellent health, as also is Mrs. Croker. The reason for their determination to change their residence at this time is attributed to his desire to be away for a time from the neighborhood of the world war.

ORANGEMEN AT SERVICE

Carleton Methodist Church Anniversary Celebrated—Capt. Morrow of 180th Addresses Men in Opera House

The memorial service for the late Lieut. Gordon Keer in St. Stephen's church last evening was impressive and solemn. The St. Stephen's and St. Andrew's cadets were present and there was also a detachment from the artillery stationed at Partridge Island under Lieut. Bridges, being the arm of the service in which the late officer was engaged. Rev. Gordon Dickie, who preached the memorial sermon, was assisted at the service by Corporal the Rev. Alex. Grant, of the Princess Patricia's Battalion. At the close of the service the Dead March in Saul was played by the organist.

All the Orange lodges of the city turned out in force yesterday afternoon and, headed by the Temple of Honor Band, marched to the Carleton Methodist church, where they attended a commemorative and memorial service, commemorating the landing of King William III. at Torquay and Guy Fawkes' day, and a memorial to the late Private Samuel Ferguson, of the 28th Battalion, who sacrificed his life on the field of action. The church was crowded and the service on the whole was most impressive, the feature being an address by the pastor, Rev. E. A. Westmorland, on the Living and Dying for Principle.

Yesterday was one of outstanding importance and significance at the Carleton Methodist church, being the seventy-fifth anniversary of its opening. Three services were held in honor of the day, two in the church, and one in the Sunday school. An important feature was that two members of the church were present who attended the opening of the church originally. They also attended the memorial service in the afternoon.

These services are the beginning of a series. This evening there will be an Epworth League rally. Tuesday, the Women's Missionary Society will have a sermon by Rev. W. G. Lane; Thursday, a congregational reunion at which it is expected to have present the mayor, Rev. Thos. Hicks, president of the conference, and Rev. Gilbert Earle. Yesterday was the most successful financially in the recollection of any of the church people.

Hon. Captain Rev. J. D. Morrow, chaplain of the 180th Sportsmen's battalion, addressed a mass meeting for men in the Opera House yesterday afternoon. The meeting, which was held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., drew a crowded house to hear the popular chaplain.

It was an inspiring sight to see the theatre filled to overflowing with the manhood of the city. He told of his work and his early struggles in the ministry, when he turned his whole attention to saving the down and out of the great city of Toronto. Men with red blood love to hear the story of the man who fought against overwhelming odds, but who, by pure sheer endurance, won out in the end, making the victory all the more glorious and satisfying.

Mayor Hayes, who acted as chairman,

School-Days are Joy-Days to the boy or girl whose body is properly nourished with foods that are rich in muscle-making, brain-building elements that are easily digested.

Youngsters fed on Shredded Wheat Biscuit are full of the bounce and buoyancy that belong to youth. The ideal food for growing children because it contains all the material needed for building muscle, bone and brain, prepared in a digestible form. One or two biscuits for breakfast with milk give a boy or girl a good start for the day. Ready-cooked and ready-to-serve.

Made in Canada

Introduced the speaker and referred to the hearty appreciation of the men of the 180th for the kindness shown them since their arrival in the city, and said that he was in receipt of a letter from the mayor of Toronto who, on behalf of the people of that city, desired to thank St. John and its citizens for the reception tendered the 180th battalion. Rev. Mr. Morrow, before delivering his address, sang a solo, the words and music of which he had composed himself, and which was much appreciated by all. This is the first of a series of meetings, which the Y. M. C. A. proposes holding in the city.

At the morning service the sermon was delivered by Rev. W. H. Barraclough; Rev. Thomas Hicks addressed the Sunday school in the afternoon, and Rev. E. A. Westmorland, the pastor, preached at the evening service.

The anniversary observations will continue until Thursday evening.

A SHINGLE NEWSPAPER AS TARIFF PROTEST

Washington, Nov. 6.—Representative Albert Johnson, Republican, of Washington State, has a constituent who has solved the high cost of print paper. This man publishes The Castle Rock Advocate and will print his next issue on a shingle.

The publisher discovered that the Underwood law, which put shingles on the free list, so reduced the price by permitting the Canadian shingles to come in that Washington's chief industry has languished and shingles have not kept pace with other American products in enhanced prices.

The Canadian invasion has brought the price of shingles below that of news print paper. The next issue of The Advocate will tell all about it and give an object lesson by appearing on the shingle, and Representative Johnson, himself an editor, has agreed to edit the unique publication.

Information is requested as to the whereabouts of the old-fashioned woman who used to stick broomstraws into the cake to see if it was done.—Newark News.

ALLIES MAKE GAINS AGAIN ON WEST FRONT

Italians Win on the Carso—More Trouble in Greece—German Bid to Poland

With the French Army at Verdun, Nov. 6.—(From a staff correspondent of the Associated Press.)—French patrols have penetrated far beyond Fort Vaux into the lines hitherto held by the Germans, but were not able to get in touch with the former defenders. It appears probable that the Germans have retired their lines considerably to the rear, their artillery positions being untenable since the French drove them from Douaumont, after silencing many of their batteries.

Military observers point out that the Germans were forced to withdraw from Fort Vaux within eight days after Douaumont fell, whereas the French held Fort Vaux four months after the Germans had captured Douaumont. The same observers regard the German claim that they were preparing to withdraw to stronger lines before the battle of Douaumont as untenable unless the Germans are ready to admit that their withdrawal was one of the most unsuccessful operations of the campaign, as it cost them more than six thousand prisoners and the annihilation of twenty-two battalions.

Signs that the Germans are preparing for a counter-attack are entirely lacking. Paris, Nov. 5, via London.—The following official communication was issued this evening:

"North of the Somme we made several successful attacks during the course of the day, accomplishing a series of appreciable advances between the region south of Le Transloy and the district south of the St. Pierre Vaast Wood."

"Between Lesbois and Sailly-Saillies we pushed our lines several hundred metres in the direction of Le Transloy. East of Sailly-Saillies we captured a trench and conquered the greater part of the village of Sailly. South of this village we attacked, from three sides at once, the St. Pierre Vaast Wood, which is powerfully organized by the enemy, and made an important advance, capturing successively three trenches which defended the northern horn of the wood, and also taking the whole line of the enemy's positions on the southwestern outskirts."

Paris, Nov. 5.—French forces, advancing in the region of Verdun last night, occupied the village of Dauloup, which is situated nearly a mile to the east of the recently captured Vaux fort, according to the official statement issued this afternoon by the French war office. A number of Germans were taken prisoner.

Rome, Nov. 5, via London.—Italian troops, fighting on the Austro-Italian front, in the last four days have taken 270 Austro-Hungarian officers and 8,392 men, says the statement issued today by the Italian war office.

The total number of prisoners made in the last four days' fighting amounts to 8,992, including 270 officers.

"Since the offensive on the Italian front began on Aug. 6, we have taken in all 40,853 prisoners, including 1,003 officers."

London, Nov. 5.—The Greek army arrived outside Katerina and an engagement with the Venizelists began tonight, says a despatch to the Sunday Observer from Athens, dated Friday.

Katerina, Greece, Nov. 5, via London.—A French battalion arrived here today to occupy the town. It is believed that the Greek and Venizelist troops will depart immediately, and thus solve the embarrassing situation which has arisen as a result of the conflict between the Royalists and Venizelists.

Berlin, Nov. 5, via Sayville.—Polish provinces occupied by troops of the Central Powers, says the Overseas News Agency, "were the scene today of a great and momentous historic event. Germany and Austro-Hungary, by joint action, proclaimed Warsaw and Lublin the kingdom of Poland, and re-established the right of the Polish nation to control its own destinies, to live an independent national life and to govern itself by chosen representatives of the nation."

Galicia, Too, to Be "Free."

Amsterdam, via London, Nov. 5.—Emperor Francis Joseph has addressed an autograph letter to Premier Ernest Von Koerber, stating that it is his will, when the new state of Poland comes into existence, to grant Galicia the right to independently manage its own internal affairs. The emperor charges Premier Von Koerber to prepare measures for the legal realization of this command.

Every grocery store has its customers who order POSTUM regularly instead of tea or coffee.

They are former tea or coffee drinkers who, for health's sake, changed their table drink.

If you suspect that tea and coffee contribute to your discomfort or illness, ask the grocer for the names of several POSTUM users in your neighborhood; get in touch with them and hear their story.

Or, secure a tin of INSTANT POSTUM and try it on the family table for ten days instead of tea or coffee.
