REV. MR. STONE BEATS BILLY SUNDAY'S RECORD

"Billy" Sunday's record for conversions was outdone by the R. H. C. Stone when 4,500 [Philadelphians became "Stonemen" in Holy Trinity church. They took the "first degree" in three classes of 1,500 each.

This makes a total of 65,500 who have become members of the organization being formed by the Rev. Dr. Stone.

Although the organization is said to be purely religious in its purposes, it may inject religion into politics. The "Stonemen" will be the strongest influence behind one of its members, George D. Porter, director of public safety, who is a candidate for Mayor.

Several monster mass meetings between now and election day are scheduled and old-time politicians may get a bad beating. Whether politics are discussed at the meetings held on other than Sundays remains to be found out. The organization is backed by one man

Revere, Sept. 22—A blow in the abdomen, struck during a dispute over a childish ball game caused the death of Margaret Raymond, 10 years old, daughter of Benjamin Raymond of 40 Fair-field street in the Massachusetts Hospit-

Anthony Valloreggio, 14 years old son of Joseph Valloreggio of 17 Fairfield street who is alleged to have committed the assault is held by the police.

According to the story told by the little girl before her death she went out of the house after supper and attempted to take part in the sport of a group of boys who were tossing a ball. The boys did not want the girl to play with them and when they tried to drive her away it is said, she took a small stick and struck the Valloreggio boy on the legs. A tussle followed in which Margaret received a hard blow in the stomach.
