Hints for the Cook

Mock Cherry Pie

Make a good pie crust, take 1 cup cranberries chopped, and ½ cup raisins chopped, 1 tablespoonful flour, 1 cup of sugar and 1 cup of water. Mix all together, and bake between two crusts.

Chocolate Pudding

Put 1 pint of sweet milk in double boiler, heat till boiling point. Take 1-2 cup of sugar and add to it 2 level tablespoons of cornstarch and pinch of salt; stir all into hot milk, add 1-2 square of melted chocolate, let cook 10 minutes. Remove from fire, add 1 teaspoon vanilla. When cool serve with whipped cream.

Cracker Pudding

Eight crackers broken in half and then put in a baking dish with 1 cup of sugar and 1 well-beaten egg with a little nutmeg. Will make a nice pudding. Pigs or dates or raisins can be added.

Brown Bread

One cup of Indian meal, 1 cup of rye meal, 1 cup of grain meal, 1 cup of sugar, 1 cup of milk, 1 egg, ½ cup of brown sugar, 1 cup of raisins. Pour into well-buttered 1-pound baking powder boxes (2-3 full), cover and steam 8 hours. Uncover and bake ½ hour. Never allow the water to stop boiling.

Baked Apples

Put as many apples as needed in baking dish, make a sirup of sugar and water and pour over them. When done let cool and serve with evaporated milk.

O'GARRY AT IMPERIAL

IS A GREAT PICTURE

Vitaphone Broadway Feature Wonderful in Scenery and Action—New Vaudeville Artistic and Highly Entertaining

Real dollar vaudeville was accorded patrons of Imperial Theatre yesterday in Harry Fendell, well-known musical performer, in characterizations of famous instrumentalists of recent times. With most elaborate stage settings the talented Keith performer gave imitations of Kubelick, violinist; Lefevre on the saxophone; Kyril, the great cornetist; and Van Bieze, Dutch cellist. Mr. Fendell, besides being an excellent musician, made up with wonderful faithfulness to look like the eminent man, whom he portrayed and the whole effect of his performance was musical merit and splendor. Those who enjoy nice concert numbers, will like this act very much indeed. Standard and popular selections were played and the melody as a finale was good.

The Imperial introduced the first of its Vitaphone Broadway features in "O'Garry of the Royal Mounted," a three-part story of mining life in the Rocky Mountains and also of the Northwest Mounted Police. Edith Storey, Ned Finley, S. Rankin Drew and others played all important parts and aside from its dramatic value, the picture was noteworthy for its scenery. Broadway features should become quite popular, if they are all as good as the opening one. The George Ade Slang Fables in pictures are always welcome and that of the present bill is very funny indeed. Helen Holmes in her hairbreadth dare-devilry, takes an awful chance this week in dropping off a railway bridge onto a fast passing train.

Wednesday and Thursday this week, Max Fignman, who will be remembered as such a success in "The Man On The Box," will be seen in Jesse L. Lasky's production of Geo. Barr McCutcheon's inimitable comedy-drama, "What's His Name?" Aside from the humor of this piece, it gives a peculiarly pathetic view of the country girl, who is attracted from home by the glamor of the stage, only to find that home life is best.

MILITARY DRAMA IS OPERA HOUSE OFFERING

Under Two Flags Pleases Large Audience—Bright Vaudeville Between Acts

A four-act drama of interest, "Under Two Flags" was given last night in the Opera House by the Young-Adams Co. before a large audience. The story of the piece is well known, and its portrayal last night gave pleasure to those present. Applause was frequent throughout, particularly in certain climaxes which were cleverly enacted. The costumes of men and women alike were attractive. The play has a strong military tone, and furnishes a special appeal in these strenuous days of war. Bright vaudeville was given between the acts.

"Under Two Flags" will continue until Thursday, when "Ten Nights in a Barroom" will be the play.

The cast last night was:

Bertie Cecil Royellon.....H. Wilmut Young
Berkley Cecil, his younger brother.....Wm. Loker
Lord Rockingham.....Harry W. Lyon
Baron, a money lender.....John Gregory
Ben Davis.....Al White
Rake, Bertie's Valet.....Jas. H. Rowland
Col. Chateaufort.....The Hon. Hadfield
Lady Guinevere.....Clara Rose Hubner
Lady Venitia.....Hazel Stevenson
Nora.....Maria Le Clair
Little Venitia.....Marguerite
Cigarette.....Marjole Adams
Pierre Malou.....Wm. Loker
Piccon.....John Gregory
Chasseurs, Soldiers, etc.

THRILLING DRAMA OF LOVE AND VENTURE

Three Part Handsomely Colored Picture "In The Lion's Den"—Pathe Weekly With Latest War News—Gem Theatre

A gripping, forceful drama of romance and adventure was presented yesterday to delighted audiences at the Gem Theatre, entitled "In The Lion's Den." The story was in three parts and was magnificently photographed in natural colors. The titled effects were striking and greatly admired. The story was based almost completely on love, and was problematical in its narrative. The acting throughout was of special cleverness.

The Gem orchestra had a pleasing programme of late airs. There was an other reel which evoked much interest—showing scenes from the zone of activities where the war is in progress, contained with other late current events in "Pathe Weekly." Several views of Kitchener's new army were shown, in readiness for their entrance into battle and many of whom are probably by this time hearing the brunt of fighting in the trenches. Scenes from the German prison camp in England where some 6,000 Germans are quartered were given, besides numerous other views of war interest. These features with "In The Lion's Den" will be given again today.

UNIQUE SHOWS THE HORRORS OF WAR

A Spectacular Feature—Very Funny Comedy Gives Programme Diversity

Although not dealing directly with the present war, there is a motion picture feature now being shown at the Unique that is decidedly interesting. It serves to give a splendid idea of what the soldier-lads must undergo in order to help raise the banner of victory. Under the caption of "The Fortunes of War," the subject represents one of the best efforts of the Kay-Bee Company in bringing before the mind in a vivid and clear manner a representation of grim warfare. Charging of cavalry, bursting of shot and shell, the rush of infantry, the terrible result of war with its grim battle-field pictures, are presented and cannot help but bring home thoughts of what day.

CASCARETS FOR COSTIVE BOWELS, HEADACHE, COLDS

Tonight! Clean Your Bowels and Stop Headache, Colds, Sour Stomach.

Get a 10-cent box now. Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and bad cold—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels, or an upset stomach. Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.

our own boys are undergoing in Europe. A pleasing and rather sensational story runs throughout the picture, which is one that will be appreciated by all those who will have the pleasure of seeing it. To offset the serious side of the programme, the comic players come to the fore in a ridiculously funny comedy. A question of hats. The Unique is preparing a sumptuous bill of fare for the kiddies next Saturday afternoon.

SOMETHING REAL NEW AT LYRIC THEATRE

Programme Rightily Billed as Side Issue From Big Circus

One cannot dispute the fact that variety is the spice of the vaudeville world, and that the Lyric management tries to present a little bit of everything this amusement resort has established a good reputation for itself. The offering of the first three days of this week is a decided getaway from what has been seen for some time. The Nelson Trio, composed of a lady and two gentlemen, submit a series of acrobatic novelties and contortion feats that certainly are new to the stage. A Side Issue From a Big Circus. In fact, it is not often, even under the canvas, that one has the pleasure of witnessing a performance as that given by the Nelson Trio. Full of vim and vigor there is not a dull moment in the five acts. The act demands for presentation, the pleasing feature of their clever performance being that the old hackneyed material so much exploited by acrobatic teams is not even referred to. Difficult and hair-raising stunts are executed with grace and ease, while the clown member of the trio deserves special praise for the manner in which he accomplishes the next to impossible, contortion and acrobatic feats. The Mutual Weekly is a strong feature of the picture programme, while the interest is well earned throughout, a beautiful poem play by the Majestic Co., The Old Maid. Two acts are listed for the latter part of the week.

WHY JAS. A. BRYCE RECOMMENDS DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

He Had a Pain in His Back For a Year Till He Used Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Paisley, Ont., March 22.—(Special)—"It gives me great pleasure to say a few words of praise for Dodd's Kidney Pills," says Mr. Jas. A. Bryce, well known and highly respected in this neighborhood.

"I had been troubled with a pain in my back for about a year," Mr. Bryce writes, "and when I was reading in Dodd's Almanac I learned from the Self Examination Page that the Kidneys were the cause of my trouble."

"I sent at once for a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills and before they were done I was feeling as well as ever."

"Dodd's Kidney Pills certainly were a great boon to me and I can recommend them highly to anyone suffering from Kidney disease."

If your disease is of the Kidneys or of the kidneys, Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure it. They have been curing sick kidneys in Canada for more than a score of years. That's why they're so popular.

MODERN MEDICINE

The day has passed forever when the average duration of life was comparatively short, and when death was a matter of pure chance. In place of a fatalistic conception of death, a new doctrine of social and individual control of the death rate prevails, which accounts for the material improvement in health and longevity. Much by trust-worthy records, is shown to have taken place throughout practically the entire civilized world within a comparatively brief period of time. This marvelous change may properly be considered one of the wonders of modern science and a human achievement transcending in its far-reaching practical importance and enormous benefit to millions of mankind, all of the other great inventions combined.

The modern control of the human death rate is placed chiefly with the results of systematic scientific research and, to an increasing degree, of individual and social conformity to the teachings of natural laws and facts disclosed by the discoveries of preventive medicine. The domain of medicine is no longer considered exclusively the province of the physician, whose functions are limited to its practice as a healing art. Modern conceptions of public health and sanitary science have enormously broadened the field of medicine in general and brought the teachings of its principles within the understanding of the mass of the people of ordinary intelligence.

DAY FOR CONSIDERING THE WOMAN AS AN ADJECTIVE IS PASSED, SAYS MR. HAPGOOD

The "Woman Movement" Subject of Address Before the Women's Canadian Club in Montreal

(Montreal Mail.) It has been said that woman's place is in the home. Before agreeing to that it is necessary to define "home." Does it mean four walls of brick or plaster? Or is it a collection of interests and ideals, a place where foundations of society are laid? If the latter, I agree that woman's place is there. That being the case, since history has transferred these ideas and ideals beyond the four walls, into the universe, then the home reaches there, and woman's place is everywhere. With this declaration, Norman Hapgood closed his address to the Canadian Women's Club yesterday afternoon.

The Humor Has Disappeared

The address was a consideration of the woman movement, properly so called in its recent manifestations in the United States. "Previously," said Mr. Hapgood, "any reference to this question was received either with jealousy or with alarm. The humor has long since disappeared from the problem. To take a matter seriously is progressing a long way towards its solution. One of the really serious objections urged has been the fear of lost charm if women received the franchise. The day for considering women as an adjective and man as the noun—woman as the accompaniment of man—has passed. Today the young women coming out of the colleges are very much more attractive than any women brought up in greater seclusion. This is true even of the ones who take their training in a superficial way. And young men feel it. They object to the vacuous girl. This attitude is universal and men like to have women who are companions and who mean something. In the state west of the Mississippi women have been the companions of men for a long time and it is there suffrage has made greatest advance.

Problem is Becoming Clearer

"If the movement is dangerous, it would seem to naturally follow that the states contiguous to a suffrage state would refuse suffrage to its women, but exactly the opposite has happened. As the freedom of women and their desire to live something of the life of man becomes familiar, the problem becomes clearer. The majority of open-minded people in the United States feel that the woman movement is the most important one going on at present except the labor problem. Both are re-shaping the world as nothing else is doing.

"That half of the world that has special problems, burdens and aptitudes of its own, and has never had its share in saying what the attitude of the world towards these is to be, must have a voice. Some fear woman's influence will be radical. To a certain extent it will be radical. Finding the world not made by them, and only partly for them, will make certain changes inevitable. That half of the world which bears children and stands by the cradle while the race is young and needs guidance, that half which does this work which is carved out for it forever cannot be very dangerous.

"The argument for the well-to-do woman is just as strong as for the laboring woman, although it is more easily stated for the latter. The well-to-do has nothing to do but dress and do the few things to which a trivial existence exercises her powers, is idle, and an expensive being. Other women do her housekeeping for her, and all other tasks. The poor stimulus responsible for the work she undertakes keeps it from bulking large. To take work from prosperous women is as great an evil as can be inflicted on anyone.

Have Given Power to the People

"Colorado is frequently referred to as a suffrage state that has failed. The conditions there are peculiar. The vast mining interests of the state are held by non-residents who, nevertheless control its executive and administrative affairs. California, Washington, and Oregon show the effects of suffrage. With women who are companions and who mean something, women has taken the power away from illicit vested industries.

HAIR COMING OUT?

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosening and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Dandriol at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After a few applications the hair stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff.
