WOMEN'S A. A. F. OF C. AT MONTREAL DEC. 7 Interpretation of Rules Big Factor In N. B.-Wanderers

Present Ones Only Provisional-Men to Aid as Advisors

THE first annual meeting of the Women's Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada has been called for December 7, at Montreal, when it is expected that representatives from all parts of Canada will be in attendance. One of the main acts will be election of Dominion officers, the present ones having been provisionally appointed.

This body controls women's athletics in the Dominion and has women of ficers, who act in conjunction with men advisers. The date was fixed as December 7, so that the meeting would be held about the same time as the annual meeting of the A. A. U. of C., which will meet this year in Saint John on December 8, 9 and 10, thus permitting A. A. U. delegates from the West and Upper Canada to attend the girls meeting in an advisory capac-ity while en route to Saint John gath-

Miss A. E. M. Parks, of Toronto University, is provisional secretary, and Miss Marion Belding, who has been elected to office, is the president for the Martime Provinces. The latter said today that she expected to attend the meeting.

FREAK FOOTBALL COOTBALL is getting to be a game of tricks, if we are to believe some of the coaches. There is no telling how far the camouflage is to go. So far this season Penn has mystified the opposition with its hiddenball attack. The ball is passed around considerably in the backfield and the opposition have had much trouble picking out the ball-toter. GRIDIRON STRATEGY TT seems that Coach Zuppke of Illinois insists the deception is brought about by the elbow pads used by the Penn squad, rather than the indiscrim inate passing of the ball. Without desiring to take a definite stand in the matter, on the theory that the Penn coaches would not resort to unsportsmanlike tactics, it certainly seems as if the scheme as worked would tend to make it far more difficult to locate the ball-car-against "America"

Donovan Is Challenged

A TELEGRAM has been received at this office from "Nedder" Healey, of Halifax, issuing a challenge on behalf of Red McDonald for a fight with Louis Donovan, the local featherweight. Donovan said he would accept the challenge providing McDonald would weigh in at ringside at 126 pounds and post a forfeit to make that weight. McDonald claims the championship of Eastern Canada, but it was said that he could not make the featherweight limit and had been fighting around 130 to 135 pounds.
