

HAVE ENJOYABLE TIME AT HAMPTON

Local Women's Institute Members are Guests in Kings County.

The members of the St. John Women's Institute were guests of the members of the Hampton Women's Institute yesterday and spent a very delightful afternoon and evening at Hampton. The St. John delegation was met at the station at Hampton and taken for a two hour automobile drive through the surrounding district when they had the opportunity of viewing the beautiful scenery of the district. Following the drive a meeting was held in the drawing room at the home of Mrs. Flewelling, president of the Hampton Institute. A very interesting summary of the work of the Hampton Institute written by the secretary, Mrs. Hill, was read by Mrs. Forrester, and Mrs. T. M. Vincent, president of the St. John Institute told of the work of the city organization. Mrs. Richard Hooper gave an address on the Queen's Dolls' house that was much enjoyed, and Miss Minnie Travis, returned missionary from China gave a talk on "China and Japan, describing conditions in the two countries in a very graphic and interesting way. Miss Travis also showed her remarkable collection of very beautiful Oriental embroideries, which were much admired. Mrs. Segsworth, of Kingston, Ont., who is visiting Mrs. Richard Hooper, told of the wonderful collection of Chinese jade to be seen in Toronto. The collection, she said, was the finest on the continent.

A delicious supper was served at tables on the lawn which were very attractively arranged. Before train time the visitors were entertained around the open fire in the drawing room and music, instrumental and vocal, and social converse passed the time very pleasantly. The St. John members were motored to the station and returned to the city on the mail train. They expressed their hearty appreciation of the hospitality of the Hampton members.

SEPTEMBER BRIDES

Ganoog-Patterson.

An interesting event took place this afternoon at 2:45 o'clock in the Queen Square Methodist church when Rev. Neil McLaughlin united in marriage Miss Marion Gale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Patterson, Mecklenburg street, and Carey Kierstead Ganoog. The bride is a graduate of Mount Allison of the class of 1921 in household science and she taught last year in Rothery Consolidated School. The groom, who has been attached to the staff of the Moncton Times during the summer, is a graduate of Acadia in arts in 1922 and he attended the university of Toronto last year and secured his M. A. degree. He has accepted a position as teacher of economics at the University of Wisconsin this fall. The groom's father was late Rev. E. K. Ganoog and his mother is now Mrs. Chipman Colwell. The bride was given away by her father and she was attended by her cousin, Miss Frances Gale. Archibald Gillies acted as best man, Ralph H. Gale and J. Kenneth Givens as ushers. The bride was dressed in a beaded gown of powder blue georgette. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bridesmaid was attired in a peach colored dress with black picture hat and she carried a bouquet of Columbia roses. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ganoog left by train for Madawaska, where they will reside. The bride's traveling suit was navy blue port with grey hat. Numerous gifts testified to the popularity of the young people.

Driscoll-McDonogh.

A wedding of much local interest took place this morning at 10 o'clock at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception when Miss Margaret Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McDonogh, Paddock street, and Ernest F. Driscoll, son of James D. Driscoll, proprietor of the Edward Hotel, were united in marriage. Nuptial mass was celebrated and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Raymond McCarthy. The bride was given away by her father, Miss Mary Conlon was the bridesmaid while Roy Driscoll, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The bride looked charming in a white pailleur suit with hat and shoes to match and carrying a bouquet of American Beauty roses. The bridesmaid was dressed in brown broadcloth velvet with hat to match and carried a bouquet of carnations. Many beautiful and useful gifts of silver, cut glass, etc., testified to the popularity of the young people. The groom's present to the bride was a purse containing a check. Also checks were received from the fathers of the bride and groom. Following the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll then left on the steamer Governor Dingley on a wedding trip to Boston and New York. On their return they will reside in this city.

Saunders-Henderson.

A pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at 8 o'clock, in the presence of a large number of friends of the contracting parties, in the Gondola Point church, when Rev. Canon Daniel united in marriage Miss Mabel I. Henderson, daughter of Mr. Sarah A. Henderson, of Fair Vale, and I. Perry Saunders, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Saunders, of Gondola Point. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, C. Frederick Henderson. She was groomed in a brown traveling suit and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and maiden hair fern. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Saunders left on an automobile trip through the province. They will reside at Gondola Point, where the groom is in business. Their popularity was shown by the large number of beautiful wedding gifts received.

Small-Mawhinney.

On Wednesday evening, Sept. 10, at 8 o'clock, Christ Church, Penfield, was the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Jennie Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Arthur J. and the late Sara A. (McKay) Mawhinney, Mack's Bay, be-

Leonard-Kelly.
One of the most brilliant weddings of the season was solemnized in Calvary Baptist church, Sydney, Cape Breton, Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 10, when Annie Mildred, only daughter of Frank Kelly, was united in marriage to George Frederick Leonard, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Leonard, of St. John.
Rev. Gordon S. Vincent, B.A., pastor of the church, in the presence of a large attendance of invited guests and friends of the contracting parties. The interior of the church was lavishly decorated for the occasion with golden glow and potted plants.

The bride looked charming as she entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Professor Harold Briers played Mendelssohn's wedding march. She was groomed in white duchess satin with train trimmed with ermine, wearing a conventional veil wreathed with orange blossoms and bridal bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley.
Mrs. J. Howard Trappnell was matron of honor and was attractively attired in mauve georgette crepe with black lace, black picture hat and mauve bou-quet of primroses and orchids. The groom was supported by Cecil Sutherland, L. R. Rice and J. H. Trappnell were ushers. During the signing of the register Miss Mae Taylor, soprano, of Sydney, sang beautifully and in a familiar manner Harvey's "O Promise Me" following which Prof. Briers played Lohengrin's bridal chorus. The bride's party left the church, followed by the little flower girls, Miss Betty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Au-rely Robinson, in pink tulle, and Grace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O.
L. Squires, in blue tulle. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride at which about seventy invited guests were present.
The interior of the home was attractively decorated for the occasion, the color scheme of the reception room being pink, while the dining room looked pretty in gold with light yellow streamers.

The out-of-town guests included Dr.
J. G. Leonard, D.D.S., and Charles

Charles Allison Sears, of Boston, son of William S. Sears, of Albert county.
Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sears, of Charlotte street, West St. John, were witnesses.
The ceremony was performed by Rev.
J. H. A. Holmes, rector of St. Jude's.
Mr. and Mrs. Sears will reside in Boston.

Deaths
Gregory Bent.
Much sympathy will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. John Bent, 182 1/2 Union street, in the death of their second son, Gregory, which occurred yesterday at the General Public Hospital at the age of seven years. The lad had been ill for only a few days. He was a very bright boy and very popular amongst his companions and was entered in Grade I at Cliff street school.
Besides his parents, three brothers and two sisters survive. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon from his parents' residence.

STANLEY RECTOR GOING TO UPHAM

Rev. E. C. Budd Will be Succeeded by Rev.
S. C. Grey.

Rev. E. C. Budd, who for the last two years has been rector of Stanley, Upham, Kings County, and will take up his new duties on next Sunday. He was for six and a half years in the parish of Queensbury and Southampton, before going to Stanley two years ago. He came from England about nine years ago and was first stationed at Stanley, where he remained for a few months before being appointed to the rectory of Queensbury and Southampton. He returned to Stanley two years ago as its rector and early this summer he and Mrs. Budd went to England and Switzerland, where they visited their old homes. His new parish will include the churches at Upham, Hammond, Londonderry and Barnesville.

Rev. S. C. Grey, who has been rector of Oranmore for the last few years, will succeed Rev. Budd at Stanley and for the present no rector has been appointed for Oranmore.

CLEAN BOULEVARDS.
Paris, Sept. 17.—The boulevards of Paris have been cleaned of vendors of obnoxious post cards, pseudo guides, importunate beggars and panhandlers.
Every evening for a week Chief of Police Naudin displayed himself and strolled along the main streets of Paris to spot the offenders and arrest them.
The boulevards were rid of them for the benefit of tourists, he announced.

Smokers! Good news in tomorrow's paper—Louis Green.

HORNETS SCARE FLIES.
Richmond, Va., Sept. 17.—Don't say "swat the fly" to S. R. Harper, Pittsburgh county dairyman. He has a better remedy for the pests. He has found that a large hornet nest hanging from his barn is effective in keeping the flies away.

SANTA CLAUS HAS HARD JOB
BREAKING IN HIS REINDEER Anchorage, Alaska, Aug. 20.—(Associated Press, by Mail).—The average youngster who pictures Santa Claus as having a soft snap skipping his herd of reindeer from roof to roof, would revise his opinion if he saw a reindeer broken to harness, say those who have undertaken the job.

Being a nomad, the deer does not necessarily become a calf and gradually domesticated. He must be taken when practically full grown. The battle to break him lasts for many weeks, with the animal alternating between trying to escape and fighting like a Tasmanian devil, declares Tom Post-lunk, an Eskimo herder.

First the reindeer is deprived of his home. It requires two or three strong men to get the creature harnessed.
Then the fun begins. At this time the driver seeks refuge under the sled until the deer has cooled down and decided to cease hostilities for a while.

"Driving dogs all right," commented Postlunk. "But reindeer—I rather walk. He worse horse, cow, pig, automobile, all together."

a delightful week there with friends have motored home. They enjoyed the trip very greatly and were delig-ted with the scenery on the way.
