Thousands See Harding's Body Leave San Francisco

TRAIN SCHEDULE TO OTTAWA

EXPRESS IS DRAPED IN MOURNING

Train Bearing President's Body Leaves San Francisco Mid Sorrow.

FUNERAL SERVICE

Banks of Flowers Covered the Casket in the Presidential Suite.

(Canadian Press.)

San Francisco, Aug. 4.—In sorrow unutterable, San Francisco last night bade good bye to all that was mortal of Warren G. Harding, until a few hours ago, was President of the U. S.

To his widow, Mrs. Harding, the city said an escort with a compassion unwitnessed here since those sad days of the earthquake and fire when San Francisco had sorrow of her own.

The outpouring of this compassion came at sunset last night when the city's thousands lined the streets leading from the Palace Hotel, where President Harding died Thursday night, in the Southern Pacific station where his body was placed on board a special train to be taken to Washington.

Accompanied by a cortege of army, navy and marine detachments led by men high in official life in city, state and nation, the body of the late president was carried to the same railway station through which he entered the city last Saturday morning for a few days a guest of honor. The body was placed in the same car he occupied on coming here. The train, draped in black, drew out of the black draped station here last night, and there began the saddest transcontinental journey trip in the history of the U. S.

In Washington Tuesday.

Ninety and a half hours will be required for the trip, when it is ended at 10:20 Tuesday morning, the body of Warren G. Harding will be taken to the White House, where he served the nation for nearly two and a half years, and then in the Capitol where, as a senator from Ohio he represented his native state for six years.

Funeral services will be held in the Capitol rotunda late next Wednesday after the body has lain in state all day and then will begin the final journey to Marion, Ohio.

San Francisco, Aug. 4.—Mrs. Florence Harding, standing between Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Christian, Jr., as the Rev. James S. West read the prayer over her late husband's body here yesterday, nodded her head slightly as the pastor raised his hand and said "God in our refuge and strength."

As the minister ended his prayer, Mrs. Harding said "amen."

The widow stood and watched the half hundred persons as they filed out, waiting for the room to clear in order that she might have a few minutes alone with her dead husband, before the body was taken to the train for transportation to the national capital. The body reposed in a brown steel coffin, lined with white silk.

Owl Caught In Wire Shuts Off The Light

Swastika, Ont., Aug. 4.—Owls are supposed to be able to see in the dark, but one of the species apparently did not possess this faculty, and as a result Kirkland Lake was plunged into darkness last night. When patrolmen turned out in a storm to locate a break in the system, they discovered that a large owl had been caught in the wires at Danst, causing a short circuit.
