READY FOR THE T. & L. CONGRESS

It Will Open in Windsor on Next Monday

Between 600 and 700 Delegates Expected — Civil Servants' and Postmen's Unions Are to Be Represented.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 10.—(Canadian Press)—Preparations for the trades and labor congress of Canada convention, which will open in the armories in Windsor on next Monday have been practically completed. Arrangements have been made for the accommodation of between 600 and 700 delegates who will be in attendance from all parts of Canada and although it is not expected that as many councils will be represented as at Hamilton last year, many topics of paramount importance will be under discussion.

D. McCann, representative of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, has arrived here and, in conference with members of the local council, has been in charge of the arrangements of preliminary details. Headquarters during the convention will be established in the Crawford House. Delegates will also be given accommodation there, the whole hotel having been given over for the use of those in attendance.

One of the features of the convention will be a delegation from the newly constituted civil service union, associated federal employees of Ottawa, which was organized less than two months ago and which has made great progress in the capital. Delegates from postmen's unions, another departure in the granting of charters by the trades and labor congress, will also be in Windsor.

Attorney-General of Manitoba
Says Province Has No
Control Over C. N. R.
Freight Rates.

Winnipeg, Sept. 10.—The Province of Manitoba has not at this time any authority over freight rates on the Canadian National Railway in Manitoba, or from the head of the lakes to Winnipeg, according to an announcement made yesterday by Hon. Mr. Johnson, attorney general, in reply to a statement made by Hon. Robert Rogers.

Mr. Rogers contended that agreements signed in 1901 between the provincial government and the Canadian Northern Railway gave the province the power to fix rates up to 10 per cent above the rates that the federal parliament in 1919 passed an amendment to the railway act, over the protest of the Manitoba government, which gives the railway board absolute authority over all rates, regardless of provincial contracts until July 1, 1922.

NEW ILLUMINATION FOR KING SQUARE BEING PLANNED

Commissioner Thornton Suggests
Removal of Present
Poles and Erection of Ornamental
Posts.

Commissioner Thornton is preparing a plan for a change in the lighting system of King Square, which should, if adopted by the common council, increase the attractiveness of that spot.

His suggestion is that the poles and wires at present on the square be removed and replaced by ornamental posts the current to be supplied by wires laid underground. The posts would be of the same style as those already erected at the head of King street and in front of the market, each with a cluster of five incandescent globes. At present three are used for the illumination of the square, one each on the north and south sides and one in the centre near the band stand.

The commissioner said this morning that provision could be made for the attachment of strings of colored lights should it be desired to decorate the square on any occasion.

NO DRUDGERY
IN SCHOOL AS MUSIC PLAYS

Gramophone Lightens Weary
Task of Commencing One's Education—Children Demonstrate.

(Toronto Globe.)

To set all the drudgery processes of the primary education to music, and to rid the mind of drudgery and harnessing them to the winged chariot of the imagination, seems an impossibility when one sees, in a tent reached through the educational exhibit in the Government Building at the Exhibition, Miss Mac Skillings, a demonstration, given by the pupils of the Department of Education, of the uses of the gramophone in teaching, not merely music, but ordinary school lessons.

The series of records Miss Skillings uses are especially designed for children and she began with one which taught writing with a rhythmic "Spring one, two, one, two, one, two, finish," and went on to a musical selection which harmonized with the movement of the blackboard. This method admits, also, of a gradual acceleration that almost unconsciously gives the pupil speed, and it certainly develops a sense of rhythm.

Use It Every Day.

The little girls who were used in the demonstration came from the "Avenue School," where Miss Skillings explained, "they are blessed with four phonographs."

"How often do you girls write to music?" she asked, and "Every day," was the prompt reply.

Certain letters fit in with certain times, and "A-B-C" were produced in rapid succession to the time of a stirring march.

"I choose the very best music," Miss Skillings said, "and in that way the children unconsciously cultivate a taste for the best."

"It does away with discipline, too, to a large extent," said Miss Skillings, "for even if a child isn't all musical it makes him keep right on, somehow, and if he is musical he simply loves it. They sometimes times clamor to stay after school hours just to write to music."

For physical culture, folk dancing, singing and games, the phonograph is used, too, and geography and history can also be made much more attractive through the use of music. For the purpose of teaching reading by phonograph eight fine records have been made by Dr. Kirkpatrick.

Folk Dance and Geography.

The folk dance, also, as it co-relates with geography, was demonstrated, eight little girls showing two charming dances. Miss Skillings put on the phonograph, and an Indian war-song and dance, performed by an Indian from Brantford, Oskanonton, who also described, in his own way, and in slightly broken English, the way in which the Red man went out upon the war path.

But, with all the value of the music as an adjunct to instruction, Miss Skillings urged that its value be not lost sight of from the standpoint of pure beauty.

"People miss things every day of their lives because they haven't been trained to see them," she said, making a strong plea, that while the mind was susceptible the child be taught to see the beauties of music.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

"RICH MAN, POOR MAN," A BIG NEW YORK SUCCESS

George Broadhurst's "Rich Man, Poor Man" is made of material equally tried and tested. A loving and sacrificing old couple who will stop at nothing to bring happiness to the little waif who years before had been placed in their arms by a dying mother and who latter had brought sunshine into their lonely lives; an honest, but struggling young law student, an aspiring son of the idle rich and a kind-faced old millionaire.

Mr. Broadhurst took his materials for this dramatic triumph from Maximilian Foster's story which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post and now, after two years of success in New York and with road companies it is, next week, to be the attraction at the Queen Square Theatre by the Young-Adams Company.

It is a great week-end program for visitors and home folks as well and especially attractive to the children.

Sir Henry expects a public part of the inquiry to end by December 1. The dates of the eastern inquiry will not be announced until near the end of the western trip.

The cabinet will spend frequent sessions trying to digest what has been learned by the commission.

LORD MAYOR HAD VERY BAD NIGHT

London, Sept. 10.—Terence MacSwiggan, lord mayor of Cork, passed a bad night in Brixton prison says a bulletin issued this morning by the Irish Self-Determination League.

He is suffering from a rheumatic attack, and complains of a feeling of dizziness and numbness, but is still conscious.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 10.—(Canadian Press)—The Newark city commission adopted a resolution yesterday to be sent to King George asking for the release of Lord Mayor MacSwiggan.

Is American Citizen.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Irish progressive league announced here yesterday that Secretary of State Coby had called the United States consul at Cork for a full report on Patrick Joseph Murphy, a hunger strike prisoner in jail there, who is said by the league to be a citizen of the United States.

Murphy was born in Lynn, Mass., in 1894, office of the league asserted, adding that they had appealed to President Wilson in his behalf. Secretary Coby's cable was said to have been despatched yesterday as a result of this appeal.

Priest's Letters Seized.

New York, Sept. 10.—The Rev. Father M. M. English of Whitehead, Montana, on arriving here yesterday on the steamship Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, announced that the United States state department probably would be asked to investigate the search of his baggage and seizure of his letters by British soldiers in Ireland. He declared his protests that he was an American citizen were ignored.

A Bad Night.

The residents of the city will, at midnight on Saturday, turn their clocks back one hour and retire to rest with two conditions to give them peaceful slumber. The first is that extra hour of rest which the change in time warrants, and the second and perhaps most delightful is the thought that on the morrow and the succeeding days they can go about their business without being just schedules to live their own time pieces.

CONTINENTAL IMMIGRANTS
SEEK TO REACH THE U. S.
THROUGH DOMINION

So Many Have Been Sent Back That
Sharply Worded Cables of Warning
Have Been Sent.

Ottawa, Sept. 10.—Continental immigrants insist on coming to Canada in contravention of the regulations, and such a number of them have been turned back that the Immigration Department has sent sharply worded cables to the steamship companies, warning them against bringing in such people. They are mostly Poles and Russian Jews.

The immigration regulations do not ban continentals whose relatives or friends here send them a prepaid ticket, or if they come from their homes on a continuous journey, but few of them do so. Instead, they come indirectly, and thus are not eligible. All of them planning to stay in Canada are heading for the cities, while the greater number aim to get into the United States by the back door and evade the restrictions in vogue there.

A large number have been rejected and taken back at the expense of the steamship companies. The situation has come to be such that the Department has warned the different lines, to conduct such examinations on the other side as will prevent the futile embarkation of ineligible immigrants.

New York, Sept. 10.—Unfilled orders held by the United States Steel Corporation in the month ending August 31 totalled 10,905,038 tons, as against 11,118,468 in the month ending July 31. Today's report showed a decrease of 813,430 tons from the previous month.

THIS SHOULD BE GOOD DAY AT FAIR

Something More of the Features — Two Air Flights
Planned for This Afternoon.

There is no sign of interest waning at the exhibition and another large crowd is expected this afternoon and evening. Weather conditions are favorable and this in itself is an incentive to attract a crowd to the fair.

With the exception of the art gallery display all the judging has been completed and visitors now have an opportunity of seeing who won honors among the exhibitors. This afternoon there will be a stock parade on the grounds starting at 4.30 o'clock (daylight time) and this is expected to be a feature attraction. The usual attractions are booked for this evening, the athletic performance in front of the grand stand, a band concert in the main building and on the grounds and a gala display of fireworks. The last mentioned have been making a big hit.

Boy Scouts.

An exhibit which has been attracting considerable attention is that of the Boy Scouts. They have a tent situated near the Carmarthen street entrance, and it is artistically decorated with flags and bunting. Inside they give daily demonstrations of first aid, while members of the troop also assist in demonstration work in the St. John Ambulance Association's booth, the Red Cross booth and in the Public Welfare Exhibit of the Department of Health. At their tent they have on exhibition many articles made by members, which have evoked much favorable comment. One of the best is a wireless outfit, which was made by David Legate, one of the first class scouts.

The dog show of the New Brunswick Kennel Club last night and this morning entries from points throughout the maritime provinces and upper Canada were being sent back here, and a show was conceded to have been a great success.

Owing to atmospheric conditions this morning the scheduled aerobics flight was called off, but it is to take place early this afternoon and again at 5 o'clock, old time.

Many favorable words are heard this year about the dining room, to which the building formerly used by the soldiers' club cooking appliances. Frank D. Brogan, an experienced caterer, with whom is associated A. C. Smith in operating the dining room service, has been complimented on the fine meals and excellent service. Such days as Monday and yesterday put to the test the ability to satisfy great crowds and the management was not found wanting. The whole arrangement is much ahead of what it has been in other years.

IN WALL STREET.

New York, Sept. 10.—(10.30)—Stocks were heavy to weak at the opening of today's trading, shipping particularly forfeiting much of yesterday's substantial advance. United Fruit fell 1/2-3/4 points and American International declined on denial of rumors of prospective dividend distribution. Oils, steels and rails reacted fractionally, the few exceptions being Pan-American Petroleum preferred, Crucible and Reading.

Further depression was shown by foreign exchange, bills on London falling to a new low level for the current movement.

Noon Report.

The market steadied soon after the opening. American International rallied to within a fraction of yesterday's high price while other leaders rebounded one to two points.

Shorts had another uncomfortable time in various specialties, including Houston Oil, which rose about 1/2 point. Trading fell away before noon, recoveries were held for the most part.

The feature of the bond market was the new French issue, which sold at a premium of one per cent on the curb. Call money opened and renewed into next week at seven per cent, and exchange on London became firmer.

DEFENCE POLICY FOR AUSTRALIA IS OUTLINED BY HUGHES

London, Sept. 10.—(Canadian Ass'd Press)—A Times cable from Melbourne says that Premier Hughes has outlined a defence policy, which, he says, might be modified by a scheme he would lay before the imperial council next year when he hoped a real imperial defence policy would be formulated, in which Australia could participate.

Mr. Hughes' present scheme provides for resumption of compulsory training for boys of eighteen. The annual cost would be $235,000. Half a million would be set aside for aviation under his plan.

Naval expenditure would amount approximately to four millions, nearly double the 1913 programme, and military expenditure $2,250,000 against $2,000,000 in 1913.

NOT WORRIED OVER COAL SITUATION

British Public Declines to Grieve as Yet

No Reason to Think That
Final Word on Settlement
Has Been Said, Though
Conference Was Failure.

London, Sept. 10.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The public still declines to become lugubrious over the coal position. None of the newspapers comment is unduly bitter or pessimistic. Within a few hours of the close of yesterday's conference between the board of trade here and the miners' leaders a tentative report of the conference was issued to the press from the government, which seems to show that the government thinks its own case has nothing to lose by the fullest publicity.

The miners, who are good tacticians also left straightway for Portsmouth to resume attendance at the trades union congress.

Newspaper reports from Portsmouth today indicate that, while no official statement is yet forthcoming, there is no reason yet to think that the contending parties have reached their final word.

One correspondent remarks: "With the knowledge that they can bring the coal industry to a standstill within a fortnight, the miners' leaders would be more than human if they displayed any undue precipitancy in accepting something less than the original demand."

The Daily Express editorially says that all the country knows that neither side has an unanswerable case. The government is trading in coal and making a profit out of it. That policy, says the newspaper, is open to objection, but it is a political matter between the government and the country and not a question to be decided at the dictation of a section of the community. The miners, it says, are wrong in attempting dictation on this issue, but may be right in asking for a rise in wages. They are wrong in refusing to substantiate their claim before an independent tribunal.
