The Giants in a Slump; What McGraw Says About It

By JOHN J. MCGRAW, Manager of the Champion Giants. (Copyright, 1913, by John J. McGraw)

It is at this stage of the pennant race that the strain begins to tell on a ball club and a slump is to be expected.

Through the month of August a team which is a contender for the flag requires the hardest driving.

The Athletics are in a slight slump now. The Athletics had a slump last week, which worried the players and 'Connie' Mack, who got to do to boost the club into this slump, and morning practice begins just as soon as the team reaches the Polo Grounds this week.

GREEKS LOSE; FREDERICTON WINS GAME

New Brunswick-Maine League Standing

Table with columns: Team, Won, Lost, P.C. Rows include ST. JOHN, Fredericton, St. Croix, and Bangor.

By being the score in the eighth and adding two more runs in the final inning Bangor won yesterday's game from the Marathons 5 to 4.

Fredericton Greasers—Ed. Phelan, the latest addition to the Fredericton pitching staff, stands about six feet tall, weighs 193 lbs. and will celebrate his 21st birthday on the 22nd inst.

Phelan comes here on the recommendation of Charlie Martini, the former New York and Providence pitcher who was with the Houston club last season.

This Bout Was a Disappointment

FROM T. S. ANDREWS

Milwaukee, Aug. 11.—The contest between Jimmy Clabby, claimant of the middleweight championship, and Freddy Hicks at Butte, Mont., last night, was a severe disappointment to the friends of the clever Hammonville boy.

THIS IS 'GUNBOAT'

Another thing I have done is to instruct all the players to cut out golf. Several of the team, Herzog, Mathewson, Merkle and Shaffer, had taken up the game recently and had been playing it nearly every morning.
