

MARY BEVIN

New York, April 14—Although Mary Bevin, world's champion ugly woman, has nothing but ugly looks for Dorothy Knapp, American prize beauty, her ugly looks mean nothing. Mary couldn't look otherwise.

"I don't envy Dorothy Knapp!" said Mary, with an ugly smile, "Id rathe be Mary Bevin than anybody else."

Since she won the London Daly Mail's hundred pound prize contest in 1918, Mary has met no woman who could—or would—take away her title, this despite the fact that two million people have, gazed at her in English

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Lois Saswell. The death of Mrs. Lois Caswell, one of the oldest residents of the Maritime Provinces, died on Thursday at Gran-Provinces, died on Thursday at Gran-ville Ferry, Nova Scotia, at the age of 103 years. She was born in Hopewell, N. B., in January, 1820, and was a direct descendant of the United Empire Loyalists. She married Benjamin Cas-well in Boston. She lived in St. John at one time and lost her home and contents in one of the great fires. A son, Austin, who resided here died about thirteen years ago. Since that time she has lived with his family in St. John, where she spent the winter of 1922, or where she spent the winter of 1922, or in Granville Ferry.

She was a member of the Germain street Baptist church, of this city, and on January 20, the Women's Missionary Society of the church honored her birthday.

She is survived by one grandson, Edwin Caswell, of Moncton, and three granddaughters, Mrs. Carey Woodworth, of North Easton, Mass., and Misses Bessie and Nettie, of Granville Ferry. The body will be brought to St. John for interment on Monday.

CANADA'S RAILWAY ENTERPRISE.

(Le Soleil)

"The twenty-two thousand miles of railway that have been placed under State control possess an inappreciable value as regards the advantages the Canadian people may one day obtain from their economic development. It is to be hoped that ere long this railway will become one of the most powerful instruments for the country's dewelopment, instead of remaining what they are today, namely, the greatest burden that any young country has ever been called upon to carry. If this enterprise is profitably developed the Canadian taxpayers will then congrat-(Le Soleil) enterprise is prontably developed the Canadian taxpayers will then congratulate themselves upon having exercised a generous patience. Whilst confidently awaiting what is so devoutly to be wished, we are receiving a reminder every year that the experience is extremely costly."

MUSIC IN SCHOOLS.
Cleveland, April 14.—The teaching of music appreciation in the public schools, rather than drill upon such technical details as scales and sight reading, was urged by speakers at a session of the music supervisors' national conference.

Dr. David Snedden, of Columbia University, said much of the energy devited to teaching technical details is lost motion, and the "cheap and inferior" kind is as good for that purpose as the sort considered "high brow." Walter Damrosch, conducted of the New York Symphony Orchestra, who asserted that schools should make a special effort to teach all children to The only dissenting voice came from ead music at sight.

Joseph Jockleman was found guilty yesterday afternoon by the magistrate of receiving stolen goods, namely a quantity of coal, knowing it to be stolen. The magistrate, after warning the good of the stolen. the accused, allowed him to go on suspended sentence.

GERMAIN STREET MADVET COMMITTED

Diamond Jubilee of

The Queen-Mother

(Sarah A. Tooley, in London Chronicle)

Mr. Gladstone, speaking on some special Royal occasion in the House of Commons, referred to the wife of the then Heir Apparent in this courtly phrase:: "The Princess of Wales has permitted the nation to love her."

The great statesman tou-hed the right note, and it will be re-choed throughout the country today, when Queen Alexandra celebrates the Liamond Jubilee of her arrival in this country for her marriage. On March 7, 1868, the Sea King's daughter land-ed on our shores a simply-bred, unsophisticated girl of nineteen, whose striking beauty had been so loudly trumpted abroad that some disappointment might have been anticipated.

This was felt by Mr. Justice McCarthy, but be has related that his defruit and the first glimpse of the lovely face of the Princes of the Princes of Wales, letting beside the reprincely lover, she made that never-to-be-forgotten progress through the cherring crowds of London, dispelled all doubts. He was, however, she made that prepared the heart of the wife of the the Heir Apparent in this courtly phrase:: "The Princess of Wales has permitted the nation to love her."

To deep of the great novelist saw in the princes of Princes and the princes as simply-bred, unsophisticated girl of nincteen, whose striking beauty had been so loudly trumpted abroad that some disappointment might have been anticipated.

This was felt by Mr. Justice McCarthy, but be has related that his defruit intition in that courtly throng the princes of the call of the princes of the call of the princes of the country of the princes of Wales, leading society in place through the princes of Wales, leading society in place through the princes of Wales, leading society in place through the princes of Wales, leading society in place through the princes of Wales, leading society in place through the princes of Wales, leading society in place through the princes of Wales, leading society in place through the princes of Wales, leading society in
