A few days ago the Globe made a great point in favor of Maine over New Brunswick, regarding the fact that the Savings Banks of Maine had a much larger sum of money on deposit than the Savings Banks of New Brunswick.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

As the terms of the proposed union of the two cities of St. John and Portland have not been made public up to the present time of writing, it would be premature for us to discuss them today.

THE APPEARANCE OF THE COMTE DE PARIS.
