Contradiction

For some time past in this town and the nearby settlements a rumour has been current concerning me. I wish to state that from my standpoint it is absolutely false.

GILBERT TURTLE,
Shearstown,
Aug. 16th, 1917.

Newfoundlanders residing at Sydney, who have not been continuously resident in Sydney for three years or longer, are free to return home if they so desire.

An exceedingly smart young city chap obtained a job in a small country grocery store, and was warned not to fall for any of the jokes that might be sprung on a new clerk. One day a young lady came in and asked for some birdseed. "Aw, go on," said the clerk, "you can't spring that one on me; birds is hatched from eggs."

Public Notice

Newfoundland Patriotic Association Employment Committee

The Employment Committee has been appointed by the Newfoundland Patriotic Association to take into consideration applications for employment in civil life from returned Soldiers and Sailors of the Newfoundland Regiment and Newfoundland Royal Naval Reserve who have been granted honourable discharges. The Committee can only perform this duty to our returned soldiers and sailors with the fullest help and co-operation of all those in the Colony who employ labour or require help or service of any kind in which these men may be employed. The Committee will prepare and keep on file a register of all men seeking employment, giving their age, qualifications and experience, so far as possible, of each applicant. This information will be available to prospective employers, and steps will be taken to bring about interview or correspondence between employers and soldier or sailor applicants. Every person or firm when requiring such help for either domestic or business purposes is therefore invited to communicate to the Committee the nature of the help required, and of the work to be done, and such other information as may be useful. For the present the Headquarters of the Committee are at the Colonial Building, St. John's, and communications should be addressed to A. E. Parsons, Secretary of the Employment Committee.
