R. D. WILMOT, Sur. Gen.

CROWN LAND OFFICE, Jan. 6, 1852.
(No. 419.)

THE attention of the Deputy Land Surveyors throughout the Province, is hereby called to the necessity in future, of preserving more uniformity in their Surveys of Crown Land. All lots must be rectangular, and extending not less than 50 chains from front to rear. The direction of the side lines must conform to the nearest general Surrey, unless there be special reasons to the contrary, of which a full Report is to be made to this Office, in the first place, for approval.

No Survey of detached irregular sized Lots, will be hereafter recognized; and no Survey is in any case to be made before the issue of the Warrant.

Petitions for the purchase of Land must describe the exact situation wanted as correctly as possible; and if in a tract which has been heretofore partly surveyed and numbered, the particular Lot must be mentioned. When the descriptions are defective in the requests, the Petitions will be set aside.

DR. LA'MERT

ON THE SECRET INFIRMITIES OF YOUTH

FOURTH EDITION, WITH FIFTY COLORED ENGRAVINGS.

Just Published, and may be had in French & English, in sealed Envelopes 2s. 6d., or post-free, from the Author, for forty-two stamps.

SELF-PRESERVATION:

A MEDICAL TREATISE ON THE PHYSIOLOGY OF MARRIAGE, and Disorders of Youth and Maturity usually acquired at an early period of Life, which enervate the physical and mental powers, diminish and enfeeble the natural feelings, and exhaust the energies of Manhood:—With practical observations on the Treatment of Nervous Debility and Indigestion, whether arising from those causes, close study, or the influence of Tropical climates; Local and Constitutional Weakness, Syphilis, Stricture, and all disease and Derangements resulting from Indiscretion. With FIFTY Colored Engravings, illustrating the Anatomy, Physiology, and Diseases of the Reproductive Organs, explaining their structure, uses and functions, and the various injuries that are produced in them, "by solitary habits, excesses and infection."

BY SAMUEL LA'MERT, M. D.

No. 37, BEDFORD SQUARE, London

Doctor of Medicine, Matriculated Member of the University of Edinburgh, Licentiate of Apothecaries' Hall, London, Honorary Member of the London Medical Society, &c.

CONTENTS OF THE VOLUME.

CHAPTER I.—On the Philosophy of Marriage, with its Hinderances or Obligations; and on Incestuous and Unproductive Unions.

CHAPTER II.—On the Anatomy and Physiology of the Generative Organs, their functions, structure, and secretions, proving that great Mental and Physical power are dependent on their healthy action.

CHAPTER III.—On Solitary Habits; their various effects on the Animal Economy; the concealed cause of Debility of the functions of the Stomach, Liver, and Kidneys, and general weakness of the Mental Faculties.

CHAPTER IV.—On the Secret Disorders of Youth and Maturity and the Treatment of Nervous and Local Weakness, Mental Debility, and Premature Decay.

CHAPTER V. and VI.—On the Disorders arising from the discriminate Excess, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, and other Diseases of the Urethra.

REVIEW OF THE WORK.

Marriage requires the fulfilment of several conditions, in order that it may be really the cause of mutual happiness. Could the veil, which covers the origin of domestic wretchedness, be raised, and its true source of every distance to be disclosed, in how many could it be traced to physical disqualifications and their attendant disappointments.—Excesses are always injurious; the gift, which when used in moderation is fraught with advantage, becomes, when abused, the prolific source of misshief, and of greater or less injury to the constitution and vital powers. The particular excesses, on the nature and consequences of which this Treatise professes to dilate, are productive of greater misery to the human frame than any other to which it is subject.

This work contains an accurate and complete account of the Anatomy and Physiology of the Reproductive Organs, and of their relative conditions in health and disease. Nor are these the sole contents of the work, the means of escape, as well as the nature of the danger, are pointed out in clear and intelligible language. It deservedly requires the closest attention and study, for what subject can be of more importance than the preservation of health, and of the physical capabilities of which every man should be possessed. It unfortunately happens, that the unhappy victim of excessive indulgence and vicious habits, whether acquired in early life, or from the follies of advanced age, while suffering from their miserable consequences, unwisely entertains a fear of applying to a qualified physician for relief. Shame and the dread so frequently but erroneously entertained and these complaints are beyond the reach of art alike restrict him, and prevent him seeking for assistance where alone it can be procured. In acting thus, he forgets that accurate discrimination in ascertaining the causes of disease, sympathy with the sufferer, and above all, secrecy, invariably characterize the intelligent and honorable physician, and to the medical man, who can show by his conduct that he possesses such qualifications that he is entitled to esteem and confidence in his professional pursuits the utmost confidence should be extended. DR. LA'MERT has obtained the highest medical honors, as his diplomas testify, and the great extent of his practice for many years, is a guarantee for his professional experience, which has reference almost solely to the treatment of these diseases.

☞ The work may be had in Saint John, of H. Cairns & Co., price 2s. 8d. Stg.; Halifax, Messrs. Morton & Co.; Quebec, Mr. Neilson.
