Ye are the light of the world, Matt. 5:14.

GOLDEN TEXT.

Ye are the light of the world, Matt. 5:14.

1. AND SHEING THE MULTITUDES. They proved that he had awakened sufficient interest for him to make a forward movement in his instruction. Wherever there are those willing to be taught the true teacher burns to teach. He want up. From the level place on the mountain (Luke 6:12, 17), where the people were gathered, to a higher point, from which he could more easily be seen and heard by them. INTO A MOUNTAIN. The mountain, a well-known place. WHEN HE WAS SET. This was the custom of the Jewish doctors, who taught sitting in token of their authority,—Jacobus. His DISCIPLES CAME UNTO HIM. They gathered close to him, while the multitude were farther off, but within hearing.

First Beatitude.—V. 3. BLESSED. This word means far more than "happy," that which happens, by chance, from without. Blessedness "is the express symbol of a happiness indentified with character."

"The Christian word blessed is full of the light of heaven." "It emphasizes something which thrives on trial and persecution, which glories in tribulation, which not only endures, but conquers the world and expects its crown in heaven.

Are the food in Spirit. The original for poor expresses utter destitution. Hence a consciousness of spiritual want whose supply can come only from God. It is the opposite of pride, self-rightcousness, self-conceit. It is the same spirit that is required when we are told that we must become as little children, if we would enter the kingdom; willing and anxious to learn, to ask, to seek.

FOR THEIRS IS THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN, (See last lesson.) For they have the qualities without which there can be no heaven begun on earth. "Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not (cannot) enter into the kingdom of heaven" (Matt. 18: 3.) Pride, conceit, self-esteem, selfishness, lock and bar the door to heaven and heavenly bless-edness.

Second Beatitude.—V. 4. RLESSEDARE THEY THAT MOURN. (1) This is an absolute negative to the self-right of the negative to ye shall not (cannot) enter into the kingdom of heaven" (Matt. 18:3.) Pride, conceit, self-esteem, selfishness, lock and bar the door to heaven and heavenly bless-edness.

Second Beatitude.—V. 4. BLESSED ARE THEY THAT MOURN. (1) This is an absolute promise to all those who in the kingdom of heaven are brought into the experience of mourning, and is to be interpreted by such passages as Rom. 5:3-5. Heb. 12: 11, and Rev. 7:14. (2) But chiefly the blessing refers to those who mourn over ignorance and sin, both in themselves and in others, who feel the sorrows of others, who realize the sins and needs of the world lying in wickedness. For THEY SHALL BE COMFORTED. (See Isa. 61:1-3.) The Greek word for comfort means called to one's side for aid, strength, encouragement, consolation. It is the word from which one title of the Holy Spirit is derived, "The Comforter." Our word comfort is derived from two Latin words, con, together, and fortis, strong, made strong together, and fortis, strong, made strong together, and fortis, strong, made strong together of sorrow, but transforming and transfiguring it, and compelling it to bestow blessings otherwise impossible.

The rainbow can be painted only on a storm. The most beautiful radiance of the sunset is reflected only from the clouds.

Third Beatitude.—V. 5. BLESSED ARE THE MERK. Compare Psa. 37:11. "Meckness has, and must have for one of its accompaniments, a temper which is not easily disturbed; an indisposition to retaliate injuries. These signs of meckness—which may also be symptoms of weakness—have been mistaken for the quality itself," as the hands of a clock have been mistaken for the world and all its good things. Passion and revenged are unhappy feelings. Trust in God, control of temper, shed peace and happiness over everything. Every earthly blessing has a heavenly flavor. (2) The meek have a surer title to their earthly possessions; they are less likely to be dispossessed by enemies; they are apt to live longer than the passionate and revengedul. (3) Christ's ki

THEY THAT DO HUNGER AND THIRST AFTER RICHTECUSNESS. "Hunger and thirst are the sharpest spurs an animal can feel. Hunger has made civilized men cannibals, and thirst has made them maniacs. When the Master said, 'Blesssed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness; for they shall be filled,' he declared in a figure that those whose strongest desires is for goodness shall be satisfied. 'For they shall he filled,' he declared in a figure that those whose strongest desires is for goodness shall be satisfied. 'For they shall he satisfied.' For they shall he satisfied. And nothing else can satisfy the soul. All worldly things are vain to satisfy. They are like the salt waters of the sea, the more you drink the thirstier you are. Alexander conquered the world, and then wept for more worlds to conquer. God never made a human soul so small that this whole world could satisfy it.

Fifth Beatitude.—V. 7. BLESSED ARE THE MERCIPUL. Those who pity, sympathize with, and help to relieve, all misery and suffering. This is the natural outward expression of the inner hungering after righteousness. Mercy is near of kin to love. It is love to the needy, the troubled, the sinful, even those who have wronged us. It relieves spiritual want and darkness, as well as temporal; would give the gospel to the heathen, as well as food to the hungery.

FOR THEY SHALL OBTAIN MERCY. From man and from God Like heasest libs. The

TO THEY SHALL OBTAIN MERCY. From man and from God. Like begets like. The echo is like the original voice. But most of all do we need God's mercy. And showing mercy to others proves that we have a state of heart which makes it safe for God to forgive us. For him to forgive the unmerciful would be to multiply sins and wrongs.

Sixth Beatitude.—V. S. BLESSED ARE THE PURE IN BEART. Pure, sincere, inmixed with evil or imperfection in motive, purpose and love. Trench makes it correspond with "simple" in its original meaning of simplex, sine phica, without fold. It is also "sincere," i. e., sine cera, without wax, honey pure without any particles of wax; or as most modern etymologists derive sin from sim (Latin simul), altogether, and cerus from the same root as the English sheer, pure, clear; hence wholly, altogether clear.

FOR THEY SHALL SEE GOD. There must be a likeness of nuture and feeling, in order to understand another. So only the pure can see a pure God. The impure, the bad, cannot even see him, much less enjoy him. They do not understand his nature. They do not know the meaning of his character. They are color-blind. The selfish do not believe that unselfish love exists. The vile do not believe there is real purity.

When do we see God? Not only in heaven, but here and now. Just as far as any one is pure he sees God. What a privilege this is, to see God, his goodness, his glory, his love! How it enlarges the vision, widens the horizon, and expands the soul! What an ideal it sets before us! The words of the dying Kingsley," says Dr. Tait, "fiuds an echo in every Christian heart, 'How beautiful is God!"

Seventh Beatitude,—V. 9, BLESSED ARE THE PEACHMAKERS. "The founders and promoters of peace." The exact opposite of the quarrelsome, the passionate, the fighters, the faultfinders, the murmurers and also those who are indifferent whether there is peace or not. (1) Those who from this same disposition, seek, like their Master, to reconcile men to God; to bring divine peace into sinful souls, by leading them to

THE PECULIARITIES OF THIS WORD.

No Name on Earth So Famous -No Name More Widely Imitated.

No name on earth, perhaps, is so well known, more peculiarly constructed or more widely imitated than the word DODD. It possesses a peculiarity that makes it stand out prominently and fastens it in the memory. It contains four letters, but only two letters of the alphabet. Every one knows that the first kidney remedy ever patented or sold in pill form was named DODD'S. Their discovery startled the medical profession the world over, and revolutionized the treatment of kidney diseases.

medical profession the world over, and revolutionized the treatment of kidney diseases.

No imitator has ever succeeded in constructing, a name possessing the peculiarity of DODD, though they nearly all adopt names as similar as possible in sound and construction to this. Their fooliahness prevents them realizing that attempts to imitate increase the fame of Dodd's Kidney Fills.

Why is the name "Dodd's Kidney Fills' imitated? As well ask why are diamonds are the most precious gems, gold the most precious metal. Dodd's Kidney Pills are imitated because they are the most valuable medicine the world has ever known.

No medicine was ever named kidney pills till years of medical research gave Dodd's Kidney Pills to the world. No medicine ever cured Bright's disease except Dodd's Kidney Pills to the world. No medicine las cured as many cases of Rheumatism Diabetes, Heart Disease, Lumbago, Dropsy, 'Pemale Weakness, and other kidney diseases as Dodd's Kidney Pills have, Its universally known that they have never failed to cure these diseases, hence they are so widely and shamelessly imitated.
