Fallen King Exile in Poverty Hopes for Return to Palace

PALACE OF THE NECESSIDADES, AT LISBON, ROYAL HOME OF MANUEL, WHICH WAS BOMBARD.

Rome, Dec. 19.—The Tribune today prints an interview with Portuguese personage whose name is not mentioned, but who is said to be prominent in the royalist movement concerning the exiled king of Portugal.

King Manuel, he says, is poverty stricken and unable to choose a place of residence. Owing to lack of money the dethroned King has been compelled to accept the hospitality of the Duc d'Orleans at Wood Norton, Everham, England. For three months he has not had means with which to pay his own servants.

According to the interview, King Manuel hopes that he will be restored to power, insisting that a republic in Portugal cannot exist. His friends predict that a congress of the Powers will be called to settle Portugal's affairs, and if this is not done the royalists, they say, are ready to fight for the restoration of the monarchy.

London, Dec. 18.—The Duchess of Orleans underwent an operation for appendicitis at Woodnorton, Everham, Saturday. She passed a comfortable night, but today her condition was considered critical.

tugal, and his mother, Queen Dowager Amelie, are the guests of the Duke of Orleans at Woodnorton. As the duchess has been ill for a long time, she was unable to receive the Portuguese exiles on their arrival in England.

She has been confined to bed for two months. A few days ago serious symptoms developed, which necessitated an operation.

Pretender Lays Plans.

Lisbon, Dec. 19.—The newspapers say that Dom Miguel de Braganza, pretender to the throne of Portugal, has summoned Senhor Joao Almeida and other partisans to Austria to confer with him on plans for a Miguelist propaganda in Portugal.

The Duke of Oporto publishes the announcement that he intends to pay all of his debts in Portugal. It is believed that King Victor Emmanuel of Italy is advancing the necessary funds to the Duke.

The Ministry of Finance will issue a decree on December 15, calling for payment of one-third of all custom duties in gold.

TWELVE KILLED IN EXPLOSION

Street Car Blown on Top of Automobile by Dynamite Blast in New York Street Yesterday.

New York, Dec. 19.—Twelve persons were killed, two of them women, and thirty persons were injured in a double explosion of gas and dynamite in the new electric power house of the New York Central Railroad and Grand Central Station shortly after 8 o'clock this morning.

The force of the explosion shattered hundreds of windows in the big hotels and apartment houses in the neighborhood of the great railroad terminal, causing great alarm among the guests. The dynamite blast picked up a northbound trolley car, lifted it in the air and sent it crashing down upon an automobile which was passing along the other side of the street. Four of the passengers were killed and the man in the car was injured. The railroad service was only temporarily interrupted.

The dead: Mary D. Folk, 104 East 40th street; Thomas Stagg, an employee of the power house; C. McMorris, address unknown; E. B. Livermore, address unknown. Monsignors Lapette, and Hayes and Fathers, O'Connor, McQuade, Sinnott and Byrnes of St. Patrick's cathedral hurried to the scene and administered the last rites of the church to the more seriously injured.

At the post-office sub-station at 40th street and Madison Avenue the explosion slightly injured several clerks and threw the mail all over the floor. In the New York Nursery and Child's Hospital ceilings were partly shaken down and the windows broken, but fortunately none of the 300 children there were badly hurt. The power house, which is built of stone and brick, and six stories high, took fire after the explosion and the interior was practically wiped out. Just what caused the double explosion may probably never be known. Fortunately for

SOME THOUGHTS OF A QUEEN

(By Queen Elizabeth of Roumania.)

From "The Golden Thoughts of Carmen Sylva" published and copyrighted by John Lane Co.

The profession of queen demands but three qualities: Beauty, bounty and fecundity.

Strictly speaking, a prince requires nothing but eyes and ears; he does not need a mouth, except to smile.

A little contradiction animates conversation. This explains why courts are so dull.

Political women are hens who make themselves virtuous.

Man tosses like a bull or crushes like a bear; woman gnaws like a mouse or squeezes like a serpent.

Men study women as they study the barometer, but they do not understand until the day afterwards.

White hair is the foam which covers the sea after the tempest.

A shallow man never says: "I am a fool." His natural timidity makes him fear he may be right.

When a man loves his children with an excess of passion, he cures that he is not happy.

A wife has to love you, suffer in childbirth, bring up your family, and be pretty and amiable into the bargain. What were you saying just now about her weakness?

Maternal love is an instinct, but there are instincts which breathe the divine.

Analogy in a lover is homage, in a husband an insult.

Between husband and wife a shadow of courtship should always subsist.

At night everything burns—stars, thoughts, and tears.

NEW SOUTH WALES CROP.

Sydney, N. S. W., Dec. 17.—The government statistician estimates that there are 2,259,200 acres under wheat cultivation in New South Wales which will yield 23,500,000 bushels.

The hay crop is estimated at 447,600 tons.

There will be between 10,000,000 and 11,000,000 bushels of wheat available for export.

MAPS FOR SALE.—There are on hand in The Standard office a number of very fine three-sheet maps, strictly up to date, which are unequalled for house or school use. They give The World, North America, Canada, United States and the Maritime Provinces. The maps, which are illustrated on the reverse side bear a lot of valuable information, show pictures of prominent persons and well-known places and are in reality miniature Canadian encyclopedias. They are the very thing for the homes of school children and any business man would find one invaluable in his office. These maps will be sold at twenty-five cents each on application at The Standard office. They cannot be sent by mail. This price does not represent one half the cost.
