SIX BIG FIGHTS ON SATURDAY

Rivers Defeated McCue.

Los Angeles, Calif., July 4.—Joe Rivers, the Los Angeles lightweight, defeated Matty McCue of Racine, Wis., substitute for Ad Wolgast, in the second round of their fight at Vernon arena today. Rivers knocked McCue down in the first round. In the second round, Rivers landed a blow to the jaw sent McCue to the floor again and while the referee counted McCue's seconds threw a towel into the ring in token of defeat. McCue is a sparring partner of Wolgast.

Murray Knocked Out.

San Francisco, July 4.—George Chip of Newcastle, Pa., knocked out Fighting Billy Murray of Bellum, Calif., in the 15th round here today. It was all Murray's until the 11th round, when Chip planted a hard left on Murray's stomach. After that the tide began to run increasingly toward the easterner. Coming out of a clinch, Chip, aspirant for the middleweight championship, shot three terrific rights to the Californian's jaw. Murray's arms dropped to his sides, his eyes closed, and as he crumpled Chip caught him straight on the jaw with a heavy left uppercut. It was fully two minutes after he had been counted out that

Murray was revived. The bout was scheduled for twenty rounds.

Cross Won from Watson.

San Diego, Calif., July 4.—Leach Cross won a decision over "Red" Watson in their twenty round fight here this afternoon.

Britton Trimmed Griffith.

Canton, Ohio, July 4.—Jack Britton of Chicago defeated Johnny Griffith of Akron, Ohio, in a hot twelve round battle today. There was no decision, but the popular verdict was for Britton.

Morris Stopped Kublak.

Fort Smith, Ark., July 4.—Carl Morris of Sapulpa, Okla., stopped Al Kublak of Michigan in the sixth round of their scheduled ten round bout here today. Tommy Dixon, former featherweight fighter, who refereed, got in the way of a wild right and went through the last round with his eye severely cut.

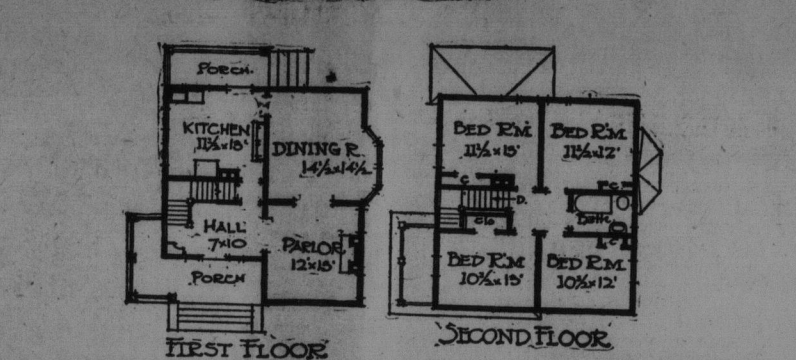

Mandot and Dundas Draw.

New Orleans, July 4.—Joe Mandot of New Orleans and Johnny Dundas of here today, according to a newspaper decision.

LOWERS SPEED RECORD.

The C. P. R. flyer St. George, Capt. Cardiff, lowered the speed record held by herself between St. John and Digby when she inaugurated the double daily service on Saturday on the Bay route. She made the run from what to what in two hours and 10 minutes, making close connections with all trains on both sides of the Bay. The steamer Yarmouth makes the morning trip and the St. George the afternoon trip.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

New York, July 4.—With the major league baseball clubs about to enter upon the second half of their 1914 campaign a comparison with the records of the past two years develops some interesting facts regarding the strength and weakness of the teams of the National and American circuits.

In the senior organization the New York Giants led their league on July first in both 1912 and 1913. Two years ago the Yankees were making a runaway race of the pennant contest, having won fifty and lost eleven games in an average of .820.

Pittsburgh won second with thirty-seven games won and thirty-five lost, giving the Pirates a percentage of .597. Chicago with .567 was third, having lost twenty-four games and won thirty.

Last season's standing showed several major league changes over this order, for while the Giants were showing the way, the lead was of the narrowest margin. Philadelphia was in second place, a Brooklyn following the Quakers closely.

In fact but 125 points separated the first four teams against approximately 300 in 1912. The New York club, ultimate winners of the pennant, had a percentage of .635 to Philadelphia's .638. The Giants had won six games and lost twenty-three, while the Quakers' score stood thirty-eight games won and twenty-two lost.

Brooklyn, which held sixth place in 1912, was but seventy-six points behind the second place club, having won thirty-four games and lost twenty-seven.

Chicago completed the list of first division teams with a percentage of .615. The second half of the league standing was occupied by Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Boston and Cincinnati, with respective percentages of .461, .424, .413, and .379.

In the American League the Philadelphia Athletics were not playing at top speed in 1912 and held second place with the Boston Red Sox showing the way. Chicago was third and Washington fourth.

The race was much closer, however, than that in the National organization, for Boston had but 123 points separating the first and fourth teams, the standing being: Boston, won forty-six, lost twenty-one, percentage .687; Philadelphia, won thirty-eight, lost twenty-five, percentage .602; Chicago, won thirty-eight, lost twenty-eight, percentage .576; Washington, won thirty-eight, lost thirty, percentage .559.

Cleveland, Detroit, New York and St. Louis formed the rear guard in the order named. Last season the Athletics held a lead of such proportions that the fans were already beginning to concede the pennant to Connie Mack's players.

With forty-eight games won and seventeen lost, the Philadelphia club showed a percentage of .738 against Cleveland's .600, for forty-two games won and twenty-eight lost. Chicago was again in third place with thirty-nine victories and thirty-two defeats, giving the White Sox .549.

Washington, while not going as strong as in 1912, still managed to hold fourth place, thirteen points behind Chicago and five points ahead of Boston, which in one year had dropped from first to fifth place. Detroit, St. Louis and New York brought up in the rear as they did in 1912.

Montreal, July 3.—Cables from London are to the effect that the new Canadian loans had risen to 3-16 premium is another encouraging sign of the times.

ENGLISH WRITER'S REVIEW

Foreign comment on the showing made by the American golfers entered in the recent English amateur championship is unusually fair and considerate. Although the pick of the American field was entered and did not survive the fourth round it is generally conceded abroad that these players took their responsibilities too heavily and were doomed to defeat from the start.

One English writer in reviewing the tournament stated: "When your men can come over and play a round just as though they were out for a country walk, and play, not to win, but to enjoy the game, they will probably win. You handicap them too heavily before they start."

Nobody knew Tubbs who defeated Francis Oulmet, for example, had even entered the tournament. He won simply because he was an unknown and was out for a little golfing holiday and was therefore playing his normal game. It was quite good golf.

What You Should Know About BEAVER BOARD

2nd—How Beaver Board is Applied

Beaver Board is nailed in panels to the studding (wall and ceiling beams) of new rooms or directly over the lath and plaster in old rooms. The seams formed by the joining of the Beaver Board panels are covered with decorative strips which give that artistic panel arrangement so popular in the modern home. If instructions are followed, anyone handy with tools can apply Beaver Board. Beaver Board is easily handled and can be readily cut by a fine saw, sharp knife or chisel.

WEDDINGS

Brophy-Kirkpatrick.

Newcastle, July 1.—A very pretty wedding took place at nuptial high mass in St. Samuel's church, Douglas town, at 7 a. m. Tuesday, when Miss Mary Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kirkpatrick, Sr., of Douglas town, was united to Mr. John Hugh Brophy of the Bathurst Lumber Co., Bathurst.

Rev. S. J. Cromley, of Blackville, performed the ceremony, assisted by the pastor, Rev. J. G. Cormier.

The ceremony took place with in the sanctuary on the steps of the altar. Miss Eliza Wood played the wedding march. The bride looked charming in a gown of white brocade with white picture hat; she carried a white prayer book. Miss Kathleen M. Holland, of Blackville, handsomely dressed in cream silk with hat to match, was bridesmaid, and Wm. Kirkpatrick, brother of the bride, was best man. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast, to which the contracting parties and relatives of the bride and groom were invited, was served at the residence of the bride's parents. Shortly afterwards the happy couple left on a wedding trip to Boston and New York. Very many valuable presents were received, as the bride is a very estimable young lady, much honored by the whole community. The groom's present to the bride was a gold cross and chain set with pearls, and to the bridesmaid a gold locket.

Sherard-Hare.

Newcastle, July 4.—The marriage of Miss Eva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Hare, of Whitteville, to Robt. W. Sherard, of Boom Road, took place at the manse, Redbank, on Tuesday, Rev. J. F. McCurdy, B. A., officiating.

Thomas Bartlett

A quiet but pretty wedding took place in Oldtown, Maine, on Wednesday, June 29th, when Miss Minnie Bartlett, formerly of St. John was united in marriage to David Thomas of St. John. The ceremony was performed in the presence of immediate friends. Many handsome presents testified to the popularity of the happy couple. They will reside in Oldtown, Me.
