Wetmore, St. John; E. . Hart, Halifax; Provincial Medical Examiner, W. A. Christie, M. D., St. John; A. N. Charters, Moncton; W. M. Derguson, Truro; W. H. Studd, Halifax; J. D. Lawson, St. Stephen; E. A. Charters, Sussex; F. A. Masters, Kentville; E. J. Payson, Moncton; T. J. McClure, St. Stephen; G. E. Estabrooks, Sackville; H. R. Fawcett, Sackville; C. P. Harris, Moncton.

The supreme representative was Dr. Chas. E. Cornell, of Ithica, N. Y., who was accompanied by his wife. Both expressed themselves as highly delighted with their trip to the Maritime Provinces. On a former occasion Dr. Cornell was the representative of the Supreme Council at Charlottetown, P. E. I., in 1905.

The Grand Council was opened in due form by C. A. McLennan of Truro N. S., who has been Grand Regent for the year 1911-912.

The business of the council was then taken up in the usual order, and it having been learned that the former Supreme Council Organizer, Bro. J. A. McQueen was ill and unable to attend the council meeting, the Grand Regent and Secretary Allison were instructed to send him a telegram expressing the sympathy of the members on account of his illness, and their sincere wishes for his speedy return to health.

At the afternoon session reports of the various committees were handed in and discussed, among them being one recommending that the Supreme Council be memoralized to have an organizer appointed for the maritime provinces.

The election of officers for the year 1912-13 was then proceeded with, resulting as follows:

Supreme representative—C. A. McLennan, Truro.

Supreme alternate—A. N. Charters, Moncton.

Grand regent—C. A. McLennan, Truro.

Vice grand regent—A. N. Charters, Moncton.

Grand orator—Hiram Goudy, Yarmouth.

Grand secretary—J. F. Allison, Sackville.

Grand treasurer—C. W. Burnyeat, Moncton.

Grand chaplain—T. H. Francis, Halifax.

Grand guide—H. H. James, St. John.

Grand warden—C. H. Perry, Sussex.

Grand sentry—George D. Martin, St. John.

Sitting past grand regent—G. H. McAndrews, St. Stephen.

Grand trustees—G. G. Wetmore, St. John; E. F. Hart, Halifax; E. J. Payson, Moncton.

During the afternoon Dr. Cornell as supreme representative, addressed those present and made a most interesting address which was heartily welcomed by all present.

An evening session was held at which many points were discussed and routine business attended to.

On Thursday morning the council again convened when Dr. Cornell proceeded to instal the various officers-elect for 1912-13.

The committees appointed by the grand regent for the ensuing year were as follows:

Laws—H. H. Jones, W. M. Ferguson, J. D. McKay.

Finance—W. H. Studd, Frank Wetmore, E. A. Charters.

State of order—J. A. McQueen, G. H. McAndrews, E. F. Hartt.

Printing and supplies—C. A. McLennan, J. F. Allison, C. W. Burnyeat.

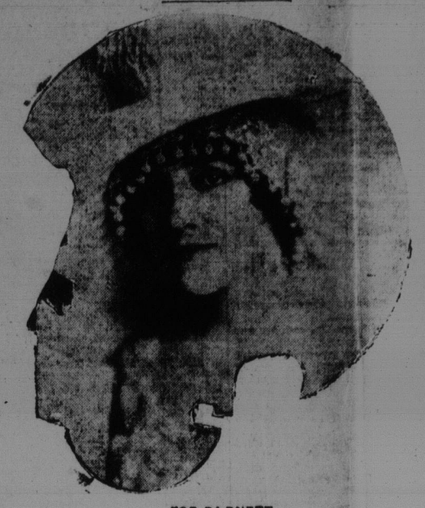
Votes of thanks were passed and tendered to Dr. Cornell for his kind and courteous address and work performed by him, and to the Moncton council for the invitation extended to the council to take a drive to the oil wells in Albert county during the afternoon, after which the council adjourned sine die.

The next place of meeting for the grand council in August, 1913, will be in Truro, N. S., at which point all able to attend may look for a very hearty reception and a pleasant time.

The drive to the oil and gas wells though not taken by as many as was looked for, proved a most enjoyable trip and Resident Manager W. M. Shaw did all in his power to explain matters to the visitors.

It is quite safe to say all the grand council visitors to Moncton during this session enjoyed themselves and the hospitality extended to them fully, and bore away with them pleasant memories of their visit to Moncton.

MISS ZOE BARNETT COMING IN GREAT MUSICAL COMEDY



ZOE BARNETT,

In "The Red Rose," the big musical success which comes to the Opera House for three days starting Thursday, August 15th.

Miss Zoe Barnett, the chic singing and dancing comedienne who heads the 65 girls who will visit St. John with The Red Rose and John C. Fisher production of mirth and music, which comes to the Opera House from Aug. 15 to 17 inclusive, is regarded as one of the daintiest of popular favorites in the realms of musical comedy today.

Miss Barnett has been prominently identified with the foremost musical comedy and comic successes of the past six years, but in the big summer show, the first and best St. John is to see this season, she has a part which suits her winsome personality. She becomes a prime favorite with her audiences wherever she has appeared and there is no doubt that St. John will add to the cities in which she has scored triumphs after the curtain rises on the first act.

The News in Short Meter

LOCAL.

Conferred Minor Orders.

Fathers Meahan, O'Keeffe and Conway. In the palace chapel on Friday evening he received tonsure. He is intended for the Regina diocese.

Vital Statistics.

Seven marriages, eleven births and eleven deaths were reported to the authorities last week. Of the deaths there were four of cardiac diseases, two each of peritonitis and consumption and one each of inanition, apoplexy and drowning.

PROVINCIAL.

The Company Gained.

Woodstock, Aug. 9.—The council is now considering the status of the town of Woodstock and the Imperial Packing Company. Some years ago the town gave the company some thousands of dollars as a loan on condition that the company keep their factory open, employ a certain number of men and conform with other conditions. It now transpires that the contract under which the company agreed to do these things was never signed and an insurance policy on the plant which was to have been made out in favor of the town was not so made. It is believed that all that can be done now is to place the company on the assessment list for this and succeeding years as it has enjoyed tax exemptions for a long time.

A Decided Success.

Fredericton, Aug. 10.—The Old Home Week celebration came to an end on Saturday night and it was probably the most successful affair of the kind ever held here. In spite of the rain, every attraction advertised was carried out Saturday and in fact this is the boast of the committee in charge that they lived up to all their promises.

GENERAL.

London, Aug. 10.—King George has appointed Lieutenant-Governor Sir Francis Langelier, of the province of Quebec; Sir Henry Pellat, of Toronto; Major Hodgetts Daniel and Robert Wilkie, banker, Knights of Grace of the Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem; and the Ladies Mount Stephen, Tilley, Drummond and Mrs. Samuel Nordheimer, Toronto, and Madame Beique, Montreal, Ladies of Grace of that benevolent society whose care is for the wounded and injured on the field of battle or elsewhere.

FUNERAL OF LATE DR. J. P. M'INERNEY

Citizens in all Walks of Life Paid Last Tribute of Respect to Well Known and Esteemed Man.

From his late residence, 190 Princess street, the funeral of Dr. James P. McInerney was held yesterday afternoon at half past two o'clock.

The funeral cortege was one of the lengthiest ever seen in this city, and bore testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

In the procession were representatives from every walk of life desirous to pay their tribute of respect to one who devoted himself to the alleviation of the ills of his fellows.

The members of the St. John Medical Council attended in a body, immediately preceding the hearse. The dental profession was also represented, so was the legal profession. The provincial legislature was represented by the members from St. John city and county. A large number of past and present students of St. Joseph's University, of which the late Dr. McInerney was an honored alumnus, also attended the funeral. Branch 134 C. M. B. A. attended in a body, while hundreds of citizens followed the remains.

The floral tributes from the different organizations and personal friends were numerous and magnificent, bearing silent testimony to the respect in which he was held.

The funeral proceeded to the Cathedral via Princess, Sydney and Waterloo streets.

At the Cathedral funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dr. A. W. Meahan, assisted by Rev. Dr. L. Guertin, C. S. C., who represented the faculty of St. Joseph's University.

Following the services the remains were conveyed to the New Catholic cemetery accompanied by a large number of mourners.

Mrs. Francis Abbott.

The funeral of Mrs. Francis Abbott took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence Brittain street to St. John Baptist church where service was conducted by Rev. W. Holland. Relatives of the deceased acted as pall bearers.

Jeremiah Sullivan.

From his late residence Queen street, West End, the funeral of Jeremiah Sullivan was held yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The funeral procession was one of the largest seen in Carleton for some time. The remains were taken to the Church of the Assumption where the burial service was read by Rev. Fr. Joseph. Interment was in Sand Cove cemetery.

WEDDINGS.

Fletcher-Barton.

Sussex, Aug. 10.—An interesting event occurred here on Wednesday last, when Marjorie Boyd Barton, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Barton, of Coles Island, was united in marriage to George Leonard Fletcher, of Forest Glen.

The bride looked charming in a dress of pink marquisette with lace and satin trimmings. She wore a bridal veil with lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations and maiden hair fern. The happy couple left next morning on an automobile tour of Kings, Albert and Westmorland counties. The bride's travelling costume was a light grey with a hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher will reside at Coles Island where the groom has charge of the S. H. White Co.'s mill.
