The herbrooke iron workers finished the erec- ion of the roof trusses, etc., early in the reek and returned home. Now the brick- ayers are topping off the walls, and a arge force of carpentens is constructing he heavily timbered roof frame. A steam fit is kept busy shifting materials to the izzy height, and while the street floor of he building indicates little or no activ- ty, the roof section is a beehive of indus- ry. The ceiling now being placed is over ixty feet from the orchestra floor, and the gridiron," or stage gear gallery, heavily eventy feet. The sum of $117 was taken in from fines, the expenses, not including the inspector's salary of $200, being about an equal amount. C. L. Peck, registrar of deeds, present- ed a report showing a surplus of $248.35, from June 1900 to 31st Dec. 1912. Out of this surplus the registrar asked to re- tain $70, cost of stationery supplies dur- ing that period, and $60 for a typewriter. This was allowed, the balance $118.35 to be paid to the county secretary. A resolution, moved by Coun. Thomp- son, and seconded by Coun. Stevens, was adopted, urging on the provincial govern- ment the needs of this province in regard	a certain, great, natural FORCE to your body, and by which you may, with- out effort, trouble or inconvenience, treat your own self in the privacy of your home for debility and lost vitality, without using a single drug or medi- cine? This great FORCE, as a restorer of vitality and as a means to over- come those weaknesses which result from indiscretion and unnatural prac- tices, is today being used all over the civilized world, and I give it as my homest opinion, based upon a vast observation and study, that any man any- where, who leads a decent, manly life and who applies this marvellous FORCE in a scientific and rational way, can without employing a single drug, be restored again to a state of perfect, rugged health and vigor, without a remaining ache, pain or weaknesse handicap a man in every condi- tion of life, while on the other hand, a perfect specimen of vigorous, lusty manhood is ever admired by both women and men alike, while, of course, it is certainly only such a man who can attain the really great successes of life. Therefore, I say to you, no matter what your size, whether you are small or large, no matter what your occupation, no matter whether you are singled and the sever admired by a farm or in the factory, no matter whether you

This reliable house, one of the oldest and most progressive in the dry goods business in Canada, has found its present es, large quarters at the corner of King and Canterbury streets altogether too small er, and for some time has been looking about for a more desirable location. A site in will on street was at first shought of, but later the Prince William and Water street afte was picked out as in every way more desirable because of its closer proximity to the general wholesale centre, because of its nearenes to the water front and be- cause railroad and steamboat connection is close at hand, while the haul to ship- ping centres is a level one and the custom house and post office are near. The city, which was the owner of the land, was asked to sell, and a valuation of $5,000 was put on the lots and their sale at public auction ordered. The result was their purchase this morning by Vassie & Co., through W. E. Foster, general manager, at the upset price of $5,000 for each lot. F. L. Potts was the auctioneer, and the firs thid of $12,000. A few more bids raised the amount to the required $15,000, at which Vassie & Co. became the owners. "If the east got as much advertising as the vest," said he, "it would be a much greater country than it is today. I see great possibilities in the east, especially in the sheep raising and farming line. All along the line of the O. P. R. as far as McAdam the land is admirably suited for sheep raising and I think it could be made a very profitable industry in this section. Canada today is not able to raise enough sheep to supply the demand and consequently most of the mutton has to be imported into this coun- try, and I think the time is ripe for some one to start the business on a large scale in New Brunswick."
