

By Telegraph.

Canadian,
British and Foreign.

[To the Associated Press.]

LONDON, Nov. 21.

Cousins 93 1-8 & 93 1-4. Broadcasts quiet.

By explosion in Warrens Cove mine, yesterday, 21 miners were killed, 9 injured.

Louis Blanck, in a manifesto to-day, denies the right of present Assembly to form a constitution, not being chosen for that purpose.

He asserted that a chamber would be formed to oppose the weapons against the Republic.

The last letter of the Journal d'Algérie, asserted that Von Armin expressed a wish to enter into confidential relations with him and furnish important communications on the revolution papers for publication in that journal.

At Buenos Ayres the rebel gunboat

Parana voluntarily surrendered to the Governor.

The editors of La Presse, La Brander and

La Espagnole were arrested, and sent to prison for violation of press laws.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.

Gold 111 1-8 & 111 1-4 exchange unchanged.

By another explosion at Jersey City, to-day, one person was killed and several wounded.

(Special Telegram to Tribune) NOV. 21.

North Shore Navigation.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Nov. 23.

The steamer City of St. John left here last night for St. John, to lay up for the winter.

The Island steamer leaves at noon.

The weather is fine.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.

THE TOPEX THE AFRICAN TRAVELER.

The Pope has written a letter to Cardinal Cullen thanking him and the Irish Bishops for their condemnation of Prof. Tyndall's address at Belfast.

FRANCISH MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

In the municipal elections in France, yesterday, the Republican candidates were generally successful.

STAINES'S CIVIL WAR.

Steameers with Republican troops have arrived at Santander, Spain.

The Spanish gunboat Protegida, with 200 men, is missing, and it is feared that she is lost.

ENDEUR HISTORIAN.

It is rumored that the port of Morocco is to be ceded to Germany.

GERMAN TRAITANT.

In the German Reichstag, a motion was made for the release of the Democratic party now in prison, and was rejected.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.

AN EASTWICK

at Vera Cruz shook down several houses and caused a great consternation, but nobody was killed.

THE SPANISH ASSAULT.

Archbishop Bayley of Baltimore, has written a letter concerning the Manning-

Gladstone controversy. He said Gladstone's declaration is "a shameful calumny."

GO WEST, YOUNG MAN, AND STAY.

In Kansas 15,000 to 25,000 people are without food, fuel or clothing, and must be sustained by charitable contributions until another crop is grown.

THE MONTREAL CATHOLIC PRESS have been defeated in their attempt to prevent the burial of a printer because he belonged to the Canadian Institute, which the Catholic church did not believe in. The authorities in England have approved the claim of the deceased printer, friends.

Special to Daily News.

OTTAWA, Nov. 21.

In the Khedive's development, St. John

A. Macdonald's name was to be de-cussed, but he is now discredited.

The respondent pays all costs.

At a Radical caucus meeting held in Montreal to-day the French actionist Mr. Léonard agreed to vote for the League of Nations, and promised to vote for a general amnesty to Montreal rebels. He agreed to do so.

The Minister of Justice has been absent from his department for several days, to the detriment of the public service.

The Canadian Council of the Bar is to transact some very important State business, but is compelled to wait until the Minister of Justice returns to Montreal.

A cable dispatch from London, this morning, announces that the Gulf case,

the appeal was allowed, and the costs

except reparation of Judge

Calvert is established as consequential costs.

The master was subsequently

placed in the custody of the English

authorities, who will try him.

There is great excitement in Montreal and Quebec, and the Canadian newspapers are agitated over the case.

A cable dispatch from London, this morning, announces that the Gulf case,

the appeal was allowed, and the costs

except reparation of Judge

Calvert is established as consequential costs.

The master was subsequently

placed in the custody of the English

authorities, who will try him.

There is great excitement in Montreal

and Quebec, and the Canadian

newspapers are agitated over the case.

On Saturday, the 14th inst., a Hale baby aged two years, son of Mr. McNeil

Hale, of Chambly, Mount Royal, was killed by drowning in a bath of hot water.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of

hot water, and

had been swimming for

some time.

He was swimming in a tub of