

Presb. Ch., London. He m. Sept., 1869, Elizabeth, dau. of the late Capt. D. Miller, Royal Can. Rifles. This lady successfully conducts a monthly paper, Wives and Daughters, which enjoys a large circulation both in Can. and the U. S.—London, Ont.

"A man of tact, shrewdness and resource."—Railway.

CAMERON, Hon. John Donald, barrister and legislator, is the s. of John Cameron, of Woodstock, Ont., and is of Scottish Highland descent. B. in East Nissouri, Co. Oxford, Ont., Sept. 18, 1838, he was ed. at the Woodstock Coll. Inst., the Woodstock Coll., and at the Univ. of Toronto, (B. A., gold medal in Classics and Math., and Prince of Wales prizeman, 1879). Called to the Ont. bar, 1882, he proceeded to Man., where he was also called to the bar the same year. He has since been in active practice at Winnipeg, and is a Bench. of the Law Soc. A Lib. in politics, he was elected, in that interest, to represent South Winnipeg in the Man. Assembly, Jan., 1892, and has since been re-elected to that position on 3 occasions. He became Provl. Secy. and Municipal Comnr. in Mr. Greenway's Admn., Jan., 1892, and in Mch., 1896, was selected as one of the Comnrs. for Man., to meet in conf. the delegates sent from Ottawa, on the Man. Sch. question. In Oct., 1896, he was sent to Ottawa as a del. from his Govt. on the same question. He was apptd. Atty.-Genl. of Man., vice Sifton, apptd. Min. of the Interior at Ottawa, Nov. 17, 1896. Mr. C. is a mem. of the Presb. Ch. Unm.—Winnipeg: Manitoba Club, Man.

CAMERON, John Robson, journalist, is the 2nd s. of the late Alex. Cameron, merchant, of Perth and Bytown. B. in Perth, Ont., Apl. 19, 1845, he was ed. at Brockville and Quebec, and drifted early into journalism. He has been connected in Can. with the Sarnia Canadian, the Stratford Herald, the Guelph Herald, and the Winnipeg Free Press. He was one of the promoters of the Commonwealth (weekly newspaper), Toronto, 1890. It was too advanced in its views, and died after a brief struggle. Mr. C. has also been employed in several leading Am. newspapers. For 15 yrs. he has been connected with the Hamilton Spectator—first as city ed., then as mang. ed., and he became ed.-in-chief, on the retirement of A. T. Freed, Apl., 1894. He is a Lib.-Con. always. Believes that it is for the good of the party to point out, in party journals, where the managers of the party go wrong; is inclined to be independent of party influences and restive when he thinks the policy of the Lib.-Cons. wrong. He believes thoroughly in a protective tariff for Can. Is a great stickler for purity in elections, and advocates the registration system. He served for many yrs. in the V. M. He was at the Front, 1866, and took part in the affair at Ridgeway. Later, 1870, he accompanied Viscount Wolseley in the first Red River expedition, and served the year out in Fort Garry. Remaining in Man. for a time, he was elected to the Winnipeg City Council, and in 1872, went to the Front to repel the anticipated attack on the part of O'Donoghue and his Fenian allies. As a journalist Mr. C. has influenced a great change, both in the wonderfully improved appearance of the Can. newspapers, and in brightening up the formerly unusually heavy and ponderous editorial columns under his control. The Hamilton Spectator is quoted more often than probably any other paper in Can. A Presb. in religion, he m. 1st, May, 1866, Miss Sarah McCallum (she d. 1870); 2ndly, June, 1873, Miss Rebekah Macivor.—Hamilton, Ont.

"Perhaps the best paragrapher on the Can. press."—Globe.

"A man whose body is as big as his name, and whose heart is bigger than both."—Can. Am.
