

14. In any complaint, information or conviction under this Act, the matter complained of may be declared, and shall be held, to have arisen, within the meaning of Part LVIII of The Criminal Code, 1892, at the place where the apples or pears were packed, sold, offered, exposed or had in possession for sale. Procedure.
1892, c. 29.

15. No appeal shall lie from any conviction under this Act except to a superior, county, circuit or district court, or the court of the sessions of the peace having jurisdiction where the conviction was had; and such appeal shall be brought, notice of appeal in writing given, recognizance entered into, or deposit made within ten days after the date of conviction; and such trial shall be heard, tried, adjudicated upon and decided, without the intervention of a jury, at such time and place as the court or judge hearing the trial appoints, within thirty days from the date of conviction, unless the said court or judge extends the time for hearing and decision beyond such thirty days; and in all other respects not provided for in this Act, the procedure under Part LVIII of The Criminal Code, 1892, shall, so far as applicable, apply. Appeal.
1892, c. 29.

16. Any pecuniary penalty imposed under this Act shall, when recovered, be payable one half to the informant or complainant, and the other half to Her Majesty. Application of penalties.

17. The Governor in Council may make such regulations as he considers necessary in order to secure the efficient operation of this Act; and the regulations so made shall be in force from the date of their publication in The Canada Gazette, or from such other date as is specified in the proclamation in that behalf. Regulations by Governor in Council.
