time. I have now read Mr. haps he is right. I suggest he Davis' reply to a letter of is not. Mr. Edwards (which unfortunately I didn't see) and am left. with the impression that several Council members still don't know what student government is all about.

(From page 4)

The first part of Mr. Davis' letter appears to be a rebutal to Mr. Edwards, but in the Nelson Adams, self-appointed. overall debate, is purely irrelevant. Of course most campus activities would exist even if the council did not, for there are always a few interested students (like Mr. Davis' father) to see that they carry acy, and idlersk (whatever that on. The point is of course, that the budget is in no way the major part of the Council's job. By most members it is looked on as a chore that must What page is your picture on, be done, rather than a reason Mr. Adams? for existance.

Mr. Davis informs us that most council members learn nothing outside the meetings, Of course I cannot speak for the period, several years ago, when Mr. Davis was on the Council, for I was not. I can only tell him that in the immediate past this simply has not been the case. Most council members put in a great deal of time on committees, both standing and special, doing studies and surveys of interest to them, or in administrating council sponsored programs. Inevitably there are one or two members who do not bear their of one or two individual rep- qu'il n'a jamais été question resentatives does not mean the de grève sur notre Campus à for existance. The SRC exists primarily to of UNB students and it endeavors to see that in all situ- dise M. Hunter. ations where students are likely to be concerned, their interests are considered. Former government employee Davis, it appears, is really an anarchist (at the student level anyway) who suggests that all these pas. es partly functions could and would be should not be involved in anyto know why the SRC should thing more outward looking exist but resolved not to com- than yearbooks or bulletin ment on the debate at that board Brunswickans, then per- constantly attacked by Mr.

> Yours Faithfully, R. Kenneth Carty Jesus College Oxford, England

ANOTHER FORBES

Editor: In last week's Brunswickan, campus cynic, referred to Up The Hill '66 as a "tasteless souvenir". He would have us believe it is full of buffoonery, asininity, distortion of UNB's image, pretentiousness, illitermeans).

I too have looked through the new yearbook but I could not seem to find any of the above.

Donald Forbes Law 1.

You seem to have made it! - Ed. NOUS GOOFED

Editor:

Pour répondre à l'article parut dans le Brunswickan du 3 novembre 1966, je tiens à vous informer que tous les étudiants (es) du Collège de Bathurst considèrent leur situation comme étant normale, donc excellente.

Il est vrai que le Conseil share of the load but the failure mais je regrette de vous dire fame. ant a fait une proposition dans le sens de l'uniformisation du reflect the views and opinions règlement mais non dans le sens d'une grève, quoiqu'en

Il est aussi faux que la question ait été règlé grâce aux discussions survenues à la Conférence de l'A.E.A à Charlottetown. Il ne faut pas s'attribuer ce qui ne nous revient achieving these goals rather aviser les étudiants de l'Université du Nouveau-Brunswick du fait que M. Hunter n'est jamais entré en communication avec le Président des étudiants du Collège de Bathurst depuis que la question du règlement speak with one voice - a voice uniforme a été résolue. Ses sources de nouvelles sont donc fausses. Si M. Lawson Hunter a eu des entretiens avec M. Michel Thériault ou avec un autre membre de l'A.G.E.C.B., qu'il ne cite pas ces déclaraments, to university faculty tions comme venant de la présidence. M. Thériault est le other student groups and the vice-président aux affaires ingeneral public. But more im- térieures et non le président was intended to inform the students more about the Treasure Van which has been Davis.

The Secretariat in Toronto are not overpaid as suggested, by Mr. Davis. They are in fact underpaid and overworked. They live on a limited budget set by the National Committee so that most of the funds raised by WUSC can be used for the International Program of Action. The International Program of Action includes helping needy students, buying drugs and building hospital facilities and any charitable activities you can think of. The critics of WUSC are always eager to point out its failure and never look at its success.

The purpose of Secretariat travel is to keep the local WUSC committees informed of goings-on in other universities. One way of maintaining better communications is conducting interviews with thexe secretariats while they are travelling. They don't just fly in case of crises as suggested by Mr. Davis.

It should be remembered that WUSC is the only organization on this campus with activities outside Canada. To any student who is just UNB oriented, the existence of such an organization may not be justified. Among the many advantages the UNB student should have is a feeling that the fame of Etudiant a fait des démarches UNB gets outside this campus. pour obtenir un règlement uni- WUSC National and Internationforme au Collège de Bathurst al activities contribute to tais

Right now WUSC is recruiting students to go to the Intercouncil itself has no reason ce propos. Le Conseil Etudi- national Seminar to be held in Canada, June 26-1st August. The expenses will be showed by other WUSC committees across Canada. The students on returning to UNB will give a series of talks to students. Since even the critics of WUSC agree with its basic aims, the best the students can do is to improve means of as. En dernier lieu, j'aimerais than saying "Let's pull out of WUSC". WUSC committees are

One of the features of our affluent society is that every ambitious family on the way up feels the need to build themselves a house. The result is usually the sort that is summed up in a song called, "Little Boxes on the Hillside ...." Having visited some of these warrens, I long ago made a solemn oath that I would never live in a subdevelopment (e.g. Diaper Drive in Mortgagemount) and that I would never build or live in one of these 'modern' homes (the open type where the only interior door is on the comfort station, and that is so flimsy that one always turns on both taps before daring to use it.)

Not for me. Give me a fifty-year old (at least) house to fix up...high ceilings, chandiliers, room dividers made out of oak with hinges on them, fireplaces, wide stairways, big closets, a pantry in the kitchen, a big old attic on the third floor, and a cellar that cannot be converted into that horrible dungeon .... the rumpus room.

Not that older houses are free from problems for their dwellers. They're full of things like that aid to marital fidelity, the creaky step in the stairs . . . and a rough spot in the floor where the old wood furnace used to have its grill . . . and the occasional mouse who enters through a crevice known only to the original builder. But, if you're lucky, there will be marvellous forgotten things such as window boxes and dumb waiters.

The owner of an older house will be able to point with pride to the flaws in his home ... they add to its character and its ancient mystique ... and his children will spend the childhood hours of wonder imagining the other children who were born here and played here ... especially after they find an old Mc-Guffey's Reader in a dusty attic corner. Pity the man in the ranch house ... at the discovery of every defect, he can only curse at the contractor who built it ... his children wonder only at why their mother won't let them play on the hardwood floor in the living room...and any raised voice is heard not only throughout the house, but throughout the neighbourhood. Every housequest will discover that their host snores, that the tap in the kitchen drips, that the front window vibrates every time a car passes, and that he has to lay uncomfortably in his bed, being too embarrassed to disturb everyone by going to the bathroom again.

Not only are some people foolish to build the type of house they do, but they are positively demented to build it where they do. Give me an old farmhouse with a lawn and trees out front where I can talk in private, and a backyard where I can park the cars of all my friends and relatives. Give him a $50,000 prize-winning design out of Better Homes and Gardens, and he will build it twenty-five feet from a main highway where transports whizz by all night, and where his neighbours have built twenty feet on either side of him, and where he has room behind his house only for two plastic lawn chairs and a sprinkler for grass which won't grow anyway. Small wonder there are so many divorces . . . the idea can spread so easily.

Yup, give me an older house . . . it's already broken in as a home. It may cost me more in the long run, and I'll have to work a lot harder keeping it up . . . but I'll be happier.

sure Van 10¢ levy ost cam-1 WUSC

been a

h was a

anadian

Students

commit-

orienta-

eas stu-

vel and

ES) was

rted by

eas and

tour and

unfami-

t for the

At the

ALISTIC

iny and WUS in eded and nes from the aims receive y buy at way stuore value

berts Biology PLIES

actually

s brought Mr. Gary d to the nd itself. nt no surory is coridentical en it was lyde Mcairman. I d to read hat a few in't seem nn 1)

carried out by interested students (like dad). He should know better! When any group wants to put forward its views it must do so in an organized manner and it must be able to of authority, but authority backed by responsibility. The SRC provides that voice for UNB students. Through it they can and do speak to federal, provincial and municipal governand administration as well as portant when they do communi- de l'A.G.E.C.B.

resented I suggest he see his representative, or take action

at the next election. If Mr.

Davis thinks that individual student's opinions would have any chance of acceptance, by community, as being representative of overall student opinion, I suggest he think

Mr. Davis thinks that students cate with these groups they are Que cette mise au point listened to and respected be- serve à rehausser la valeur de cause it is known they rep- notre journalisme informateur resent legitimate opinions of et qu'elle con irme le fait que UNB students on matters of "the conditions are still pretty interest to them. If Mr. Davis good" au Collège de Bathurst. thinks opinions on the campus N.B. A paraître le plus tôt are not being honestly rep- possible. JEAN-GUY FINN, prés de l'A.G.E.C.B., Collège de Bathurst, Bathurst, N.-B.

FOR FAME OR MONEY any responsible segment of the Editor:

In answer to Mr. Gary Davis letter, I would like to point out that there was no student again. If, on the other hand, money spent in what he called "slandersheet". The sheet quite willing to hear any suggestions for the improvement of the WUSC organization. After all, the head office where most of the criticism seems to be directed is governed by the representatives of the local committee.

David Kamweti WUSC Chairman

Get A Head

- in fact Two Heads are better than one Buy one, get one free

> Contact --PETER McDERBY Room 205 Aitken House

Creative Arts Concerts Chamber Music Recital

(C.B.C. Chamber Music Series)

Netherlands Chamber Choir

Mount Allison Faculty Trio

Rodney Macleod, Viola

Howard Brown, Piano

Classical Guitarist

Duo Pach Final Recital

Stanley Saunders, Clarinet

Duo Pach Recital

11 December Duo Pach, assisted by Alban Galant, Clarinetist

25 January 29 January 5 March

23 March

2 April

These concerts are sponsored by the Creative Arts Committee and are free to UNB - STU students.

Alirio Diaz

Committee To Study Residence System

ledge.

The University is establish- leased from his position. A studentriot in the Men's dining ing a committee to study the hall took place after the dis-Men's Residence System, an informed source said last week. The committee will have no students as members.

chaired by Dean Ryan of the The source said that the Law School. Other people on committee was set up by UNB the committee will be Profes-President Colin B. Mackay as sor Barry Thompson, Stan a result of discussions last Cassidy (representing the Aterm. The discussions were lumni), University Vice-presisaid to have resulted from University concern for the system after Neil McGill, then Don of Neill House, was re-

Playhouse

Playhouse

Memorial Hall

dent MacAulay, and other University and Alumni officials. Further details on membership were not available at press time. Memorial Hall

The committee will reportedly be accepting briefs from any interested parties. The purpose of the committee will be to recommend changes or improvements in the residence Memorial Hall Memorial Hall system.

missal became public know-

The study committee will be

Students at the University have registered dissatisfaction with some of the rules at the University residences. These complaints range from subjects like women in residences to the quality of food in the dining hall.