St. Stephen's Church Scene Of Delworth-Logan Wedding

LORNE PARK — Walking down the aisle on the arm of her father, Ruth Christine Delworth was radiant as she became the bride of J. Michael Logan in St. Stephen's Church-on-the-Hill at 4 p.m. Saturday, July 2.

The bride's gown, which was floor length, had an overlay of chantilly lace and was highlighted with a flowing chapel train with chantilly lace insert. She wore a shoulder length veil and carried a cascade of white carnations, stephanotis and trailing ivy.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Delworth of Indian Grove, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Logan of Mineola Gardens, Port Credit. Rev.

Paul Morrow of St. Stephen's officiated.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Crystal West as matron of honor, Miss Irma Enseleit and Miss Wendy Thompson, bridesmaids, wearing identical Grecian style full length gowns in white shantung, with narrow yellow bands to accentuate the high waist line and tiny bows at the back with long streamers. They wore yellow pill box head pieces and carried a cascade of yellow and white daisies. Wearing similar short dresses the little flower girls, Elizabeth and Alison Anderson, cousins of the bride, wore flowers in their hair and carried little baskets of daisies. Mr. John Wallace was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Hawthorne Valley Golf Club, and among the 100 guests was the bride's grandfather, 97-year-old J. Delworth of Mississauga rd. The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding an apricot sheath dress with chiffon floral coat and the groom's mother wore beige linen with matching organza coat.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Logan left for Western points, the bride in yellow linen with toast accessories. They will reside in Winnipeg.
