Mr. A. T. Stuart,
8 Strachan Ave.,
Toronto, Ont.

Dear Mr. Stuart:

I have your letter of 20th.

On Mr. Evans becoming fatally ill early last year, it became necessary for me to assume the chief responsibility of this organization, and I can assure you it takes all my time and energy. It would not be possible for me now to take on other interests, and I, therefore feel nothing could result from our talking over the subject matter of your letter.

I shall always continue to wish you the greatest of success.

Very sincerely yours,

AM/E.
