

The Accused, No. A-107768, Trooper Bernard Vincent LAMERONT, No.1 C.A.C.T.S.R., C.A., being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer :-

Q- Tpr. Lameront, do you remember the 21st of September, 1944 The day you signed the special duty warning?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- Can you describe exactly what happened on that day, and where you were when you signed it?

A- I forget when he read that notice to us, sir, but I remember signing it. I forget how he put it when he read it.

Q- Did it take place in the barrack room or somewhere else?

A- I forget signing the first one, but I remember signing the second one.

Q- What do you mean when you say you forget signing the first one?

A- I just remember signing that small sheet there. That was signed outside the hut.

Q- Is this (indicating) the sheet you mean, this one?

BY PRESIDENT :- Refer to the one that is in evidence as an exhibit -- nothing else.

BY DEFENDING OFFICER :- (resuming)

Q- Exhibit "J"?

A- That is the one.

Q- That is the one you remember signing?

A- Yes, sir.

Q- Were you clear at that time as to the meaning of the Exhibit "J"?

A- Well, I figured, well, I didn't know when we would be
