

Works by E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM—continued

The Yellow Crayon. 6s.

THE DAILY EXPRESS says :—"Mr. Oppenheim has a vivid imagination and much sympathy, fine powers of narrative, and can suggest a life history in a sentence. As a painter of the rough life of mining camps, of any strong and striking scenes where animal passions enter, he is as good as Henry Kingsley, with whom, indeed, in many respects, he has strong points of resemblance."

A Prince of Sinners. 6s.

VANITY FAIR says :—"A vivid and powerful story. Mr. Oppenheim knows the world and he can tell a tale, and the unusual nature of the setting in which his leading characters live and work out their love story gives this book distinction among the novels of the season."

THE WORLD says :—"Excellent. A book to read, enjoy, and think over."

The Traitors. 6s.

THE ATHENÆUM says :—"Its interest begins on the first page and ends on the last. The plot is ingenious and well-managed, the movement of the story is admirably swift and smooth, and the characters are exceedingly vivacious. The reader's excitement is kept on the stretch to the very end."

A Millionaire of Yesterday. 6s.

THE DAILY TELEGRAPH says :—"The story is admirably constructed and developed simply and forcibly. It abounds in dramatic situations, and there is more than one note of pathos which at once captures our sympathies. We cannot but welcome with enthusiasm a really well-told story like 'A Millionaire of Yesterday.' At the same time there is no lack of character-study in this very satisfactory book."
