

	PAGE
Richard Brinsley Sheridan	496
The Arraignment of Warren Hastings	496
William Wilberforce	500
Abolition of the Slave Trade	501
William Pitt	502
The Peril from France	503
Robert Emmet	505
A Patriot's Plea	506

BOOK V.

ORATORS OF THE VICTORIAN REIGN

George Canning	510
In Repose Yet in Readiness	511
Sydney Smith	513
The Opponents of Reform	514
Taxes the Price of Glory	516
Daniel O'Connell	517
The Charms of Kildare	518
Lord Henry Brougham	521
The Industrial Peril of War in America	522
Viscount Palmerston	524
Civil War in Ireland	525
Sir Robert Peel	526
The Importance of Classical Education	527
Lord John Russell	529
The "Rotten Boroughs" of England	530
Importance of Literary Studies	531
Richard L. Sheil	533
Irish Aliens and English Victories	534
The Horrors of Civil War	535
Thomas Babington Macaulay	536
Superficial Knowledge	537
Richard Cobden	540
The Gentry and the Protective System	541
Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield	543
The Dangers of Democracy	544
William Ewart Gladstone	547
Warfare and Colonization	548
Home Rule for Ireland	551
John Bright	553
The Crushing Weight of Militarism	553
Charles S. Parnell	557
Evictions and Emigration	558
Joseph Chamberlain	560
The Anomalies of the Suffrage	561