

Preface

For the contents of our number 25 we are indebted chiefly to Mrs. E. J. Thompson and to Mrs. Bottomley, the former for gathering so carefully as she has done all the little personal items which are lacking in the accounts given and who worked so faithfully and successfully to obtain the monument—to Mrs. Bottomley for allowing the diary of her husband kept so carefully for many years, to be printed, which gives us a vivid picture of the life of the prisoners in Fort Garry. Since our last publication we have reprinted number 12, "The Taking of Fort George" and 15 "Sir Isaac Brock and Count de Puisaye" as many demands were made for these numbers. We have called our Catalogue, printed for us by the kindness of I. Ross Robertson, number 24, as many have bound it with the other publications.
