

can the mind of man comprehend God. But we may approach Him. The signs of God in the visible world; the work speaks of the workman. The signs of God in the human heart. We are of the race of God. The religious tradition of humanity. The God of the Gospel. God is the Father. God is Love.

WHO ARE WE?

IV. CHARACTERS AND CONDITIONS OF HUMAN LIFE 23

What sort of a creature is man? He belongs to the animal, vegetable, and mineral kingdoms. Parent of everything. Is man an animal, like the others? Resemblance and difference. Human and animal intelligence. A comparison—horsemanship and unskilled riding. The moral conscience. The religious sentiment. We come from an inferior estate and are on the way to a higher life. The great struggle. Its anguish and its torments make the beauty of our life. Plato's chariot.
