

CONTENTS.

xiii

CHAPTER XIII.

DISCOVERY OF GOLD.

	PAGE
Gold Discovery in both New South Wales and Victoria in 1851.—February 6th, Black Thursday.—Strzelecki's Report on the Vale of Clwydd.—Rush of People to the Gold Mines.—Government Efforts to Regulate the Miners.—Accommodation for the Emigrants.—Difficulties of " Travelling " to the Mining Districts.—Finding of the " Canada Gully " Nugget.—Scenes at the Mining Camps.—Hunan Streams to Ballarat, Bendigo and Forest Creek.....	143

CHAPTER XIV.

EUREKA STOCKADE.

Riots and General Difficulty with the Miners.—Delegates From Mining Centres Air their Grievances before the Governor.—Sir Charles Hotham Succeeds Mr. Latrobe as Governor.—Miners Hail him with Delight.—Killing of a Miner Causes Disturbances.—Soldiers and Policemen in Readiness to Prevent Trouble.—A Reform League at Ballarat.—A Commission Appointed to Report on Gold Fields.—Mischievous Agents Stirring up Strife among Miners.—Great Disaffection among the Miners.—Commissioner Johnstone Pelted with Stones.—Thousands of Armed Miners in Readiness.—Captain Thomas Attacks the Rioters and Disperses them.—On General Mickle's Arrival, Martial Law was Proclaimed for a Few Days.—Electoral Privileges Granted to the Miners.—Trial of the Eureka Prisoners..	149
---	-----

CHAPTER XV.

RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT.

The Governor Carries Out Promised Reforms of the Finances.—At Work Drafting the New Constitution.—The Victorian Bill Receives the Royal Assent 23rd November, 1855.—Governor Hotham Dies, and is Succeeded by Sir Henry Barkly.—Philosophical Institution of Victoria and its Works.—An Expedition Sent out under Robert
--	--