BELLES LETTRES.

64. BIBAUD. Epitres, Satires, Chansons, Epigrammes, etc., de Vers, Montreal, 1830.
The author if not first, is not second to any among the poets of Canada. His pieces are of the years 1817-1827. His connections public and private in the Province were of the best and best informed. He was, it seems, a Journalist, of just and liberal views. Men and things of the time are critically and amusingly treated, in his verses or his notes.
The book is noticeable for its typography.
65. VENTOUILLAC. The French Librarian, for pointing out the best works with criticisms and anecdotes, 1829.
66. THIBAUD DE MARLY, Vers sur la Mort,
