

REGULATIONS FOR THE CONDUCT OF EXAMINATIONS.

1. Candidates are required to be in the Examination Hall at 8.45 a.m. on the first day. The examinations will commence promptly at 9 a.m. each day and will proceed in accordance with the time table, a copy of which will be furnished on application to the Registrar or the Supervisor.

2. One or more supervisors will be in attendance at each point where candidates are to be examined, and will remain in the room during the entire session.

3. No books or papers of any kind may be brought into the room by candidates, and for writing purposes only the paper supplied by the supervisor may be used.

4. Candidates will not be permitted to write unless or until the prescribed fees have been paid (including fees to cover extra expenses, if any) and the receipt therefor shall be produced for the inspection of the supervisor, if demanded.

5. Each candidate will, before the commencement of the examination, be given an envelope containing his nom de plume, which he must examine and replace in envelope, sealing same. He is to write his name and address on the outside of this envelope and hand it to the supervisor. This nom de plume must be written by the candidate on the top right hand corner of each sheet containing his answers.

6. The supervisor will open the sealed packets containing the question papers in the presence of the candidates at the hours specified.

7. No explanation or opinion concerning any question will be given to the candidates, and no talking will be allowed in the room.

8. Candidates leaving the room during the time allowed upon any paper will not be permitted to resume, but must give up their papers before leaving.

9. The identity of candidates will not be disclosed until the marks awarded have been reported to the Council, whereupon the envelopes containing the noms de plume will be opened.

10. Candidates will be notified of the results as soon as ascertained, and a list of the successful candidates will be published in the Toronto newspapers.

11. Any appeal from the finding of the Examiners must be made within ten days after the results are made known, accompanied by a fee of five dollars, whereupon the papers of the candidate appealing will be reviewed by the examining board. If the appeal is sustained the fee will be returned. After the time for appeal has expired the papers may be destroyed.
