Local Briefs

Miss Flossie Schwemler is expected home to-day from visiting Blenheim friends.

Henry Westmore split his foot with an axe while working on the dredge on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Casper Schwemler will leave this week on a visit to friends at Commerce, Mich.

Mrs. Carlyle, Edgar street, left this morning for Woodstock, on a visit to her brother in that city.

Mrs. Mark Daniels and daughter, Miss Marie Francis Daniels, have returned from visiting in Alvinston.

Mrs. T. W. Wanless and daughters Ida and May, Lacroix street, is visiting friends in Toronto and vicinity.

Oliver Brown pleaded guilty to selling liquor during prohibited hours at Mitchell's Bay, and was fined $50 and costs, $57 in all.

Wm. Harden was assessed $1 and costs, $6.50 in all, for using insulting language to his sister, Sarah Enos. The parties live in Buxton.

Geo. Wardell, who fell from a car at the Kent Mills yesterday morning and fractured a couple of ribs and received several bruises, is improving.

The vital statistics for the past month were: marriages 30, deaths 13, and births 15. That 13 deaths is suggestive of the luckiness of the number.

Frank Blonde has sold his house at the corner of Wilson avenue and St. Clair street, and is going to erect a residence on the lot adjoining. The work of excavating for the basement was begun this morning.

Miss Jessie Houston, daughter of Judge Houston, of this city, has been engaged as teacher of the Port Perry school. Port Perry is situated 30 miles from Lindsay below Toronto.

Her many friends in the city will be pleased to hear of her success.

The committee who have the management of the Port Huron excursion in charge, requests the merchants to decorate their stores for Thursday.

The committee is trying to do all in its power to make the Maple City look attractive and inviting, and will decorate the parks.

Howard Waddell left this morning for Bowmanville to spend a few days with relatives. On Thursday, he returns to Toronto and leaves there for McLeod, Alberta, to pay a visit to his uncle, R. N. Wilson, Indian agent on Pigeon Reserve. His father, J. Waddell, will join him in Toronto and go with him as far as Winnipeg.

PREMIER DENIES BRIBERY.

But Will Tender Resignation to the Emperor.

Budapest, Aug. 4.—Premier Heder-vary testified forty-nine minutes last night before the Bribery Committee, and absolutely denied all knowledge of the charges. His testimony was loudly applauded by the Liberals.

Count Szapary's brother appeared before the committee, and begged that the Count might be excused on the ground that his physical and mental condition was such that further examination might endanger his life.

Premier Heder-vary started for Ischi last night to see Emperor Francis Joseph, and report upon the situation. It is rumored he will tender his resignation.

Weak eyes are no excuse for never looking on the bright side.

CARDINAL SARTO ELECTED POPE

Decision of Conclave Fell Upon the Patriarch of Venice who is 68 Years Old.

New Pope Will Be Known as Pius X.—Decision Received With Much Acclamation.

Rome, August 4.—Cardinal Sarto, patriarch of Venice, has been elected pope on the seventh ballot.

Cardinal Macchi, secretary of apostolic briefs, announced to the crowd assembled before St. Peter's that Cardinal Sarto had been elected pope, and that he had taken the name Pius X. The troops on duty immediately lined up on the piazza and presented arms.

At 10 minutes after 12 this afternoon Pope Pius X. appeared inside the balcony of the basilica and blessed the populace amid the acclamations of the enormous crowd upon the piazza.

Pope Pius X. has expressed his desire not to dissolve the conclave until this evening. It is supposed that the cardinals will, therefore, remain in their present quarters until about 7 p. m.

Announcement of Cardinal Sarto's election was received with wild enthusiasm on the part of thousands of persons who had gathered outside of St. Peter's. The scene within the basilica when the Pope pronounced his benediction was one of unparalleled excitement and enthusiasm. Thousands of persons within the cathedral cheered and waved their hats. All is now quiet.

Rome, Aug. 4.—After three full days of deliberation, during which six ballots have been taken, the members of the conclave still remain shut up in the Vatican, without having selected a successor to Leo XIII. Last evening the crowd, estimated at 18,000 persons, watched the smoke from the Sistine Chapel, announcing the futility of the sixth ballot.

When the smoke appeared there were loud cries of disappointment, and even derision, for Rome is becoming extremely impatient over the delay in the selection of the new Pope. To-day practically the only news which came from the Sistine Chapel was that of the extremely grave illness of Cardinal Herrero. It is presumed, however, that the other aged Cardinals are also suffering from their prolonged incarceration and the intense heat. There are those who are pessimistic enough to believe that the hostility among the factions in the Sacred College is so bitter that the struggle may be continued for several weeks. This view, however, finds little credence.

The Osservatore Romano, the organ of the Vatican, officially announces that Cardinal Herrero y Espinosa, being gravely ill, has received the last communion. Mgr. Bonifacio Marin, the Vicar-General of his archdiocese (Valencia), was admitted to the conclave to-day, the door being opened for that purpose with all the prescribed precautions. The apostolic protonotary-admittance of Monsignor Marin was and two sons of Prince Chigi, acted as witnesses. The record of the official inscribed.

One of the daily sights at the Vatican now is the arrival of the nun whom Cardinal Vaszary, Prince Archbishop of Gran and Primate of Hungary, brought with him from Hungary to act as his cook. Cardinal Vaszary is the wealthiest of the cardinals, and is reputed to have an income of $400,000 annually. He desired to have his cook enter the conclave, but the presence of women being forbidden by all the rules, he arranged to have her cook his dinner outside and bring it daily to the Sistine Chapel. She comes daily in a cab, and escorted by two Hungarian soldiers in uniform.

GOING AHEAD

A. T. Macdonald, managing editor of the New York Daily News, is in the city on a vacation.

Mr. Macdonald, when asked about the reported forthcoming sale of the New York News, said the paper would be sold by public auction on August 21.

"But," added Mr. Macdonald, "the paper will continue under the present management. It has nearly doubled its circulation in the last six months and is prospering."

"The sale of the News is due to discussion among the stockholders, but has been more or less hampered by others with smaller interests, and he has decided to offer the entire plant for sale. He will buy it in, and then endeavor to give New York the same high class newspaper that he is giving Boston in the Boston Journal, and Washington in the Washington Times. He is not going out of the newspaper business, but, on the contrary, in the near future expects to be sole owner of a chain of newspapers in the large cities of the east."

Mrs. Macdonald accompanied Mr. Macdonald on this vacation trip, and they are guests at the home of Mrs. Macdonald's parents on Wellington St.

No man ever did a designing injury to another, but at the same time he did a greater to himself.

When a watch runs down it has the spring to blame.

NEW CHARGE

Maple City Minister to Take Pastorate of Streetsville Church.

(Special to The Planet.)

Toronto, Aug. 4.—The Presbytery this morning sustained the call of Rev. S. T. Martin, of Chatham, to Streetsville. Mr. Martin graduated from Knox College this year. He will be ordained on Sept. 3.

Rev. Mr. Martin is a son of ex-Mayor S. T. Martin of this city.

ATTACKED BY SWORDFISH.

A Fishing Schooner Has to Run for Port.

Gloucester, Mass., Aug. 4.—Captain Cooney of the schooner Emily Cooney had an experience in the South Channel with a swordfish recently which caused him to give up his voyage and run to port. At first the fish made off at a tangent from the craft, and then, as if angered, turned and with a terrific rush made direct for the vessel.

The fish jumped out of the water as if to get at the man on the bowsprit who wielded the harpoon. Unable to do this he charged at the vessel, and diving three feet below the surface struck the craft with such force that the sword penetrated the 2 1/2 inch oak planking into the craft and a foot of the sword was broken off.

The blow was felt all over the vessel. It began to leak in consequence and Capt. Cooney decided to run for port. The vessel was put on the marine railway, where the plank pierced was taken out. It was badly shattered.

Reginald Westcott Drowned.

Kingsville, Aug. 3.—Reginald, the son of Fraser Westcott of the Molsons Bank, was drowned in the lake while bathing this afternoon.

Antonio Turkowski, a Pole, was put to death in the electric chair at Sing Sing Prison, though he declared he was innocent of the murder of John Shefoloski, a Brooklyn saloonkeeper.
