MUST NOT CHARGE EMERGENCY WAR TAX.

New York, November 18.—Agents in the New York Fire Insurance Exchange territory are receiving the Eastern Union form of circular telling them that they must not charge the emergency war tax, under any circumstances, to the companies. The Exchange resolution, however, is different from those adopted by other organizations in that it contains the following clause:

"Where a policy is cancelled, not taken celled for non-payment of premium without any premium whatever being paid thereon, this requirem for collection of cost of stamps from the insured may be waived; but if any premium whatever is collected, the whole of such cost of stamps must also be collected and retained, regardless of subsequent partial or total cancellation of the policy."

Mr. Justice Beudin yesterday granted permission to the Right Rev. W. Lennox Mills, Lord Bishop of requirements of the agreement.

It is claimed on behalf of the corporation that they have expended $46,000 so far on the project, and are prepared to carry it to completion, which would mean the expenditure of $700,000 if they are given adequate time to recover from the effects of the war which has upset all their financial arrangements.
