GOSSIP

Messrs. Geo. Davis & Sons, Alton, Ont. write. "The Aberdeen-Angus bulls offered in our advertisement are a choice lot; a two-year-old, which is an exceptionally fine animal, and for quality cannot be beaten. The three yearlings are smooth, even and low-set fellows, of the real Angus type, weighing from eight hundred to nine hundred pounds, and just turned twelve months of age. Any person needing such should not hesitate in writing for particulars, as they will cer tainly please the purchaser.

Mr. J. Brydone, Milverton, Ont., in ordering change of advertisement, writes stock Shorthorn bull Sittyton Victor (imp.), for sale, I do so with a very great degree of reluctance, as he has proven himself a valuable sire, but my herd is not large enough to keep two, and I have a number of heifers by him, old enough to breed, so have decided to offer him for sale. will get a bargain. I have refused some tempting offers for him, but would not sell till forced to do so. Have recently sold a young bull to head the herd of W. B. & R. Struthers, Poole; also one to head the well-known herd of Jas. Gibb. Brooksdale, Ont. Have still a few left out of imported cows, and all got by Sittyton Victor =50093 = (87397).

Mr. John McFarlane, Dutton, Ont. writes: "My neighbor, Mr. Ford, and I, have on hand about 45 Shorthorn females of noted families, both imported and home-bred. We have bought from Mr. Geo. Fletcher, Binkham, a young bull out of the imported cow Orange Blossom, and sired by Joy of Morning (imp.). Also from kyle Bros., Ayr, a nice nine-months-old roan, by Bapton Chancellor (imp.). In this herd there are fifteen bulls for sale, from seven to seventeen months old, all dark reds; will he sold at reasonable prices, to make room for others. Some of them are out of imported dams of Choice Lustre, others of Alexandra, Roan Lady, and Strathallan families. In sheep we have a num-
